The like Licenſe, Patent, Clauſes of grace and proviſo verbatim, iſſued this year to the Chief Juſtice for another Abbeſſe in Ireland, m. 6. Teſte Rege apud Rochelan. 15 die Auguſti.*

By which it is apparent, That although the King out of ſpecial grace did ſometimes diſpence with the Rights of his Crown in the electing and confirming of Biſhops, Abbots and Abbeſſes in Ireland, without his previous licenſe to elect, or by his Chief Juſtice his approbation and confirmation of them, in his name and ſtead, yet it was with a ſpecial proviſo, teſtified by Charters under their reſpective ſeals, that it ſhould not turn to the prejudice or diſinheritance of him or his Heirs, nor be drawn into cuſtome or conſequence for the future, which they were then prone to do upon all occaſions, as well as Popes and our Engliſh Prelates, as future preſidents will demonſtrate.

KIng Edward the 1. having the year before by special Writs*, prohibited all Foreign Merchants to transport or return any monies to the Pope, collected and laid up in several Monasteries by the Popes Collectors in England for the 6. years Dismes granted in the Council of Lions, towards the relief of the Holy Land; (to secure it from transportation, for the publick good of the Realm, and right use for which it was given, that so his Brother Earl Edmund might be furnished therewith to ayd the Holy Land with a considerable force) issued Writs to Sheriffs and others, to view and secure that money, which they did in sundry places, breaking up the locks, trunks, closets where it was deposited, and taking it into their own custody. The Priors of Ely and Norwich fearing, obeying the Pope and his Collectors more then the King or his Officers, peremptorily refused to permit them to view or secure the monies laid up in their Monasteries; for which high contempt the King issued these memorable Writs, to summon them with some of their discreetest Monks to appear before him, wherever he should be in England or Wales, to answer these affronts, and receive condign punishment for the same.

The Pope being informed by his Agents of the Kings ſtopping and ſeiſing of theſe Diſmes, was very cordially affected and diſcontented therewith; whereupon he writ and ſent a very angry threatning Letter to the King, requiring him to reſtore all the monies thus ſeiſed within one months ſpace, notwithſtanding all his excuſes and pretences in his Letter to him, which he reputed frivolous; which if he neglected or refuſed to do, he would rigorouſly proceed againſt him and his Realm by way of Excommunication and Interdict; and withall ſent another Letter to John Peckam his devoted creature, (whom he had lately advanced to the Archbiſhoprick of Canterbury) to reſort perſonally to the King, upon his canonical obedience, and to induce him by all means to reſtore or repoſite the intire money without difficulty, reciting therein the contents of his Letter to the King; which the Archbiſhop moſt diligently and peremptorily executed, as his own Epiſtle and account thereof to Pope Martin, enrolled in his Regiſter, (worthy ſpecial obſervation) inform us; thus related by Matthew Parker.

Martinus Epiſcopus Servus ſervorum Dei, venerabili Fratri Archiepiſcopo Cantuarienſi, ſalutem & Apoſtolicam benedictionem. Intellecto nuper, quod chariſſimus in Chriſto filius noſter Edwardus Rex Angliæ illuſtris, pecuniam Decimæ in regno Angliæ per Lugdunenſe Concilium Terræ Sanctæ conceſſæ ſubſidio, quæ per collectores a ſede Apoſtolica deputatos, in ſacris et tutis locis depoſita, ſub fide ſuique cuſtodia ſervabatur, de locis ipſis, ſigillis ſeriſque violenter effractis, quibus loca eadem firmabantur, motu proprio, pecuniæ præfatæ cuſtodientibus renitentibus et invitis totaliter amoveri, et ad certum locum pro ſuæ voluntatis libito, non abſque magna divinæ Majeſtatis offenſa, multoque ſedis Apoſtolicæ contemptu, ac ejuſdem terræ gravi diſpendio, fecerat aſportari; mirati fuimus et turbati, cum ſine noſtra et ipſius ſedis licentia ſpeciali attemptare talia minime debuiſſet. Unde nos præfato Regi noſtras ſub certa forma dirigimus literas inter alia continentes, ut ipſe diligenti meditatione conſiderans, quantum in hoc ſuum offenderit Creatorem, cujus in hac parte negotium agitur, quantum Romanam Eccleſiam perturbarit, quantumve læſerit famam ſuam, pecuniam ipſam in locis de quibus extitit de mandato Domini Regis amota, factat ſublata difficultate qualibet, excuſationibus ſeu rationibus in literis Regis, nobis ſuper hoc tranſmiſſis, aſpectis nequaquam obſtantibus, quas omnino fribolas duximus reputandas, cum Nec ipſum latere volumus, quod quantumcunque perſonam ejus ſinceris affectibus proſequamur, Regique libenter deferamus honori, nequaquam pati poterimus, cum non ſit deferendum homini plusquam Deo, quin ſuper hoc; ſi opus extiterit, aliud remedium apponamus. Volumus igitur et fraternitati tuæ per Apoſtolica ſcripta in virtute obedientiæ diſtricte præcipiendo mandamus, quatenus ad eundem Regem te perſonaliter conferens, ipſum juxta datam tibi a Deo prudentiam, ex parte noſtra diligenter moneas et inducas, ut infra unius menſis ſpatium poſt monitionem tuam, prædictam pecuniam in locis eiſdem, juxta literarum ipſarum tenorem, cum integritate reſtitui faciat ſeu reponi; aperte prædicens eidem, quod cum tantum et tam grave dictæ Terræ Sanctæ diſpendium nolumus, ſicuti nec debemus, aliquatenus ſuſtinere, niſi hujuſmodi monitioni parere curaverit, tam contra eum quam terram ſuam, prout qualitas facti erigerit, et expedire viderimus, procedamus. Et quia hujuſmodi negotium potiſſime incidet cordi noſtro, volumus ut de monitione tua, & ipſius Regis reſponſione, ac aliis quæ ſuper hoc egeris cum eodem, confici facias duo publica ſimilia inſtrumenta, quæ nobis per latorem præſentium mittere non poſtponas. Nichilominus ſignificaturus nobis plenarie quicquid ſuper præmiſſis duxeris faciendum, ut per te ſuper his informati plenius et inſtructi, tutius et efficacius in hac parte procedere valeamus. Dat. apud Urbem Veterem 3 Non. Julii, Pontificatus noſtri anno tertio. (What this Archbiſhop did in obedience thereunto, he thus certified the Pope:) Hinc igitur Sanctitatis veſtræ mandato vires et vota ſubjiciens reverenter, requiſito indilate Rege prædicto repertoque in finibus Walliæ, poſt literas veſtras eidem directas, quas ipſius intuli manibus, literas etiam veſtræ beatitudinis mihi miſſas coram ipſo et Magnatibus ſuis tunc præſentibus expoſui vulgariter et aperte, tandemque expoſiti auctoritate mandati Regem ipſum monui ſuper tribus.

Primo, ut pecuniam Decimæ ſuis juſſionibus aſportatam faceret integraliter infra menſem ad priſtinæ loca cuſtodiæ reportari, tanta devotionis promptitudine, quæ poſſet aſportationis maculam expiare.

Secundo, ut de cætero talibus auſibus penitus abſtineret; adjungens, quod licet ipſum Apoſtolica clementia in chariſſimorum filiorum numero complectatur, ſi tamen ipſum contingeret in talibus offenſionibus de cætero inveniri, non poſſe eam nec velle virgam ei correctionis ſubtrahere, ne parcendo homini divinis injuriis quas non corrigeret, aſſentiret.

Tertio, ne cuſtodibus vel depoſitariis pecuniæ memoratæ aliquid hujus occaſione moleſtiæ vel gravaminis irrogaret. Quibus ſilenter ac reverenter auditis, tandem cum ſuis deliberatione præhabita, ad ſibi propoſita ſic reſpondit:

Ad primum, inquiens, quoniam non fuiſſet neceſſarium pro hac cauſa Summum Pontificem nobis ſuas literas deſtinaſſe, nec Archiepiſcopum ad Regiam acceſſiſſe præſentiam, cum pene duobus elapſis menſibus pecuniam prædictam juſſerimus reſtitui cum effectu.

Ad ſecundum ſubjungens, quod nihil indebitum intendebat de cætero contra Eccleſiam attemptare.

Ad tertium, miramur aſſerens, quare ad illos cuſtodes jubemur ſpecialiter innocentiam cuſtodire, cum noſtri ſit propoſiti immobilis conceptio, ſicut & debitum Regiæ dignitatis nullum ladere pro viribus innocentem. (A very milde and ſober anſwer, to theſe inſolent Papal and Pontifical demands; After which he ſubjoyns,) Demum juxta mandati veſtri beneplacitum (Pater Sancte) feci fieri publica Inſtrumenta, præcepta veſtra reverenter et diligenter, ſicut potui, in omnibus executus. Ad hæc noverit veſtra providentia Sanctitatis, quod licet communiter fidedignis teſtimoniis aſtruatur, quod prædicta pecunia ſit juxta juſſionem Regiam ſuis cuſtodiis reſtituta, hujus tamen præciſa veritas ſcire non poterit, niſi per illos qui ipſius noverunt pondus, numerum, et menſuram. Cuſtodiat Dominus incolumitatem veſtram Eccleſiæ ſuæ

The King having the year before invaded the Principality of Wales, and almoſt totally ſubdued it, though with ſome loſs, by advice of his Prelates, Nobles, and Commons, for the future peace and ſecurity of the Realm from their frequent Rebellions and Incurſions, reſolved totally to ſubdue them with a puiſſant Army; for which purpoſe ſtanding in need of new and great ſupplyes of Moneys, he by his Regal Authority iſſued out ſeveral ſpecial Writs to the Archbiſhops of Canterbury and York, and the Biſhops within their Provinces, to haſten on the payment of the Quindiſme they had granted him the year before, wherein the Archbiſhop was very negligent, though over-zealous to promote the Kings reſtitution of the Diſmes collected for the Holy Land to the Pope, which after its reſtitution, he was enforced to borrow upon Security, and make uſe of againſt the Welſh Rebels. After which he ſent forth other Writs to them, and likewiſe to the Abbots, Deans, Chapters, Clergy and Commonalty within their reſpective Provinces to meet together at ſeveral times and places, to adviſe with ſuch Perſons as himſelf intruſted, to grant him a liberal Ayde and Supply of Moneys to accompliſh this neceſſary and uſefull Deſign at once; thus recorded to poſterity in the Rolls of this year, remaining in the Tower of London.

Conſimiles literæ & de eadem data diriguntur Archiepiſcopo Eborum, quod Suffraganeos, &c. venire faciat coram Rege apud Eborum in Octabis prædictis bel coram fidelibus Regis, quos, &c.

What an inſolent undutifull Anſwer this Arch-Prelate gave when they aſſembled in Parliament and Convocation at Northampton to this juſt and neceſſary requeſt of the King, to promote the publick peace and felicity of the Church and Realm, who was ſo zealous to obey the Popes Commands, in demanding preſent reſtitution of the Diſmes collected for the Holy Land, which he had ſeized, and might with more juſtice, reaſon make uſe of to ſupply his preſent preſſing neceſſities, than ſuffer the Pope and his Agents to convert them to their own private uſes, Matthew Parker thus relates: * In hoc Parliamento Johannes Cantuarienſis Archiepiſcopus, cum Rex a Clero Decimam Prabentuum Eccleſiaſticorum ad ſumptus in Cambria factos recuperandos toto proximo triennio ſibi ſolvi petiiſſet, vicisſim petiit, (in a very *inſolent manner) ut jura et privilegia vetera pro Eccleſiaſtica immunitate a Britannorum, Saxorum et Dacorum Regibus antiquitus tributa, quæ in S. Edwardi et Canuti Regum legibus deſcripta, a Willielmo Normanno approbata, ab Henrico primo in controverſiam vocata, ſed ab Henrico ſecundo rejecta et poſthabita fuere, jam tandem authoritate Regia, omniumque in eo Parliamento conſenſu firmarentur. Cujus rei deliberatio, Decima jam conceſſa, (much againſt the Archbiſhops mind) in aliud tempus dilata eſt. Notwithſtanding the King to ingratiate himſelf with him, In hoc Parliamento Aimarus quidam de Monteforti Clericus, quem Rex Cambrenſis belli reum ſuſpicabatur, & carceribus inclusit, intercedente Cantuarienſi Archiepiſcopo cum ſuis Suffraganeis, ſimulque fide jubente ne quid, detrimenti ab eo Reipublicæ inferatur, liberatus eſt. Is Romam ſe ad Papam contulit, et abjecto Papæ authoritate Clericatu, ſe addixit infauſtus militiæ. Paulo enim poſtquam ſe armis enſeque cinxiſſet, nullo geſto aut ſuſcepto obiit.

[a] William Thorne (a Monk of Canterbury) informs us, that Anno 1283. Nicholas Abbot of St. Auguſtines Canterbury, ut confratres ſui commodius poſſent vacare orationi & contemplationi, & ut in diverſis libris quandoque ſtudendi operam darent, ordinavit & ſtatuit de conſenſu (Conventus) unanimi ad ſupradicta melius & uberius cuſtodienda, ut de divinis Officiis, quæ ſcilicet de regulæ noſtræ ſubſtantia non exiſtant aliqualiter moderantur; abbreviating their long Divine Service in ſundry particulars formerly uſed, upon this account, quod divinum officiū moroſius & devotius ab omnibus ſuſtentetur, & etiam in reliquo tempore in ſtudiis & bonis occupationibus diligentius quiſque ſe occuparet: For which he was ſo farr from blame, that this Hiſtorian gives this Encomium of him; De præcedentibus non recolo me per eorum actus in regimine vidiſſe illum excellentem, nec vero in ſubſequentibus, ſurrexiſſe ſibi coæquales. After which he being troubled in conſcience about the unuſual way of his election and confirmation at Rome, (as [b] elected Abbot in forma compromiſſi by the Treaſurer and 5. Monks more, per ſpeciale mandatum Prioris & Conventus, qui huic electioni ſecundum formam compromiſſi ſuum præbuêre conſenſum; not by the whole Covent aſſembled together, as in the uſual form.) Iſtis ſic actis, volens idem N. ſuam electionem celeriter expedire, habito proceſſu electionis, literiſque Regiis ac Magnatum ſimul optentis, apoſtolico conſpectui ſe præſentavit: Proceſſu in Curia diligenter examinato die S. Ambroſii confirmatus, Sancto die Paſchæ ab Epiſcopo Portuenſi Cardinali de mandato Papæ Nicholai Romæ benedictus eſt, (no doubt for a great reward then given, which troubled his conſcience.) Upon this account above 10. years after, he procured the Kings licenſe to repair to Pope Martyn, where, without the Kings privity, and againſt his Prerogative, he reſigned his Abby to the Pope, who by his Bulls (without the Kings royal aſſent, or Monks election) conſtituted Thomas de Fyndone Abbot; for which high uſurpation on the Kings prærogative, the Temporalties of the Abbey were ſeiſed and detained in the Kings hands, till he paid a Fine of 400 Marks for this contempt, beſides the mean profits amounting to 300 l. thus related by the ſame Monkiſh Hiſtorian. [c] Nicholaus de Spina paſtor hujus Eccleſiæ per decem annos, & de ſequenti per quatuor vel quinque ſeptimanas gregem ſibi commiſſam ſtrennuiſſime rexiſſet, et ea quæ prius in Romana Curia, ob zelum tamen Domus ſuæ ibidem fecerat, mente revolvens, quia vir erat ſtrictæ conſcientiæ, videns ſeipſum pro hujuſmodi cauſa in conſcientia ſore læſum, nec ulterius Pastorale officium poſſe ſibi de cætero juſto titulo competere; ipſe petita licentia a Rege et obtenta, (eodem autem Rege cauſam ſui tranſitus minime cognoſcente) tranſfretabit; ipſoque coram Summo Pontifice conſcientiam ſuam demonſtrante, et eodem Pontifice ſuper hujuſmodi offenſa cum eodem Nicholao libenter voluiſſe diſpenſaſſe; tamen ipſe omnibus ſepoſitis continue ceſſionem ſuam cum maxima inſtantia procuravit. Tandem die Pancraſii Martyris Dominus Apoſtolicus Martinus Papa 4. ſuam ceſſionem admiſit. Qua admiſſa, idem Papa fratrem Thomam de Fyndone tunc tertium Priorem Sancti Auguſtini Cant. in Anglia exiſtentem præfecit in Abbatem apud Urbem veterem, Anno Pontificatus ſui tertio. Injunxit verò idem Papa eidem N. in ſua ceſſione, ut nominaret ſibi perſonam magis habilem Monaſterii cui præſidebat. Ille vero prædictum Thomam denominavit eſſe virum prudentem, moribus, ſcientia, & ætate multipliciter decoratum, in temporalibus & ſpiritualibus

These pious Chriſtian endeavours of the King for peace, being inſolently rejected by the Popes Legate, the iſſue of the War this year (which he fomented) was ſo tragical to all parties, that Peter of Aragon died of a wound received in battel with the French, King Philip and Pope Martin both died of ſickneſſe, about the ſame time the French were likewiſe expelled Portugal, and Alphonſo (Peters ſon) ſucceeded his father, notwithſtanding the Popes Excommunications and deprivation, which then were not formidable, but contemptible even in Sicily, Aragon, Italy, and Rome it ſelf.

An. 12 E. 1. King Edward in the 12. year of his reign, to keep a good correſpondence with the Pope, his Cardinals, Notaries, and other Officers in the Court of Rome, to promote his own affairs and deſigns, upon receipt of Pope Martins Bull and Acquittance, iſſued theſe enſuing Warrants for the payment of two years arrears of 1000 Marks for England and Ireland, granted by King John, then due and demanded by the Pope; as likewiſe for payment of ſeveral arrears of Penſions he had granted to Cardinals and others, as theſe Writs in the Liberate Roll of that year aſſure us.

In this Parliament, to prevent all Suits in Ecclesiastical Courts for Advousons of Churches, and to give Patrons better and speedier remedies to recover their Advousons, against usurpers, in the Kings Temporal Courts, then formerly they had, the King, Lords and Commons enacted this Law.

* Cap. 5. Whereas for Advowsons of Churches there be but three originall Writts; that is to say, one Writt of Right, and two of Possession, which be Darrayne Presentment, and Quare Impedit; and hitherto it hath beene used in the Realme, that when any haveing noe right to present, had presented to any Church, whose Clerk was admitted; he, that was very Patron, could not recover his Advowson, but onely by a Writt of Right, which should be tryed by Batayle, or by Great Assise; whereby Heires within age, either by fraude, or else by negligence of their Gardians; and Heires, both of right and meane Estate, either by negligence, or else by fraude of Tennants by the Courtesie, Tennants in Dower, or otherwise for terme of Life, or for Years, or in Fee Taile, were many times disinherited of their Advowsons, or at the least (which was the better for them) were driven to their Writt of Right; in which case they were hitherto without remedie: It is provided, that such Presentments shall not bee so prejudiciall to the right Heires, or to them unto whome such Advowsons ought to revert after the death of other persons. For as often as any haveing no right doth present, dureing the time that such Heires are in Ward, or dureing the Estates of Tennants in Dower, by the Courtesie, or otherwise for terme of Life, or of Years, or in Taile, at the next avoidance when the Heir is come to full age, or when after the death of the Tennants before named, the Advowson shall revert to the Heir being of full age, hee shall have such Action and Receipt by Writt of Advowson possessorie, as his last Aunceſtor should have had at the last avoidance, happening in his time, being of full age before his death, or before the Demise was made for terme of Life, or in Fee Taile, as before is said. The same shall bee observed in Presentments made unto Churches, being of the Inheritance of Women, what time they shall bee under the power of their Husbands, which must bee ayded by this Estatute, by the remedie aforesaid. Also Religious men, as Bishops, Archdeacons, Persons of Churches, and other spirituall men, shall bee ayded by this Estatute, in case any haveing noe right do present unto Churches belonging to Prelacies, spirituall Dignities, Personages, or to Houses of Religion, what time such Houses, Prelacies, spirituall Dignities, or Personages bee vacant. Neither shall this Act bee so largely understanden, that such persons for whose remedie this Statute was ordeyned, shall have the recovery aforesaid, surmysing that Gardeynes of Heires, Tennants in Taile, by the Courtesie, Tennants in Dower, for terme of Life, or for Years, or Husbands which have faintly defended Pleas moved by them or against them, because the Judgements given against them in the * Kings Courts, should not bee annulled by this Statute, the Judgement shall stand in his force, untill it bee reversed in the Court of the King, as erroneous, if errour bee found, or by Assise of Darreine Presentment, or by enquest in Quare Impedit, if it bee passed, by Attaint, or be annulled by Certification, which shall bee freely graunted. And from henceforth one forme of Pleading shall bee observed amongst Justices in Writts of Darraine Presentment, and Quare Impedit; so that where the Defendaunt alledged plenarty in the Church of his own Presentation, the Plea shall not fall by reason of that plenarty, so that the Writt bee purchased within six moneths, though hee cannot recover his Presentation within the six moneths. And sometimes where a Fyne is levied betweene many claiming one Advowson, and inrolled before the Justices in the rolle or fine in this forme, That one shall present the first time, and at the next Advowson another, and the third time another, and so of many in case there bee many. And when one hath presented for his tourne according to the forme of their agreement, and fyne, and at the next avoidance, hee to whome the second Presentation belongeth, is disturbed by any that was partie to the said fine, or in his stead; It is provided, that from henceforth he that is so disturbed, shall have no need to sue a Quare Impedit, but shall resort to the Rolle or Fine. And if the said concord or agreement bee found found in the Rolle or Fine, then the Shiriffe ſhall bee commanded, that hee give knowledge unto the Diſtourber, that hee bee ready at ſome ſhort day, conteyning the ſpace of fifteene dayes, or three weekes, (as the place happeneth to be neare or farre) for to ſhew if hee can alledge any thing, wherefore the partie that is diſtourbed, ought not to preſent. And if hee come not, or peradventure doth come, and can alledge nothing to barre the partie of his Preſentation, by any deed made or written ſince the fine was made or inrolled, hee ſhall recover his Preſentation, with his dammages. And where it chanceth, that after the death of the Auncestor of him that preſented his Clerk to a Church, the ſame Advowſon is aſſigned in Dower to any Woman, or to Tennant by the Courteſie, which doe preſent, and after the death of ſuch Tennants, the verie Heire is diſtourbed to preſent, when the Church is void; It is provided, that from henceforth it ſhall bee in the election of the partie diſtourbed, whether he will ſue a Writt of Quare Impedit, or of Darraine Preſentment. The ſame ſhall bee obſerved in Advowſons demiſed for terme of Life, or Yeares, or in Fee Taile. And from henceforth in Writts of Quare Impedit, and Darraine Preſentment, dammages ſhall be awarded, that is to wit of the time of ſix moneths paſt, ſo that the Biſhop do preſent, and the very Patrone loſeth his Preſentation for that time, dammages ſhall bee awarded for two yeares value of the Church. And if the ſix moneths be not paſſed, and the preſentment be deraigned within the ſaid time, then dammages ſhall bee awarded to the halfe yeares value of the Church. And if the diſtourber have not whereof hee may recompence dammages, in caſe where the Biſhop preſenteth by lapſe of time, hee ſhall bee puniſhed by two yeares impriſonment. And if the Advowſon be deraigned within the halfe yeare, yet the diſtourber ſhall bee puniſhed by the impriſonment of halfe a yeare. And from henceforth Writts ſhall bee graunted for * Chappells, Prebends, Vicarages, Hoſpitalls, Abbeys, Priories, and other Howſes which bee of the Advowſons of other men, that have not beene uſed to be graunted before. And when the Perſon of any Church is diſtourbed to demande Tythes in the next Pariſh by a † Writt of Indicavit, that Patron of the Perſon ſoe diſtourbed, ſhall have a Writt to demande the Advowſon of the Tythes, being in demande; and when it is deraigned, then ſhall the Plea paſſe in the Court Chriſtian, as farre forth as it is deraigned in the Kings Court. When an Advowſon deſcendeth unto Parceners, though one preſent twice, and uſurpeth upon his Coheire, yet he that was negligent ſhall not bee cleerly barred, but another time ſhall have his tourne to preſent, when it falleth.

What benefit this Act gave to Patrons, and what additions it made to the Common Law, the words of the Act, together with Statham, Brooke, Fitzherbert, Hughs in their Abridgements of the Law, Natura Brevium, and Aſh, Titles Aſſiſe de Darrein Preſentment, Droit de Advonſon, Indicavit, Quare Impedit, and Sir Edward Cooke in his Commentary on it, Inſtitutes 2. p. 353, to 366. will at large inform you: Only I ſhall obſerve three particulars from it.

First, That although Pope Alexander 3. the Council of Lateran under him, and our Biſhops endeavoured to deprive the King and his Temporal Courts of holding Plea of Advouſons of Churches, and the right of Patrons to preſent to them, (as I have [a] elſewhere obſerved) yet our Kings and Nobles would never aſſent thereto, but preſerved their antient Right and Juriſdiction veſted in them by the Common Laws of England, which they further ratified by this Statute.

2ly. That although this Pope and Council of Lateran (not of Lions, as [b] Britton miſtakes) confined Patrons when Churches or Prebendaries became void, [c] quod infra ſex menſes perſonis, quæ digne adminiſtrare valeant, conferantur; whereas [d] Bracton, [e] Fleta, and our other [f] Law Books inform us, ante Concilium Lateranenſe nullum currebat tempus contra præſentantes; the Biſhop providing only a Clerk to ſerve the Cure till the Patron preſented or collated to it, but having no power or right to preſent thereto himſelf by way of lapſe; yet this [g] Councils Canons did never oblige the Kings of England, who by their Prerogatives were obliged to no time, but might and did preſent or collate to Biſhopricks, Churches, Abbies, Prebendaries, and other Benefices preſentative or donative, to which they had right, whenever they pleaſed; nor did this binde other Patrons & Subjects of this Realm, till eſtabliſhed as a Law by conſent of the King in Parliament; yea the ſix moneths, (as the Council) or half year (as this Act ſtiles it) ſhall be accounted ſix full Kalendar moneths, amounting to half half one year, not six moneths consisting of 28. dayes, as was adjudged by all the Judges of England in * Catesbyes case, and others therein recited.

3ly. That the right of Tithes, by the Common Law was originally and antiently triable only at the Common Law in the Kings Temporal Courts, not in the Ecclesiastical by the Canon Law, who had no Jurisdiction to hold plea of Tithes issuing out of Freeholds, no more then of rents, before the right of them was determined in the Kings Court by a Writ of Indicavit; which Writ (as † Sir Edward Cooke observes) is against the Canonical Sanction, and yet hath been ever obeyed; for all forreign Sanctions or Canons against the Law of the Realm are of no force, and binde not here.

Next, whereas King Cnute the Dane after his return from Rome into England in a Parliamentary Council at Wynton, in Sancto Natali Domini, (printed in the [a] Chronicle of Bromton, Mr. William Lambard, and Mr. Abraham Whelock, cap. 96, 97. in the Latin, but 67, & 68. in the Saxon Edition) for the ease of his people enacted this Law, De intestato mortuis. Hac est allevatio quam omni populo meo prævidere volo, in quibus nimis omnino fuerant aggravati. Si quis ex hac vita decedat sine distributione rerum suarum, (or, as Lambard and Whelock better translate it, fugerit ab intestato mortuus) vel per incustodiam, vel per mortem improbisam, non usurpet sibi Dominus ejus de pecunia sua, (nisi quantum adjustam relevationem pertinet, quæ Anglicè vocatur Hereget) sed sit secundum dictionem ejus, (or, judicio ejus, not of the Bishop or Ordinary) ipsa pecunia recte dibita, uxori, pueris, et proximis, unicuique secundum modum, qui ad eum pertinet, & sint relevaciones ita minutæ sicut modus est: Which Law was afterwards ratified by [b] Edward the Confessor, William the Conqueror, & Hen. 1. whereby it is apparent, 1. That before this Law, the Lord of every person dying intestate, usually claimed all his money and goods to himself. 2ly. That this Law confined every Lord to seise and retain no more of his Tenants money or goods, then would satisfie the relief, rent, or heriot due to him at his death. 3ly. That all the rest of his goods were to be rightly distributed between his wife, children, kinred, to each of them according to his proportion, as the Lord (not Bishop or Ordinary) should adjudge or direct. 4ly. That the Writ De Rationabili parte bonorum in case of Intestates, is not grounded upon the particular custom of some Counties, Boroughs or Cities, as is commonly mistaken, but on a general Law of the Land, namely on this Law of King Cnute, ratified both by the Confessor, Conqueror, Henry the 1. Magna Charta, c. 18. and on the Common Law of the Realm, as Bracton l. 2. c. 26. f. 60, 61. Hornes Mirrour of Justices, c. 5. sect. 2. p. 213. Fleta l. 2. c. 57. Fitzherbert in his Natura Brevium, f. 122. b. assure us, and the antient Writs in Glanvil, l. 12. c. 20. Secundum consuetudinem terræ nostræ, directly resolve, against the mistaken Clause in the Writs in the Register, f. 122. secundum consuetudinem in Comitatu prædicto (Berks) hactenus usitatum; and Sir Edward Cookes error grounded thereon, 2 Instit. p. 33. That this Writ doth not lie without a particular Custom. 5ly. That the Bishop or Ordinary before, or after this Law, had no legal authority by it, or any other Statute before this Parliament to make any distribution of the intestates goods, either to his wife, children or kinred, much lesse to any pious uses for the good of his Soul; not once mentioned, nor intimated in this or any other of his or his predecessors Lawes. Yet they usurped by degrees to themselves, either by pretext of a Clause in King Richard the 1. his Charter, or [c] King Johns Great Charter, (omitted in that of King Henry the 3. and Edward the 1.) or by a pretended Ordinance of the King and Lords, suggested in Ottobons, and Archbishop Stratfords Constitutions; or by Archbishop Boniface his Constitutions in the Council of Lambeth, (though protested, appealed against by King Henry the 3. as grievances, against the rights of his Crown, the Lawes, Customes of the Realm, as I have [d] formerly evidenced) a power to seise, dispose, and distribute to pious uses the goods and chattels of intestate persons; or rather in imitation of Pope Innocent the 4. who by a new unheard-of Papal Statute and Constitution (Anno Dom. 1246.) claimed to himself and his successors the disposal of the goods and chattels of all persons dying intestate, especially Clergymens, seising upon them by his Emissaries; non sine Principum injuria et jactura, utromnia eorum bona Papalis Charybdis deglutiret, et in gremio suæ avaritiæ amplectaretur, non sine nota manifestæ cupiditatis, as [e] Mat. Westminster, Matth.

Matth. Paris, and others ſtory of him, Quodcum audiſſet Dominus Rex (H. 3.) An. 13 E. 1.
deteſtans Romanæ Curiæ argumentoſam, ac multiplicem et multiformem avaritiam, hoc fieri prohibuit, comperiens illud in damnum regni et ſuum redundare præjudicium; (claiming a Regal intereſt in, and Juriſdiction over them;) which Statute and Conſtitution the Cardinals not long after enforced this Pope to revoke, by reaſon of the general ſcandal it gave in divers Climates; yet Pope Martyn the 4th. revived it by his practiſe near this time, in claiming the goods and chattels of [f] Robert Kylwardby, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, dying inteſtate at Rome, under pretext of diſtributing them to the poor, and pious uſes, which our Biſhops did thereupon likewiſe imitate in England, to the prejudice of Inteſtates Wives, Children, Lords, Creditors to whom they were obliged or indebted; Hereupon, to rectifie this uſurpation and abuſe, the King, Lords and Commons in this Parliament enacted this Law, ch. 19.

f Antiqu. Eccleſ. Brit. p. 198. See here, p. 216.

Cum poſt mortem alicujus decedentes inteſtati, & obligati aliquibus in debito, bona deveniant ad Ordinarium diſponenda, obligetur de cætero Ordinarius ad reſpondendum de debitis quatenus bona defuncti ſufficiunt; eodem modo quo executores reſpondere tenentur, ſi Teſtamentum feciſſent. West 2 c. 19.

[g] Sir Edward Cooke, in his Commentary on this Statute affirms; This Act was made in affirmance of the Common Law; That the Ordinary is the perſon whom the Law appointeth to take charge of the Adminiſtration of the goods and chattels of the party that dyeth inteſtate, or quaſi inteſtatus; and juſtly did the Law in this caſe appoint the Ordinary, for the Law preſumed, that he that had the care of his ſoul in his life-time, would after his death have care of his temporal goods and chattels to ſee them well diſpoſed and adminiſtred. But under his favour, I conceive it moſt evident, that the Common Law of England never intruſted the Biſhop or Ordinary (much leſſe their Vicars Generals, Chancellors, Commiſſaries, Officials, Surrogates) with the general diſpoſition, adminiſtration, or Judicature of all inteſtates temporal goods, debts, chattels after their deaths, of which they had, yea ought to have no care, diſpoſition, juriſdiction, adminiſtration during their lives, being inconſiſtent with, incongruous to their ſpiritual function, which is only the cure of ſouls, not of mens worldly eſtates, as I have [h] elſewhere evidenced; and the [i] forecited Lawes of King Cnute, Edward the Confeſſor, the Charter of King Henry the 1. and Magna Charta, which divide the goods and chattels of Inteſtates between their wives, children, if they have any, or the next of kin, and leave them to their adminiſtration and diſtribution, or elſe to the Kings, Lords of whom they held, not to the Biſhop or Ordinaries; Which being the antient Common & Statute Law of England, this his aſſertion muſt be a clear miſtake, contrary to his own and our other Judges Reſolutions in [k] Henſloes caſe: So that the end of this Statute (as I apprehend) was only to ſubject Ordinaries who ſeiſed goods or Chattels of perſons dying inteſtate by their uſurped Juriſdiction, (under this forged, falſe Popiſh pretext, of diſtributing them to pious uſes for the good of their ſouls, to leſſen their torments, and reſcue them out of purgatory) and make them as farre forth liable to ſatisfie the Inteſtates Bonds and Debts, as his Executors then were, had he made any; but not to give them any new legal authoritie or Juriſdiction over Inteſtates goods and chattels, which they had not before by the Common, or any other precedent Statute Law.

Moreover, to prevent the fruſtrating of the Statutes againſt Mortmain by religious and other Eccleſiaſtical perſons, through defaults, colluſions, or erecting Croſſes on Lands, this new Law was then likewiſe enacted.

* When religious men and other Eccleſiaſtical perſons do implead any; and the perſon impleaded makes default, whereby he ought to loſe the Land, foraſmuch as the Juſticies have thought hitherto, that if the party impleaded make default by colluſion, that where the Demaundant by occaſion of the Statute could not obtain ſeiſin of the Land by way of Gift or other alienation, he ſhall now by reaſon of default, and ſo the Statute is defrauded: It is ordeined by our Sovereign Lord the King in this caſe, that after the default made, it ſhall be inquired by the Countrey, whether the Demandant had right in the thing demanded, or no? and if it be found that the Demandant had right, the Judgement ſhall paſſe with him, and he ſhall recover ſeiſin; and if he hath no right, the Land ſhall accrew to the nexte Lord of the Fee, if he demand it within a year from the time of the Inqueſt taken. And if he do not demand it within a year, it ſhall accrew to the nexte Lord * 13 E. 1. c. 32.

An. 13 E. 1. Lord above, if he do demande it within half a year. And so every Lord after the next Lord, immediately shall have the space of half a year for to demand it successively, untill it come to the King, to whom at length, through default of other Lords, the Land shall accrew: And to challenge the Jurors of the Inquest every of the Chief Lords of the Fees shall be admitted; and likewise for the King they that will shall challenge. And after the Judgement given, the Land shall remain in the Kings hands, untill it be dereyned by the Demaundant or some other Chief Lord; and the Shiriffe shall be charged to answer therefore at the Exchequer.

Cap. 33. Forasmuch as many Tenants *set up, or cause to be set up Crosses in their Lands in prejudice of their Lords, to the intent their Tenants should defend themselves against the Chief Lords of the Fee, by the priviledge of Templars and Hospitallers; It is ordeyned, that such Lands shall be forfeit to the Chief Lords, or the King, in the same manner as is provided for Lands alienedin Mortmayne.

* See Fleta, l. 2. c. 50. sect. 16, 17, 18. p. 108. l. 5. c. 35. p 365.

For the true meaning and scope of which two Statutes, I shall referr you to Statham, Brooke and Fitzherbert their Abridgements, Title Collusion; and Cooke 2 Institutes, p. 428, to 433.

To prevent the Whoredom & Ravishment of Nuns they enacted, c. 34. Qui Monialem à domo sua abducat, licet Monialis consentiat, puniatur per prisonam trium annorum, & satisfaciat domui à qua abducta fuerat competenter, et nihilominus redimatur ad voluntatem Regis; all temporal penalties for what the Clergie deemed an Ecclesiastical offence; whence the Writ upon this Statute by a Prioresse for taking away a Nun, recites, * per quod divinum servitium in Ecclesia ipsius Prioriss multipliciter substractum fuit & diminutum.

Moreover to prevent the Alienation of Lands given to Monasteries by the King, his Ancestors, or others to religious uses, or services, by Abbots, Priors and Wardens for their own private luchre, or advancement, to purchase great preferments from the Pope, or to enrich their kinred, whores, or bastard children, against the Founders and Donors intent, to the discontinuing or ceasing the divine services or uses for which they were originally given, they provided new temporal remedies, no waies pleasing to the Abbots or Monks.

Cap. 41. Our Soveraign Lord the King hath ordeined, that if Abbots, Priours, Keepers of Hospitals, and other Religious Houses, founded by Him or by his Progenitors, do from henceforth aliene the Lands given to their houses by him, or by his Progenitors; the Land shall be taken into the Kings hands, and holden at his will; and the Purchacer shall lose his recovery as well of the Lands, as of the Money that be paid. And if the House were founded by an Earle, Baron, or other persons, for the Lands so aliened, he, from whom, or from whose Auncestor the Land so alienated was given, shall have such a Writ to recover the Lands in Demean. Præcipe tali Abbati quod justè, &c. reddat *G. One chief design in making this Law, was to prevent Abbots and Priors giving, or leasing the Lands of their Churches to their Whores, Concubines and Bastard children; a * common practise among these unchast Votaries, as well as with Popes, Cardinals, and Popish Bishops.

Concerning the Kings Marſhalls of Fee, the ſaid Marſhalls ſhall take of Abbots and Priours holding an whole Barony, when they make Homage or Fealty for their Baronies one Palfrait, or the price. And this ſhall alſo be obſerved amongſt Archbiſhops and Biſhops. Of ſuch as hold but a part of a Barony, whether they be Religious or Secular, he ſhall take according to the Portion of the part of the Barony that they hold. Of Religious men that hold in free Almes, and not by a Barony or part of a Barony, the Marſhal from henceforth ſhall demaund nothing. And our Soveraigne Lord the King hath granted, that by this Eſtatute a Marſhall of Fee ſhall not be barred hereafter to demand more, if he can ſhew that he hath right unto more. The Kings Chamberlains from henceforth ſhall have of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priours, and other perſons Spiritual, of Earls and Barons holding an entire Barony, a reaſonable fine, when they do their Homage. Ibid. Cap. 41.

By this it is apparent, that Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, and Priors, then did, and ought to do both Homage and Fealty to the King as their Soveraign Lord, for their Baronies, as well as Temporal Lords, at leaſtwiſe after their election, and before their conſecration, if not after it; as is evident by Glanvil, l. 9. c. 1, 2. Bracton, f. 78. E. Britton, c. 68. Fleta, l. 3. c. 16. Littleton, §. 86. and other evidences I have [1] elſewhere cited at large, notwithſtanding all Popiſh Canons and Decrees againſt it.

The Templars and Hoſpitallers, and Conſervators of their Priviledges by Bulls from Popes uſurping upon the Kings Prerogative and Subjects Liberties, by illegal Citations into their Courts, for matters belonging to the Kings Courts; they then enacted this Law againſt ſuch their Uſurpations.

Be it prohibited from henceforth to Hoſpitallers and Templars, that hereafter they bring no man in Plea before the Keepers of their Priviledges, for any matter, the knowledge whereof belongeth to the Kings Court; which if they doe, firſt they ſhall yield Damages to the party grieved, and be grievouſly puniſhed unto the King. The King alſo prohibiteth to the Keepers of ſuch Priviledges, that from henceforth they graunt no Citations at the inſtance of Hoſpitallers, Templars, or other perſons priviledged, before it be expreſſed upon what matter the Citation ought to be made. And if the Keepers do ſee that a Citation is required upon any matter, the knowledge whereof belongeth to the Kings Court, the Keepers ſhall neither make nor knowledge the Citation. And if the Keepers doe otherwiſe, they ſhall yield Damages to the party grieved, and nevertheleſſe ſhall be grievouſly puniſhed by the King. And foraſmuch as ſuch perſons priviledged depute Keepers, Superiours, Chaunters, Sextons, which be Religious men, and which have nothing to ſatisfie the Parties grieved, nor the King, which be more bold to offend the Kings Dignity, then their Superiours, to whom puniſhment may be aſſigned by their Temporalties; Let the Prelates of ſuch Obedients therefore beware from henceforth, that they doe not ſuffer their Ordinaries to aſſume to themſelves any Juriſdiction in prejudice of the King and his Crown; and if they do, their Superiours ſhall anſwer for their fact, as if they had been convict upon their proper Act. Ibid. Cap. 43. And by parity of Law and Equity, Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Ordinaries ought to anſwer for the uſurpations, extravagances, excommunications, oppreſſions of their Vicars, Archdeacons, Chancellors, Commiſſaries, Surrogates, and other inferior officers, who commonly are more bold to uſurp upon the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts, and more vex, oppreſſe, grieve his Subjects, then their Superiours, as the experience of all ages evidence, to raiſe a fortune or family by unlawful gain, though they go to Hell in concluſion, and intail a curſe upon their poſterity.

Whether Articuli Cleri be a Statute or Act of Parliament or not, and when, where, or by whom made, there have been different, yea contrary opinions amongſt Lawyers: *Mich. 19 E. 3. *Fitzh. William Lindewode our greateſt Engliſh Canoniſt, An. 1423. being the *firſt year of of King Henry the 6. inſerted this Circumſpecte agatis into his Provincial Conſtitutions of our Archbiſhops and Prelates, Provincialis lib. 2. Tit. De foro Competenti, f. 70. and made a large gloſſe thereon, where he writes, Iſtud c. Circumſpecte, non eſt Conſtitutio provincialis, ſed emanavit a Decreto Dom. Regis, (not Act of Parliament) quomodo viz. Juſticiarii ſui miſſi in Dioceſi Norwyc. ad aliqua ibidem ex parte Regis facienda & inquirenda, ſe quo ad Clerum ejuſdem Dioceſis abſtinerent ab infra ſcriptis, dimittentes ea fozo Eccleſiaſtico, et Eccleſiæ judicio terminanda et decidenda. Et nota, quod in hoc c. recitantur in ſpecie 13. caſus, ſive articuli, in quibus cognitio mere pertinet ad Judicem Eccleſiaſticum. And on the words Norwycenſem Epiſcopum, he thus gloſſeth. Rex ei miſit certos Juſticiarios ſuos ad procedendum ſub certa forma contra Epiſcopum Norwycenſem, et alios de Clero ſibi adhærentes, quibus poſtea Rex ſcripſit, ut hic habetur. So as Lyndewode (who firſt gloſſed upon this Text and Writ) never ſtiled nor eſteemed it a Statute or Act of Parliament, but only a private Writ iſſued by the King to his Juſtices ſent into the Dioceſe of Norwich, to inquire for the King of the abuſes and encroachments of this Biſhop and his Clergy upon his prerogative and the peoples Liberties, procured by this Biſhop and his Clergy after their miſſion thither. But what King it was who thus ſent this Writ, or when, or where it was made or dated, he determins not, being not mentioned in the Writ it ſelf, nor any Copies of it (all without date) the firſt whereof I finde printed being that in Lyndewode his Provinciale, Antwerpiæ impreſſum, Anno 1525. 25 die Decembris, ſumma cura atque diligentia Chriſtophori Eudovien. An. 13 E. 1.

To ſatisfie my ſelf and others, whether this was a real Statute or Act of Parliament, and when, where, or by whom firſt made, I have made the diligenteſt ſearch and enquiry I could after it and its original, both in our Records and Hiſtories, and am clear of opinion after all my inquiries, That it is no real Act of Parliament, nor made in the 13. year of King Edward 1. in the Parliament at Weſtminſter, nor in any other Parliament or year of this King Edward his reign; that it was only a Writ grounded on Articuli Cleri Anno 9 E. 2. made by, or iſſued upon the Biſhop of Norwich his requeſt, after Articuli Cleri; as theſe following Reaſons perſwade me.

Firſt, It is not once mentioned nor recorded in the Statute Roll of the Acts of Parliament made in the 13. and all other years of the reign of King Edward the 1. remaining in the Tower of London, nor in any Patent, Clauſe, Charter, Fine, or other Roll or Record of this Kings reign, (which I have twice diligently peruſed) nor in the Records of King Edward 1. in his Majeſties Exchequer; where doubtleſs it would have been enrolled, as well as all other Acts, Statutes, Ordinances, and Writs of importance made in his reign, being of ſo grand concernment to his Prerogative, Courts of Law, the Prelates Juriſdiction, and Subjects Liberties.

2ly. It is not ſo much as mentioned by, nor regiſtred in the antient parchment Manuſcript of the Statutes of King Henry 3. Edward 1. and beginning of Edward 2. his reign, in Lincolns Inne Library, written (as the hand perſwades me) in the reign of King Edward the 2.

3ly. The firſt time it was urged in any Court of Juſtice as a Statute, was * Mich. 19 E. 3. and then the Judges (who beſt knew its original) affirmed and reſolved it to be no Statute, but only a Writ formed in the Kings Name, by the Biſhops themſelves, to the prejudice of the Kings Crown and Courts, to enlarge their own Juriſdiction.

* Fitzh. Juriſdiction 28. See here p. 336.

4ly. Thereupon about 6. years after, in the 3d. Parliament held in the 25. year of King Edward 3. at Weſtminſter, Friday the Feaſt of St. Hilary, the Biſhops and Clergy in their Petitions to the King, did neither ſtile, nor preſſe the obſervation thereof as a Charter, Statute, or Ordinance of Parliament, but under the Name of a bare * Ordinance of Circumſpecte agatis, as ſome then called it: Their Petition, and the Kings anſwer thereto, is thus recorded in the Parliament Roll. † Item, qil vous pleſe graunter qe l'ordinance qe lon appelle Circumſpecte agatis, le quel eſt bien tenuz en pluſours poinctz, qe touchent contiuance de voſtre place, et voſtre profit, ſoit mainten et entierment tenue, en touz poinctz touchant Seinte Eſgliſe. To which the King gave this anſwer: Item quant en quint point, ſoit pene l'ordinance qe home appelle Circumſpecte agatis, et en quel point elle neſt mie tenue, et qe ſur ceo reaſon en ſoit faite. From which Petition and anſwer thereunto, I ſhall obſerve;

* See the Abridgement of the Records in the Tower, p. 81. which miſtranſlates it a Statute.

† Rot. Parl. An. 25 E. 3. nu. 62.

An. 13 E. 1. ſerve: 1. That in that Circumſpecti agatis mentioned in this their Petition, there were many points which concerned the conuſance of the Kings Court, and the Kings profit, which were well obſerved, as there are in Articuli Cleri; but in that now printed under this Title, there is nothing conteined of this nature; wherefore it ſeems to be meant only of Articuli Cleri, not of this forecited Writ, grounded on the Eccleſiaſtical branches of it. 2ly. That if meant of it, yet the Biſhops and Clergy themſelves did not then call it a Statute or Ordinance of Parliament in their Petition, nor the Kings Judges, Officers eſteem or obſerve it as ſuch, in any points that concerned Holy Church. 3ly. That the Biſhops and Clergy themſelves did in their Petitions in this Parliament, diſtinguiſh, yea ſever it from thoſe Charters, Statutes, Ordinances granted and confirmed to them in Parliaments by the King and his Royal Predeceſſors, inſiſted on in their firſt Petition, in theſe words; nu. 58. *Que le Roy de ſa benignete, (would vouchſafe) a eux grauter & confermer* totes les libertes, privileges et droitz, grantez et donez per luy et ſes noble progenitours avant ſes heures a Seinte Eſglise per lour Chartres, Eſtatuz, et autres Ordinances eut faitz; nuiment le Chartre nadgares a eux grant, &c. (viz. 14 E. 3. Stat. 3. c. 2.) pur le Roy en ſon Parlement tenuz a Weſtm. le mercredy en un quareſme lan de ſon regne Dengleterre quatorziſme, et de France primer, et que vous Juſtices les allouent come reaſon eſt, et ſils ne faont; commander a voſtre Chancellor, qe briefs ſoient grantez a cheſcun qe les demandra ſolonc la forme, et tenour des dits grants, Ordinances et Eſtatuz. Which the King then abſolutely granted and confirmed to them; giving likewiſe a particular anſwer, Quant au point touchant L'ordinance nadgares fait en Parlement; in the 14. year of his reign. Since then they mentioned not this Ordinence of Circumſpecte agatis in their firſt petition, amongſt the other Charters, Statutes and Ordinances made and granted to them in Parliament; nor alledge in their ſecond Petition, wherein they mention it, that it was made in Parliament, nor in what Parliament, as they did the Charter, Ordinance made by the King in the Parliament held at Weſtminſter Anno 14 E. 3. (c. 2.) concerning his preſentation to Advouſons in others rights, (the place, day, year whereof they particularly expreſſed) yea prayed no Writs to be made upon it by the Chancellor to thoſe who demanded them, as they did upon the Charter, Statutes and Ordinances made in Parliament, it ſeems clear to me they did not repute it an Act, or Parliament Ordinance. 4ly. The King in his anſwer thereto, not calling it an Ordinance made in Parliament, as he did that in their firſt Petition, but only L'ordinance qe home appelle, Circumſpecte agatis; giving no preſent anſwer to it, as to the reſt, but that it ſhould be viewed and conſidered, in what point it was not obſerved; and that thereupn reaſon ſhould be done: Theſe are convincing Arguments to me, that it was no real Act nor Ordinance of Parliament, but a meer Writ made and procured by the Biſhop of Norwich out of Parliament, during the Judges abſence in their Circuits, without adviſing with them, as the Judges reſolved and declared in open Court Anno 19 E. 3. not above ſix years before this Petition for its future obſervation.

5ly. Neither Matthew Weſtminſter, nor Thomas Walſingham, William Thorn, Raanulphus Ceſtrenſis, Henry de Knyghton, nor any other of our Monkiſh or Prelatical Hiſtorians, living in or neareſt the time when this ſuppoſed Statute was made, make any mention thereof in their Hiſtories or Annals, as no doubt they would have done, were there any ſuch then enacted, being ſo advantagious to the Clergy, and much enlarging their Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction.

6ly. The whole frame thereof, with its direction only to particular Judges, in this particular caſe of the Biſhop and Clergy of Norwich, unanſwerably demonſtrates it to be only a private Writ framed in the Kings name, or iſſued by him to his Juſtices, as Lindewode acknowledgeth; not a Statute, or general Writ framed by the King, Lords and Commons in Parliament, to be from thenceforth univerſally obſerved in all Dioceſſes, and in all Temporal Courts, Circuits by his Judges.

7ly. Had it been made and iſſued in the Parliament of Weſtminſter 2. An. 13 E. 1. as Sir Edward Cooke affirms, no doubt it would have been added to, or inſerted amongſt the other Acts, Statutes, and general Writs therein framed and provided, cap. 5, 10, 19, 23, 24, 25, 26, 31, 35, 45, 46, 48. or at leaſt ſome intimation would therein been made thereof; but in neither of all theſe Acts, or other new

Writs

Writs framed in that Parliament, is there any mention or intimation of this, or other like Inhibition to the Kings Juſtices, in any one of, much leſſe in all the 13. cauſes therein conteined; therefore not probable to be made in that Parliament or year: The rather, becauſe in the Patent Roll of 13 E. 1. nu. 9, 13. I finde a ſpecial licenſe of alienation in Mortmain, & alſo a pardon for an eſcape of a Clerk convict, granted to the Biſhop of Norwich, but no other Writ or Patent beſides concerning him, in that or any other Roll of that year; which no doubt would have recorded this Writ of Circumſpecte agatis for him in perpetuam rei memoriam, had there then been any ſuch iſſued, being of greater concernment to the King and Biſhop, then his licenſe of Mortmain, or pardon for an Eſcape. An. 13 E. 1.

8ly. All the particulars therein mentioned, are enumerated, conteined in Articuli Cleri, preſented by the Biſhops and Clergy to King Edward 2. in his * Parliaments of An. 5, 8, & 9 E. 2. Artic. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. wherein they make not the leaſt mention of this Statute or Writ of Circumſpecte agatis; which no doubt they would have particularly named upon that occaſion, and deſired its obſervation, confirmation and explanation, had it been formerly enacted, publiſhed as a Statute, or Ordinance made in Parliament; and not petitioned only for an Explanation of the Kings Anſwers to their own new Petitions in 9 E. 2. and his two preceding Parliaments, without once naming this Circumſpecte agatis in the reign of his Father King Edward 1.

* Cooks 2 Inſtit. p. 618, 619, 620.

9ly. There are ſome obſervable clauſes in this Writ, which evidence it rather to be made by the Biſhops, then the King or his Council, and that not in 13 E. 1. but after Articuli Cleri Anno 9 E. 2.

As Firſt, Theſe general clauſes; De his quæ ſunt merè ſpiritualia, viz. de correctionibus quæ Prælati faciunt pro mortali peccato; viz. pro fornicatione, adulterio, et huiuſmodi: Which affirm, That all mortal ſins, eſpecially fornication, adultery, and the like, are meerly ſpiritual in their own nature, therefore properly puniſhable only in the Biſhops Spiritual Courts, by their Spiritual Laws and penalties: When as God himſelf and St. Paul expreſly reſolve, they are meerly fleſhly, or carnal, directly contrary to ſpiritual things, Gal. 5. 16, to 25. Walk in the ſpirit, and ye ſhall not fulfill the luſts of the fleſh; for the fleſh luſteth againſt the ſpirit, and the ſpirit againſt the fleſh; and theſe are contrary one to the other. Now the works of the fleſh are manifeſt, which are theſe; adultery, fornication, uncleanneſſe, laciviouſneſſe, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, ſeditions, hereſies, envyings, murders, drunkenneſſe, revellings, and ſuch like. How then adultery, fornication, uncleanneſſe, laciviouſneſſe, or idolatry, hereſie ſhould be meerly ſpiritual, any more then witchcraft, ſedition, murder, drunkenneſſe, and other mortal ſins, here and [a] elſewhere conjoyned by the Apoſtle as meerly carnal, yea contrary to that which is ſpiritual, I cannot diſcern. The rather, becauſe by the expreſſe Laws and Inſtitutions of God himſelf, adultery, fornication, idolatry, blaſphemy, hereſie, as well as murder and ſedition, were to be puniſhed by the Civil Magiſtrates and People, with death and other temporal puniſhments, not by the High-Prieſts, or Biſhops in their Conſiſtories, as is evident by Gen. 34. 25, 26, 31. c. 38. 24, 25. Levit. 20 10. to 22. 13, to 30. c. 24. 11, to 17. Deut. 13. 1, to 17. 2 Kings 10. 18, to 29. Zech. 13. 2, 3. John 8. 4, 5. Yea the Goſpel it ſelf reſolves, that Kings and Civil Magiſtrates (not Biſhops or Prieſts) are Gods Miniſters, to whom he hath committed the Sword, to execute wrath and vengeance upon all them that do evil; Rom. 13. 1, to 7. 1 Pet. 2. 13, 14. Hence adultery, whoredom and fornication, by the Laws of King [b] Alfred, Cnute, and other our antient Kings, were puniſhed by the Civil Judges, Magiſtrates, and in Court Leets, with temporal puniſhments, and pecuniary fines, as they were antiently amongſt the Germans, and other Heathen Nations, and only Excommunicated, not by the Biſhop, but by the * whole Church and Congregation for the ſcandal given to them, without impoſing any corporal or pecuniary puniſhments. Hence our [c] King Henry the 3. iſſued ſundry Writs of Prohibition to Groſthead Biſhop of Lincoln, the Biſhop of Worceſter, and their Officers, prohibiting them to make any Inquiries upon Oath of the incontinency or manners of Noblemen or others, in their Courts or Viſitations, as an innovation not formerly uſed, againſt his Crown and Dignity, tending to the great ſcandall, defamation and vexation of his Subjects. Therefore it is improbable King Edward the 1. would make, iſſue out any ſuch Law or Writ as this, to authorize their Juriſdiction and proceedings in ſuch caſes, againſt his Fathers

Prohibitions. Besides, [d] William Lindewode himself in his Gloss upon this Writ, acknowledgeth this clause to be too general and indefinite, and therefore thus limits it; Non intelligas de omni peccato mortali, sed de tali cujus punitio de sui natura spectat ad forum Ecclesiasticum: nam si ratione cujusvis peccati mortalis cognosceret Ecclesia, sic periret temporalis gladii jurisdictio, cum vix esset dare causam quin ratione peccati posset deferri ad Ecclesiam. Therefore it is improbable this wise King, his Counsil, Judges, Parliament should be so uncircumspect, as to insert this general ambiguous clause into this Writ, much lesse into an Act of Parliament, so destructive to the Kings Temporal Sword, Courts, and Jurisdiction. The only reasons why Bishops and Clergymen then reputed adultery, fornication, and such like carnal sins, to be meer spiritual things and offences, were these two: First, Because spiritual persons in that age (by reason of prohibitions of Priests marriage) were more guilty of them then Laymen, as their own Canons, [e] Writers attest: Wherefore they voted them by their Canons to be meerly spiritual, thereby to engrosse the conusance and punishment of them to themselves, to exempt themselves from any punishments for them by Temporal Judges, concealing or conniving at these sins in those of their own order, which they seldom punished, the better to palliate and conceal their uncleannesse from the Laity. 2ly. Because they were sins for the most part against their pretended new Sacrament of Marriage, and the conusance of all causes relating to this Sacrament must be spiritual, and belong to them, to whom alone this Sacrament was then unlawfull, incompatible by their own Canons, so far as to null their very Sacrament of Orders if they married, diametrically repugnant to Christs and his Apostles Doctrine, Mat. 19. 3, to 15. 1 Cor. 7. 9, &c. 1 Tim. 3. 2, 4, 11. c. 4. 3. Tit. 1. 5, 6. Hebr. 13. 4.

Secondly, William Lindewode under this large word hujusmodi, in his Gloss thereon hooks in not only stuprum, incestus, & alia qua sub peccato luxuriæ continentur; sed etiam alia crimina quæ sunt tractanda & punienda in foro Ecclesiastico, viz. sacrilegium, crimen usurarum, hæresis, symonia, perjurium, inspectatores augurum, consultores mathematicorum, phanaticis augures, aruspices, & ebriosi. Therefore it is most probable the Bishops and their Canonists, not the King, his Counsil or Judges, inserted these general indefinite clauses into this Writ, to enlarge their own Jurisdiction to the utmost extent upon all occasions, to the prejudice of the Kings Prerogative, and his Temporal Courts.

Thirdly, This clause, Si Prælatus puniat pro Cimiterio non clauso, &c. was an Innovation not long before first introduced and inquired of by * Grosthead Bishop of Lincoln in his Visitation Articles, against which King Henry 3. issued Writs of Prohibition, Anno 1220. After which it was prescribed by [f] Alexander Bishop of Coventry Anno 1237. by Walter de Cantilupo Anno 1240. by Walter Bishop of Durham Anno 1255. and more particularly by Peter Quivil Bishop of Exeter Anno 1287. the 15. of Edward 1. But the enforcing of it on the Parishioners against their wills, by pecuniary mulcts imposed in Ecclesiastical Courts, was a thing not heard of before this Circumspecte agatis; the Bishops, Deans and Chapters themselves being enforced to purchase special Licenses and Charters from the King, to enclose and immure their own Church-yards belonging to their Cathedrals at their proper costs, as the * Patents purchased by them this year from the King for enclosing the Church-yards of the Cathedrals of Pauls, York, Lincoln, Exeter, Wells, and others, assure us: Therefore they could not then legally prescribe or enforce it on the Parishoners by their own Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

Fourthly, This clause, Si Rector petat Mortuarium in partibus ubi Mortuarium dari consuevit, Mortuaries being then but newly broached, encroached by their own [g] Constitutions, against the antient Law, Custom of the Realm, to the peoples great oppression, and prejudice of Landlords in their Heriots; it is not probable the King or Parliament would prohibit his Justices from punishing or restraining this usurpation, oppression, Innovation by Mortuaries, not grown into a Custom till long after 13 E. 1. as is evident by Articuli Cleri An. 9 E. 2. cap. 1. till which Prohibitions were usually granted by the Kings Judges in cases of Mortuaries, as Lindwode Provinc. l. 1. De Consuetudine, f. 14, 15. acknowledgeth, & 10 H. 4. f. 1, 2. Fitzh. Præmunire 13. intimate.

Fifthly, This last clause, De violenta manuum injectione in Clericum, & in casu Diffama-

Diffamationis, conceſſum fuit alias, quod placitum inde teneatur in Curia Chriſtianitatis, makes it clear to me, that this Writ de Circumſpecte agatis was made after Articuli Cleri, when all the things therein conteined, were ſpecially complained of, and theſe two particulars of laying violent hands on Clerks, and Diffamations, expreſly granted, as Artic. Cleri c. 1, 3, 4. reſolve; being never granted for ought appears by Record or Hiſtory, in any Parliament before: Therefore this conceſſion muſt relate to it, and by neceſſary conſequence Circumſpecte agatis muſt be made after it, not in 13 E. 1. at leaſt 30 years before Articuli Cleri. An. 13 E. 1.

2oly. The Statute of 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 13. of Tithes, mentions Circumſpecte agatis as ſucceeding and puny to Weſtminſter 2. and Articuli Cleri, both therein ranged before it: Therefore not made in the Parliament of 13 E. 1.

3ly. Prohibitio formata de Statuto Articuli Cleri, (printed in Totles Magna Charta, pars 2. f. 70.) thus directed, to the Prelates, Archdeacons, Officials, and other Eccleſiaſtical Officers within the Biſhoprick of Norwich, ſeems to me a pregnant Argument, that Circumſpecte agatis (directed to the Juſtices on behalf of the ſelf-ſame perſons within the ſame Dioceſſe) was made after it, by way of expoſition and explanation of ſome general clauſes therein, mentioned to be againſt the Kings Crown and Dignity.

Sir

h 2 Inſtit. p. 600, 601.

[h] Sir Edward Cooke in his ſecond Inſtitutes on Articuli Cleri An. 9 E. 2. affirms, that this Prohibitio formata de Statuto Articuli Cleri, was made in the time of King Edward the 1. about the beginning of his reign, againſt the Canons of Archbiſhop Boniface. But I find no ſuch Writ as this in any Records during his reign, and the Articles, Conſtitutions of Archbiſhop Boniface and his Clergy being preſently * rejected, oppoſed and appealed againſt by King Henry the 3. as prejudicial to his Crown, and grievances to him and his Realm, and ſo never put in execution till Archbiſhop Stratford revived them, Anno 1242. I clearly conceive this Prohibition was framed upon Articuli Cleri, to which the King gave anſwers in the Parliament of 9 E. 2. which Articles the Biſhop of Norwich, his Archdeacons and Officials exceeding, the Judges thereupon by vertue of this clauſe, & aliis quorum cognitio ad Nos pertinet, reſtrained them to proceed in ſome things they conceived the King had granted them in his Anſwers to their Articles Anno 9 E. 2. whereupon they made or procured this Writ of Circumſpecte agatis, to reſtrain the Judges exceſſes therein.

Finally, The ſtiling Circumſpecte agatis a Statute, in our Statutes at large and Law-books, is no convincing evidence that it is a real Statute, there being very frequent miſtakes in the publiſhers of our Statutes at large, and in Sir Edward Cooke, in ſtiling ſeveral Writs of the King alone to his Barons or Juſtices, Statutes, and printing them as ſuch; witneſs [i] Statutum novum de Scaccario, aliter dictum Statutum de Roteland. 24 die Maii, Anno 10 E. 1. there being no Parliament held in that place or year, nor ſuch a Statute in the Statute Rolls, it being only a Writ of the Kings to his Barons, and ſo recorded in Clauſ. An. 12 E. 1. m. 7. dorſo. [k] Statutum de Militibus, Anno 1 E. 2. no Parliamentary Statute, but the Kings own Writ, as Sir Edward Cooke acknowledgeth; with ſundry others of this nature. Yea his and others miſtakes in the true times of making ſundry real Statutes, as of the Statute de Judaiſmo, made Anno 3 E. 1. as Clauſ. 4 E. 1. m. 8. 11. Pat. 5 E. 1. m. 13. *Mat. Angl. p. 37, 38, 41. & Ypodigma Neuſtria p. 84, 85. truly informs us, not Anno 34 E. 1. as Sir Edward and moſt others miſtake; may eaſily induce us to beleeve, that he and others who call Circumſpecte agatis a Statute, made in Parliament Anno 13 E. 1. were miſtaken in both, for the premiſed reaſons: Wherefore the printed Edition of the Statutes at large, London 1577. placeth Circumſpecte agatis under the Head of, Statutes unknown when or by whom they were made. All which I humbly ſubmit to the ſerious conſideration of the Sages and Students of the Common Law, to rectifie thoſe great encroachments on, and prejudices to the Kings prerogative, Courts, and Common Law, which the erronious aſſerting of Circumſpecte agatis to be a Statute and Act of Parliament made Anno 13 E. 1. have introduced, for want of Lawyers diligent circumſpection in examining the truth thereof by our Records and Hiſtories of thoſe times.

By which Charter, and ſome others with the like clauſe, I conceive it apparent; 1. That Biſhops and Ordinaries at this time had no Juriſdiction at all to grant adminiſtration, or diſpoſe of the goods and chattels of Inteſtate perſons in Wales, and that their next heirs and kinred ought to enjoy and diſpoſe of them by this new Charter, according to the premiſed Laws grants of * K. Cnute, Edward the Confeſſor, William the Conqueror, and Henry the 1. of which this new Grant of the King was but a confirmation. 2ly. That the † former Kings and Princes of Wales did likewiſe claim the goods and chattels of perſons there dying inteſtate as forfeited and appertaining unto them, as our Kings of England antiently did; which this new Charter exempted them from, but gave not their Regal power to the Biſhop or Ordinary, to diſpoſe of them at their pleaſure to pious uſes.

The Abbot and Covent of Bogeham having by fraud and force intruded themſelves into the Church of Haleſham, and forcibly thruſt out the Rector thereof, againſt the ſentence of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury in his Eccleſiaſtical Court for his reſtitution; for which they were excommunicated and aggravated by the Archbiſhop, whoſe Excommunications and Mandates they not only contemned, but blaſphemed and derided, perſiſting in their force and ſacriledge; the Archbiſhop thereupon made this Certificate thereof to the King, humbly imploring his Royal ayd and authority to remove the force, reduce them to obedience, and put the Rector in quiet poſſeſſion thereof, leſt the Judgement of the Church ſhould come into contempt in his dayes.

Brevia Regis in Tur. Lond. Anno 14 E. 1.

An. 14 E. I. Abbas & Conventus reſumptis fraudis ſuæ priſtinæ moliminibus, vi et armis erpulſo prædicto Rectore ſe in ipſam, Dei timore poſtpoſito, furtim et ſacrilege intruſerunt contra decretum et ſententias noſtræ Curiæ antedictæ: Et licet ſint excommunicati et aggravati quantum poteſtas Cantuarienſis Eccleſiæ ſe extendit; ipſi tamen noſtras ſententias inauditis blaſphemiis ſubſannantes, in ſuo ſacrilegio perſeverant, non curantes quid damni in ſuis incurrant conſcientiis; cum tamen * Nota. lucro ſacrilego, Archiva ſua valeant inſtaurare, * falſæ religionis et veræ hypocriſis titulum defendentes, et manu armata Eccleſiam detinent prophanatam, in totius enervationem, quantum in ipſis eſt, Eccleſiaſticæ diſciplinæ. Ut igitur quod laudabiliter & canonicè factum eſt in forma juſtitiæ effectui debito valeat mancipari, Majeſtati Regiæ ſupplicamus humiliter et devote, quatenus ad compeſcendam tantam præſumptionem malitiæ, vim, et poteſtatem laicalem, vis ſecundum regni conſuetudinem ab eadem Eccleſia jubeat amoveri, et memoratum Robertum in ejuſdem poſſeſſionem pacificam reduci, et reductum authoritate Regia protegi et defendi: Ut quod minus valet cohertio Sanctæ matris Eccleſiæ in hac parte, pro Dei et Eccleſiæ ſuæ reverentia Regia ſuppleat magnitudo, ne noſtris temporibus judicium Eccleſiæ veniat in contemptum. Valeat reverenda Majeſtas Regia ſemper in Chriſto & Virgine glorioſa. Dat. apud Obithmalling 7 Idus Martii, Anno Domini 1287.

What the King did upon this Certificate I finde not, but from thence I ſhall obſerve: 1. That this proud Archprelate, who ſo much oppoſed the Kings Regal and Eccleſiaſtical authority in other forementioned particulars, was here enforced humbly to implore the ayd and aſſiſtance thereof, to ſupport his own Archiepiſcopal Decrees, cenſures, and make them effectual in their execution. 2ly. That his Eccleſiaſtical cenſures and authority were both extraordinarily contemned, reproached, yea derided by this Abbot, Covent, and other Religious perſons, notwithſtanding his grandeur, and high favour in the Court of Rome. 3ly. That Abbots and Monks in that age, made no conſcience by force or fraude to invade and detain the Churches of other Clergymen, to fill their own purſes, (being true hypocrites, and of a falſe Religion) by the verdict of this Archprelate, who was and writ himſelf a Frier.

The King about the ſame time, at the prayer of Robert Burnell Biſhop of Bath and Wells, granted the Biſhop this ſpecial licenſe to incloſe the Churchyard of the Cathedral Church in Wells, with a wall, battlements and gates, for the honour of God, the honeſty of the Church, and of the corps of the Saints therein reſting, and the peace, ſecurity of the Canons and Miniſters inhabiting therein, ſo as it ſhould ſtand open for paſſengers all the day time, and be ſhut up only in the night.

The firſt ſeiſure I have obſerved after this Statute.

A Clerk flying to a Church for Sanctuary, for a robbery by him committed, and there being ready to abjure the Realm, without making his purgation; the Biſhop conceiving it to be againſt the Liberty of the Church, petitioned the Earl of Cornwall (then Cuſtos of the Realm in the Kings abſence) that he might be delivered to him or his Official to keep, and make his purgation; which the Coroner was commanded to do after 40 dayes, and if he made not his purgation by a day prefixed, then he was to be reſtored to the Church, and make his abjuration.

By this Patent I conceive it evident, 1. That our Kings by their antient Prerogative had the disposal of all the Goods, Chattels, Jewels, Plate, Books of Abbots and Religious persons who dyed intestate, in point of Law, (being disabled to make Wills or devise them) which were of their foundations, or held their Lands from and under them; and so of all their other Tenants dying intestate, (as I have * formerly evidenced out of Glanvil, and King Henry the 1. his Charter.) 2ly. That our Kings divested themselves of this Right and Prerogative, only by special Charters of grace made to Abbots and Monasteries. 3ly. That Bishops and other Ordinaries had no Jurisdiction of, or disposing power over the Chattels or Goods of intestate Abbots, much lesse of Laymen.

Si quis vero Laicus Clericum ad forum pertrahit ſeculare, ſuper actione maxime perſonali, et Judex ſecularis Clericum coram ſe compellat reſpondere

An. 14 E. 1. dere, vel quia non respondit ipsum grabare propter hoc præsumat; tam ipsum Judicem quam taliter pertrahentem, authoritate præsentis Synodi sacrosanctæ, Excommunicationis ac specialis Interdicti sententias et generales, cæteraque remedia Ecclesiastica contra eosdem fore procedendum, nihilominus decernentes, donec grabamen hujusmodi revocaverit, et Clerico in hoc læso satisfecerit compellantur.

By which Canon this Bishop and his Clergy endeavoured, 1. To deprive the King with his Temporal Courts and Judges of their antient undoubted Jurisdiction of all personal Actions between Clergymen themselves and their Servants, and likewise between any Laymen or Clergymen, and to appropriate or engrosse them wholly unto their Ecclesiastical Courts & Judicatures. 2ly. They most insolently encroached not only upon the priviledges and Liberties of Clergymen, in restraining them to sue or complain before any Lay Judge for personal Actions or Trespasses by any Clerks or Laymen, under penalties, but especially on all Laymen and Judges, by subjecting both of them to their special, general Excommunications and Interdicts, (as violators forsooth of the Churches Liberties) in case they presumed to sue or prosecute any Clergyman of what degree soever for any personal action or cause before any of the Kings or other Lay-Judges, or to punish any Clerks for their contempts for refusing to answer before them in such actions. A very high and daring presumption and usurpation worthy observation.

Not much unlike to this is their other Constitution, in relation to debts and distresses of Clergy men, cap. 41, & 42. worthy observation.

Ibid. p 381, 382. Cap. 41. Ne Clerici districtioni fori, vel obligent se seculari, vel in Parcis vel Vivariis Magnatum furtum committant. Annis singulis & diebus, mundus iste nequam, labe plus solito corripitur peccatorum, & tanto ardentius conatur inventum, quanto quis sibi congregat cumulum delictorum. Ecce enim rabies inaudita, quorumdam insurgunt filii in parentes, et ipsos nituntur subjacere servituti, per quos sunt ad vitam perpetuam regenerati, et servitute diabolica liberati; quod apertius (patet) in Laicu, qui Clerum et Ecclesiæ Libertates nituntur subjicere suæ ditioni, quorum temerariam audaciam resecare tenemur, potius quam fovere. Prohibemus igitur, sub pœna Excommunicationis, ne Clerici, maxime Beneficiati, pro debito proprio vel alieno, districtioni se obligent Judicis secularis, cujus obligationis prætextu Laici de facto, quanquam de jure non valeant, Clericos ad Judicia secularia pertrahant. Et sicut per Clericorum contractus nolumus quod amplius id contingat, sic multo magis detestamur, si propter eorum delicto id debeat evenire. Unde districte inhibemus, ne quisquam Clericorum in Foresta Domini Regis, vel Parcis aliorius cujuscunque, aut Warenna, furtum committere venationis, vel in stagno, piscariis vel vivariis quorumcunque, furtum præsumat committere. Si quis autem Clericorum contra has Prohibitiones nostras venire præsumpserit, siquidem in contractu, ipsum a divinis in terennium volumus manere suspensum: si in delicto, ipso facto, vinculum Excommunications incurrat: & postea si monitus à Prælato suo pro gravi culpa, ad ipsius Prælati arbitrium satisfacere non curaverit; extunc si beneficiatis fuerit, ipsum a Beneficio suo decrevimus fore privandum. Si vero beneficiatus non existat, ab executione ordinum per quinquennium suspendatur. Dicit etenim ratio, ut in quibus major reperitur culpa, in ipsos gravior exerceatur vindicta.

* Ibid, p. 382. Cap. 42. De forma liberandi Bona Clericorum à Laicis malè capta & retenta. Bona mobilia et immobilia Clericorum, sicut ipsorum personas sub protectione Ecclesiastica consistere sanctorum patrum decreta sanxerunt, ut neque Laicis de ipsis statuendi seu disponendi quicquam Ecclesiæ respiciat commodum ulla sit permissa facultas: sed quicquid fecerunt in hac parte, firmum et stabile esse non poterit, donec ab Ecclesia fuerit approbatum. Quanto minus sit eis licitum, bona Clericorum capiendi et detinendi, nemo est qui ambiget sanæ mentis. Cum igitur Clericorum seu aliarum personarum quacunque bona a Ballivis Magnatum, seu aliis quibuscunque capi et detineri contigerit, ab injuria propria, quod absque læsione Ecclesiasticæ libertatis posse fieri non videtur, ad eorum liberationem taliter procedi statuimus et mandamus; ut per loci Archidiaconum vel Officialem ipsius, vel alium quem ipse assignaverit, moneantur ipsorum bonorum detentores primo, secundo, & tertio, sub testimonio trium vel quatuor Clericorum, vel saltem Laicorum, si Clericorum Quem quidem terminum ipſis Clericis aſſignari præcipimus, ut querelantibus reſpondeant in forma juris. Si vero factis monitionibus Detentores bona ipſa reſtituere per biduum detrectaverint, extunc qui illud monuit,* in ſcriptis excommunicet detinentes, cum ſuis complicibus et fautoribus, qui ſi Istam in ipſos ſententiam ad hæc aliud biduum bona ipſa reſtituere præpoſuerint, locum in quo taliter bona detinentur, Eccleſiaſtico interdicto ſupponat. Deinde hiis remediis attemptatis, (niſi ad deliberationem proficiant) ſuſtineamus patienter ut Eccleſia non habeat quid ultra faciat, quod hiis cujus bona detenti ſunt, jus ſuum coram ſeculari Judice proſequatur. Hanc formam volumus obſervari, niſi Clericus Laicum feodum poſſideat, ratione cujus bona ſua Laico feodo capi contigerit; Nam quantum ad ipſum feodum pertinet, Clerici ſecularibus obnoxii ſunt legibus. An. 15 E. 1.

nem, vel Sacrilegus judicetur; et si emendare noluerit, excommunicetur. Depellenda est etenim illius usurpationis contumelia, ne prædia usibus cætuum dicata, a quibusdam irruentibus vexentur. Quod si quis præsumpserit, ut sacrilegus judicetur. Hinc est quod omnes illos, qui nedum Clericorum personas, sed res eorum mobiles, seu se moventes intra Ecclesiam vel ipsius Cimiterium, aut in agro ad Ecclesiam pertinente, vel alibi, absque rationabili causa, rapiunt, capiunt, et abducunt, ipsis inbitis quorum bona sunt; nisi celeri restitutione sibi prospexerint; ut inimicos Dei et Ecclesiæ, ac sacrilegos excommunicamus, et a sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ liminibus sequestramus; necnon ad bonorum liberationem ipsorum procedi præcipimus juxta formam superius traditam, quandocunque pro eo quod Clerici aut Laicali causam spiritualem, ut puta violenta manuum injectione in Clericum (nisi ad correctionem rebus præmissis) vel matrimonium contrahendo, Decimis, Oblationibus, Portuariis, læsione fidei vel juramenti, et cæteris hujusmodi, de jure vel consuetudine ad forum Ecclesiasticum pertinent, in foro Ecclesiastico fuerint prosecuti, ipsos ad forum traxerint seculare; necnon et Judex secularis, qui eos ob hoc gravare præsumpserit, nisi post trinam admonitionem a gravamine desliterit inferendo, et satisfecerit de illata injuria, consimili Excommunicationis sententia innodamus; firmiter præcipientes, ut rei judicatæ exceptionem Judices seculares admittant. Rei dico cujus cognitio ad Ecclesiasticum pertinet Judicem: et Ecclesiastici Judices similiter, cum de re judicata per Judicem secularem excipitur, admittere non postponant.

By these two last Constitutions, they endeavoured to protect and exempt the bonds, contracts, persons, goods of all Clergymen, (unless only in Criminal and capital causes) Churches, Churchyards from the Kings secular Courts, Judges, Officers, and expose all Lay persons, Officers, Judges to their Ecclesiastical Excommunications and Interdicts, who should presume to sue, arrest, or question them, as murderers, invaders of their Mother Churches priviledges, and sacrilegious persons.

I shall in the next passe to their Decree De Testamentis, cap. 50.

By which new Constitution this Bishop and others Ordinaries then endeavoured to usurp, 1. A new Jurisdiction to prescribe the form of all Testaments, and who should be witnesses to them, and to assign all goods, Chattels not particularly bequeathed in Testaments, to pious uses, viz. to erect Chantries, Monasteries, hire Priests, Monks to chaunt Masses for their Souls, to rescue them out of their imaginary purgatory fire, to enrich themselves thereby; 2ly. Moreover, their Conſtitution concerning Mortuaries, (a new incroachment then much oppugned) is very conſiderable. *Cap. 52. De Mortuariis. Mortuariorum præſtationem ex eo intelleximus ſalubriter ſumpſiſſe initium, quod Decimis majoribus & minoribus, ac cæteris juribus Parochialibus per ignorantiam non ſolutis, læſis Eccleſiis præſtarentur, ut talis oblivio procedens ex incuria non ſolventis, poſſet ſaltem, per hoc, apud diſtrictum Judicem excuſari. Et quanquam iſta proviſio eſſet aliqualiter fructuoſa omnibus Chriſtianis; quidam tamen, vel cauſam hujuſmodi præſtationis ignorantes; vel (quod deterius eſt) de ſalute propria non curantes, ipſam mirabiliter ſubtraxerint, ſuam miſeriam in poſteros tranſmittentes: quâ ſe nituntur modernis temporibus excuſare, quod nec ipſi nec majores eorum, hanc præſtationem ullo tempore agnoverint. O excuſatio miſera & infœlix, quæ dum ſit in peccatis, ſuos ducit ad interitum erculantes. Unde ſunt & alii, qui animæ ſuæ ſaluti provide conſulentes, volut devoti Eccleſiæ filii præſtationem ipſam agnoſcunt, ſicut majores eorum hactenus cognoverunt: Sicque contigit, quod in una parochia ſolbi ſecundum melius averium pro defunctis, et in alia, penitus denegari. Ut igitur à palea triticum ſeparemus: ſtatuendo præcipimus, ut in parochia, in qua talis ſolutio fieri conſuevit, nullus ab ea ſe valeat excuſare; ſed in eadem fiat præſtatio uniformis, cum eadem non debeat cum univerſo jure cenſeri. Parochianos aliarum Parochiarum monemus & hortamur in Domino, ut ſpiritum aſſumentes conſilii ſanioris, tam ſalubrem præſtationem agnoſcant de cætero, et de ea ſatisfacere ſtudeant ſicut cæteri in futurum. Videntur namque rabie nephanda moveri, qui male detentis Deo et Eccleſiæ ſatisfacere tunc non curant, quando quod debetur ſibi nequiunt amplius retinere: ſed ipſius ſubibunt judicium, cui in hac parte judicium intulerunt. In Parochiis vero in quibus ſecundum melius averium dari hactenus conſuevit, illud ligandi, donandi, aſſignandive in alios uſus, decedentibus omnibus interdicimus facultatem. In Executores, ſeu alios quoſcunque detentores (niſi legitime moniti, ſatisfecerint Deo et Eccleſiæ de eodem) Excommunicationis ſententiam præcipimus promulgari. Thus did theſe Prelates and Clergymen, by their own Canons and Conſtitutions, againſt the Laws and Cuſtom of the Land, and Subjects Liberties, without conſent of King or Parliament, upon frivolous, avaritious pretences, enforce the payment of Mortuaries by degrees upon all men, to the prejudice of the Lords of Mannors in their Heriots, and of the Executors, Wives, Children of deceaſed perſons. An. 15 E. 1

As this Biſhop and Synod thus invaded the Kings Prerogative and Subjects Liberties, by theſe precedent Conſtitutions, ſo they thus advanced the Supremacy and Authority of the Church and Popes of Rome, in point of conſecrating Reliques, canonizing Saints, and granting Abſolutions for ſome offences peculiarly reſerved to Popes and Prelates.

From this contest between this proud Archbishop and Abbot about carrying up his Crosse, I shall observe; 1. The just punishment of God upon him for *excommunicating all who should entertain or sell any victuals to the Archbishop of York or his followers for carrying up his Cross before him within his province some few years before, when specially sent for by the King about the publike affairs of the kingdom, now retaliated with this Abbots opposing the bearing up his own Cross before him in the Monastery of St. Augustines even within his own Metropolis and See of Canterbury, when specially sent for thither to dine with the King. 2ly. His pride and obstinacie, in refusing to subscribe such a Letter as the King directed to reconcile this difference and preserve the Abbots priviledges, or to repair to the King without his Crosse born up before him; together with his spleen and malice against the Abbot and Covent for not admitting him to carry up his Crosse within their Monasterie. 3ly. The strange abuse he and other our Archbishops made in that age of that they stiled and reputed the very Crosse of Christ; which as it was an emblem of our [e] Saviours lowest humiliation; by whose Crosse St. Paul affirmed, [f] the world was crucified unto him, and he unto the world; and likewise a * means of Christian love, peace, unity; yet our Luciferian Archbishops made, reputed it a badge, ensigne of their Metropolitical Jurisdiction, Authority, Pomp, State, causing it to be carried up in pomp before them for that end, as an emblem of their Antichristian pride and ambition; yea made it, and its carrying up before them, a cause of frequent, hot contentions, schismes: witnesse the † manifold, high contests between the Archbishops of Canterbury, Yorke, and the Abbots of St. Augustines about crosse-bearing, to the great disturbance of the Church, State, King, Counsil, and the reproach, scandal of Christianitie, as well as Archiepiscopacie: So farr were they from imitating the doctrine or example of our Saviour, or St. Paul in this particular.

The same year, there fell out this suit between this proud Archbishop of Canterbury, his Officers, and this Abbot of St. Augustines, concerning Almes and Tithes, which occasioned Excommunications and Appeals to Rome about their priviledges and exemptions; thus registred by [g] William Thorne.

King Edward the 1. having by his Prerogative royal a right to collate to the prebendarie of Nassington in the Church of Lincolne, during the vacancie of the Bishoprick; which the Pope intended to conferre on some other by Provision; the King thereupon issued this memorable Prohibition to the Bishop, setting forth the ancient Right and Prerogative of the Crown alwaies used, and allowed by Popes themselves, to present to, and conferr all Præbendaries and other dignities belonging to Bishopricks during their vacancie; inhibiting him by pretext of any Letters whatsoever directed or to be directed to him, to act, constitute, ordain, or attempt any thing touching that Prebendary or any other, to the prejudice of him or his Royal Dignitie without his privitie, under pain of seising his Baronie.

Pope Nicholas the 4. being setled in his Pontifical Chair, taking into his consideration that King Edward the 1. was 5. years in arrear to the Church of Rome for the annual pension of 1000 Marks granted by King John, notwithstanding Pope Honorius his predecessors Bulls and Nuncios sent to him to demand and receive it, thereupon in the first year of his Papacie sent this Bull unto him, requesting in an humble manner the payment thereof to his Clerk and Nuncio Giffredo then in England, thus entred on Record.

Soon after, Anno 1290. (18 E. 1.) the King out of his piety and zeal to Christian Religion, in the same Parliament by a publike Act banished all the Jewes out of England, and confiscated all their Houses and Lands, for their infidelitie, blasphemie, crucifying of Christian children, in contempt of Christ crucified, and clipping of his coin: which [a] Matthew Westminster thus relates. Circa hos dies, scilicet 31 Augusti, Judæorum exasperans multitudo, quæ per diversas urbes & castra fortia habitabat per retroacta tempora confidenter, jussa est cum uxoribus et parvulis suis, una cum bonis suis mobilibus, ab Anglia cedere circa festum Omnium Sanctorum, quod eis pro termino ponebatur, quem sub pœna suspendii transgredi non est ausa, quorum numerus erat (ut credebatur) 16 M. DXI. Exierat autem tale Edictum a laudabili Rege Anglorum in partibus Aquitanniæ, a qua omnes Judæi pariter exulabant. [b] Thomas Walsingham writes, Rex eodem anno Judæos omnes expellens de Anglia, quia expensis in Galliis, bona eorum reliqua confiscabit. [c] Thomas Stubs thus backs them, Anno 1290. in Christino Animarum exulati fuerunt Judæi regno Angliæ, et hoc eodem die per totam Angliam. [d] Polydor Virgil, adds; Concilium Londini ad Westmonasterium habetur, in quo imprimis agitata est ejectio Judæorum, quorum erat per omnem Angliam ingens multitudo, quod sic oves ab hœdis segregarentur. Itaque publico Edicto, jussum est, ut ultra paucos dies omnes abirent cum bonis. Illi justis Concilii parentes, alii alio discesserunt. Ita profuga gens de Anglia in perpetuum exibit misera semper aliquo terrarum peritura, usque eo dum denique deleatur. [e] Henry de Knyghton subjoynes, Cumque (REX) fecisset voluntatem suam Justiciariis, statim eum movebat una alia causa, de moneta quam invenichat viliter tonsa & corrupta in præjudicium coronæ, & ad grave dampnum populi, per infidelitatem & maliciam Judæorum, sicut fuit inquisitum & inventum: Et fecit stabiliri unum Parliamentum in quo convicti sunt Judæi de ea falsitate; et statuit, quod omnes Judæi exirent de terra Angliæ, deinceps non redituri propter eorum incredulitatem principaliter, et propter falsitatem quam eis dure imposuerunt Christiani. Et pro hac causa cum festinatione facienda & sine dilatione explenda, Communes Regni dederunt Regi quintum denarium de omnibus suis mobilibus. To these I might accumulate the Black Book in the Kings Eschequer, Ranulphus Cestrensis Polychronicon,

In this Parliament of 18 E. 1. wherein the Jewes were exiled, William de Valentia and Jone his wife having procured a Bull from the Pope to the Archbishop of Canterbury, against the Laws and Custom of the Realm, and Prerogative of the King, to examin and determin who was lawfull heir to William de Monte Canisio, and to bastardize and disinherit Dionysia his daughter then in Ward to the King, (against the Certificate of the Bishop of Worcester, who had certified the Kings Court that she was legitimate) petitioned the King, to appoint a Guardian to defend her and her Estate before the said Archbishop and other Delegates of the Pope, or that they might appoint her a Gardian, if the said Bull should not seem to the King and his Council, prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Dignity: Which Petition the King and his Council in Parliament rejected upon due consideration, for 10. memorable reasons expressed in this Record and answer to his Petition.

Et ſi Dominus Rex Bullam iſtam procedere permitteret, faceret contrarium judicii per ipſum et Concilium ſuum redditi. Et etiam quia ipſe Dominus Rex eſt Cuſtos et curator prædictæ Dionyſiæ ſecundum conſuetudinem Regni, ratione cuſtodiæ ipſius Dionyſiæ; nec alium Curatorem dare poterit, niſi ſibi ipſi injuriaretur; et etiam ſi Curatorem daret, ſic daret litem Pupillo ſuo, quod eſſet inconveniens. Et quia prædictus Willielmus et Johanna per prædictam Appellationem intendunt prædictam Sententiam taliter infirmare, et per conſequens prædictam Dionyſiam filiam prædicti Willielmi de Monte Caniſio baſtardam probare, et ſic per viam illam ad hæreditatem ipſius Dionyſiæ attingere, et ipſam Dionyſiam, infra ætatem et in cuſtodia Regis exiſtentem, de libero Tenemento ſuo amovere, de quo ex liberatione Domini Regis fuit admiſſa, quod manifeſte eſt inconveniens et contra legem et conſuetudinem Regni; Inhibitum eſt eidem Willielmo, quod prædictam Appellationem ante ætatem prædictæ Dionyſiæ nullo modo proſequatur, &c.

From which memorable Anſwers to theſe two Petitions by the King and his Counſil

Counſil in Parliament, we may obſerve: Firſt, the manifold Policies, and new Inventions of the Popes and Court of Rome and their Delegates, as alſo of Biſhops and Eccleſiaſtical Courts, by degrees, to uſurp the Conuſance and determination of the Succeſſion and Rights of all Freeholds and Inheritances within the Realm to themſelves, from the King and his Temporal Courts, and to ſubject the Kings Courts to theirs, againſt his Crown, Dignitie, the ancient Laws, and Cuſtoms of the Realm. 2ly. The Kings, his Counſils, Parliaments care, and induſtry to prohibite, oppoſe ſuch uſurpations upon grave and weighty conſiderations, to prevent the manifold miſchiefs which would thereupon enſue both to the King, kingdom and ſubjects. 3ly. Their pious care to protect the rights of Infants and Wards in that age, againſt all Papal and Prelatical devices to baſtardize or diſinherit them, by Delegations or Appeals to any Eccleſiaſtical Judicatures. 4ly. That the procuring of any Bulls from Rome prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Dignity, was ſuch an high offence, as at leaſt deſerved impriſonment during the Kings pleaſure, and for which ſome had been formerly impriſoned by Judgement in the Kings Court, to deterre all others from procuring the like. An. 18 E. 1.

Afterwards in the ſame Parliament, this William de Valentia* exhibited another Petition concerning this matter, complaining of injuſtice in diſinheriting his wife againſt the Earl of Cornwall, and other of the Kings Counſil, for admitting Dionyſia to be right heir to William de Monte Caniſio, wherein the truth of the caſe is thus related by the Earl, and others of the Counſil; Qui bene cognoſcunt & recordantur, quod prædictus Willielmus de Valencia prædictum breve Inquiſitionis petiit & illud optinuit, ſed dicunt, quod antequam breve illud petiit, venit quædam Dionyſia de Monte Caniſ. mater prædict. Willielmi de Monte Caniſio coram eis in pleno Conſilio, & adduxit quandam Dionyſiam filiam prædicti Willielmi de Monte Caniſio, aſſerens ipſam eſſe veriorem & propinquiorem hæredem prædicti Willielmi defuncti, & etiam hæredem ſuum proprium, & ut filiam & hæredem ipſius Willielmi de Monte Caniſio filii ſui defuncti, nomine Domini Regis admitterent. Et dicunt, quod quia publicum et notorium fuit, quod idem Willielmus tempore ſuo prædict. Dionyſiam ut filiam et hæredem ſuam tenuit, et hoc idem dum vixit in pluribus locis ſciri et proclamari fecit: et etiam quia Epiſcopus Wygorn. qui nunc eſt, in cujus Epiſcopatu eadem Dionyſia, &c. filia, &c. originem traxit, per literas ſuas patentes, quam Archiepiſcopus Cantuar. viva bone teſtabatur, quod eadem Dionyſia fuit filia prædicti Willielmi legitima. Ipſe Comes, Theſaur. & alii eandem Dionyſiam, nomine Domini Regis admiſerunt ut hæredem prædicti Willielmi propinquiorem, et prædict. terras et tenementa cum pertinentiis nomine Cuſtodiæ ratione minoris ætatis ipſius Dionyſiæ in manus Domini Regis ſeiſire fecerunt. Ideo videtur Domino Regi, quod prædictus Comes, Theſaur. et aliis de Conſilio ſecundum quod recordantur bene et rite proceſſerunt. Which made the premiſed addreſſe by William de Valentia to, and Bull from Rome more criminal and injurious. * Placita Parl. An. 18 E. 1. nu. 36. See Ryley p 51, 52.

As the King and Parliament paſſed this memorable Cenſure againſt the Popes premiſed Bull, and Petition grounded on it; ſo they gave a more ſevere Judgement againſt the Prior of Trinity, and Bogo de Clare, who audaciouſly preſumed to ſerve a Citation from the Archbiſhop of Canterbury in the Kings own Palace upon the Earl of Cornwall, ſitting the Parliament, as he was going to it: for which they were attached and proſecuted both at the ſuit of the King himſelf, of the Steward and Marſhal of the King, the Earl of Cornwall, and Abbot of Weſtminſter, fined in great ſines, and committed Priſoners to the Tower of London, as this memorable Record will more fully inform us.

Et quoad prædict. * Nota.

From which Record and Judgement it is moſt evident; Firſt, That the Kings Royal palace is exempted from all Archiepiſcopal and Epiſcopal Juriſdiction whatſoever; 2ly. That the ſerving of a Citation therein by any Officer of the Archbiſhop, is an high contempt and diſhonour to the King in thoſe who ſerve, or procure it to be there ſerved on any perſon, deſerving a very great fine to the King, and impriſonment in the Tower of London, eſpecially during the Kings perſonal preſence there, and in time of Parliament, upon a Peer and Member of Parliament, and an injurie both to the Kings Steward, and Marſhall. 3ly. That Weſtminſter Abby was by Popes Bulls and our Kings Charters exempted from all Archiepiſcopal Juriſdiction. 4ly. That the Fine and impriſonment impoſed on them in this Caſe, was not for any breach of the Priviledge of Parliament, not here mentioned nor inſiſted on, (as [a] Sir Edward Cooke, and [b] Mr. Elſing miſtake) but for the contempt, injury, and diſhonour to the King, his Palace Priviledge, Officers, and the Court, as I have [c] elſewhere evidenced more at large.

* Nota.

This Bogo de Clare in the ſame Parliament, was attached at the ſuit of John de Waleys Clerk, upon a different account, that the ſaid John entring into his houſe in London on the Lords day to ſerve a Citation out of the Archbiſhop of Canterburies Court, certain of his family took and enforced him againſt his will, to eat the ſaid Citation, together with the Seal, and alſo impriſoned, beat, and ill intreated him, to his dammage of 20 l. and in contempt of the King, to his dammage of 1000 l. as this Record informs us.

*Bogo de Clare attach. fuit ad reſpondendum Johanni de Waleys Clerico de hoc, quod cum idem Johannes die Dominica in feſto Sanctæ Trin. proximo præterito in pace Domini Regis & ex parte Archiepiſcopi Cantuar. intraſſet domum prædicti Bogonis in Civitate London. et ibidem detuliſſet quaſdam literas de Citatione quadam faciend. quidam de familia prædicti Bogonis ipſum Johannem, literas illas, et etiam Sigilla appenſa ei et contra voluntatem ſuam manducare fecerunt, et ipſum ibidem impriſonaverunt, verberaverunt, et male tractaverunt, contra pacem Domini Regis, et ad dampnum ipſius Johannis viginti libr. et etiam in contemptum Domini Regis mille libr. et inde prodacit ſectam. * Placita Parl. 18 E. 1 n 15. From which Record I ſhall obſerve: Firſt, That the Archbiſhops Citations were much ſlighted and oppoſed in that age. 2ly. That this enforcing his Clerk to eat and ſwallow down his Citation, with its Seal, was complained of to, and highly reſented by the King, as a contempt againſt his Royal authority, being within the verge of his Court and ſitting the Parliament, not puniſhed by the Archbiſhop with Eccleſiaſtical cenſures. 3ly. That Maſters ought not to be puniſhed for abuſes, contempts or offences committed by their Servants, without their privity or aſſents unto them before or after their conviction, nor any to be puniſhed as acceſſaries, before the principals be convicted.

There happening many conteſts between the Biſhop of Lincoln, and the Maſters and Scholars of the Univerſity of Oxford, concerning the preſentation and confirmation of their Chancellor, whether he ought to come out of the Vniverſity in perſon to the Biſhop, or to be admitted by his Proxies; the King by his Prerogative to advance Learning, and ſettle peace between them, made this friendly accord for the future, which they both ſubſcribed in this Parliament.

There being likewiſe at the ſame time ſome differences between the Scholars and Townſmen of Oxford, formerly compremiſed, the King for the peace and honour of the Univerſity, whereof he had a ſpecial regard, ordered in this Parliament, that the ſame Accord between them ſhould be recited and kept in his own Wardrobe. * Memorandum, quod per præceptum Domini Regis Rotulis de pace et concordia inter Cancellar. et Scholares Univerſitatis Oxon. ex una parte, et Majorem et Burgenſes ejuſdem Villæ ex altera, facta, et coram Domino Rege recitata, tradebatur per manum Johannis de Berewyk, Waltero de Langeton *Clerico de Garderoba Domini Regis, ad cuſtodiendum in ipſa Garderoba. From which caſe it is obſervable: 1. That in that age it was the received opinion, as well as in this, that all Tithes in Foreſts and other places, which are extra-parochial, or without the bounds of any Pariſh, belong of right to the King by his Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical Prerogative, as Supreme Governour and Head on Earth of the Church of England, and as he is perſona mixta et unita cum Sacerdotibus, as was reſolved in this caſe, and in * our Law-books ſince; whereas no meer Layman is originally capable of Tithes. 2ly. That by his Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical Prerogative he might erect New Pariſhes, Pariſh Churches, and grant Tithes unto them where there were none before, without the Pope or Biſhop. 3ly. That he likewiſe held Plea of Tithes in his Temporal Courts.

In the ſame Parliament of 18 E. 1. there happened two memorable caſes concerning the delivery and purgation of Clerks convict, to and before their Ordinaries: The firſt was the caſe of * Walter de Berton, impriſoned in the Tower of London, being convicted before John de Metingham in the laſt Eyre in the County of Dorſet, De falſatione ſigilli Domini Regis; whom the King commanded to be delivered to the Biſhop of Sarum, qui eum petiit ut Clericum ſuum ſub pœna et in forma qua decet, quia videtur conſilio, quod in tali caſu non eſt admittenda purgatio; it being out of the Statute of Weſtm 1. ch. 2. which extends only to Felony, whereas this counterfeiting of the Kings Seal was then reputed, and afterwards declared to be Treaſon, 25 E. 3. ch. 2.

* Placita Parl. 18 E. 1. nu. 38. Ryley, p. 56.

The ſecond was the caſe of the Abbot of Weſtminſter, by way of complaint againſt the Kings Juſtices, who ſummoned him being a Baron to appear before them, and ſeiſed his Temporalties for a contempt, becauſe his Archdeacon ſuffered two Clerks convicted of murder, to make their Purgations before the certain day prefixed by him in Court, to which the proſecutor for the King was adjourned, and thereby prejudged; thus entred in the Pleas of that Parliament.

UNiverſis Chriſti fidelibus, &c. Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, &c. ſalutem. * Memoriæ hominum labili adeo fallax inſidiatur oblivio, ut ea quæ modernis temporibus plana ſint et aperta, tractu temporis obſcura erunt et incerta niſi ſcriptore teſtimonio faſciantur. Et ob hoc prohibide decrevit legum authoritas ſententias diffinitivas in ſcriptis proferri, ne ea quæ juris tramite ordinata ſunt et recte diſpoſita proceſſu temporis in recidivæ contentionis ſcrupulum relabantur. Suborta ſiquidem inter nos ex parte una, et Gilbertum de Clare Comitem Glouc. & Hertf. ex altera, ſuper advocatione Eccleſiæ Landaven. et Cuſtodia temporalium prædictæ Eccleſiæ ac collocationibus Dignitatum et Præbendarum in eadem ſede Landavenſi vacante materia quæſtionis, Anno Domini MCCXC. in Chraſtino Animarum apud Clipſton pro nobis proponi fecimus, contra Com. prædictum, quod præfata advocatio Eccleſiæ Landavenſis, Cuſtodia Temporalium, et Collationes dignitatum et præbendarum in eadem Eccleſia ſede Landavenſi vacante, non ad dictum Com. ſed ad nos et noſtræ Coronæ dignitatem, ſicut in cæteris Eccleſiis Cathedralibus Regni noſtri Angliæ de Jure et Regni conſuetudine pertinebant. Et quod progenitores noſtri Reges Angliæ qui pro tempore fuerant præmiſſis uti conſueverunt pleno jure, et quod piæ memoriæ H. progenitor noſter qui proximo regnavit ante nos, in vacatione prædictæ Landavenſis Eccleſiæ per mortem Helyæ quondam loci illius Epiſcopi, commiſit Temporalia Walerando Teutonico Militi, qui finita adminiſtratione ad Scaccarium præfati Patris noſtri reddidit rationcinia. Et in eadem vacatione contulit unam Præbendam vacantem Magiſtro Willielmo de Burgo tunc Theſaur. Warderobæ ſuæ; et aliam Præbendam Albredo de Feſcampo tunc Subthef. ejuſdem Warderobæ, et Archidiaconatum Landaven. cuidam Thomæ tunc Capellano piæ memoriæ Alienoræ matris noſtræ. Adjectumque fuerat ex parte noſtra, quod Epiſcopi Landavenſes qui pro tempore fuerunt, tenuerant Baroniam ſuam et terras et poſſeſſiones a Progenitoribus noſtris Angliæ Regibus, et a nobis, nichilque a Domino Comite ſeu ipſius Progenitoribus. Et quod Eccleſia Landavenſi vacante, Canonici ejuſdem non a Comitibus, ſed a Regibus petunt licentiam eligendi: unde pro nobis propoſitum extitit, quod idem G. Comes Glouc. & Heref. in præſenti vacatione ejuſdem Eccleſiæ per mortem bonæ memoriæ W. de Brewos nuper Landavenſis Epiſcopi præmiſſas cuſtodiam Temporalium, et collationes dignitatum et præbendarum nullo jure utens de facto, cum de jure non poſſet, in injuriam et derogationem Coronæ noſtræ ſibi biciose uſurpavit. Nicholas a Cardinal Deacon of St. Maries of the Porch in Rome having the year before obtained from Pope Nicholas a new unheard-of Proviſion, by his Papal authority to unite and appropriate theſe two Prebendaries of Naſſyngton and Fenton to two Churches in Rome, and endeavouring to get the actual poſſeſſion of them by the Popes Bulls and proceſſe publiſhed in the Realm, to the diminution of Gods ſervice and the Almes of the Poor, againſt the piety and intention of their Founders, the manifeſt diſheriſon of the King and his heirs, the dangerous conſequence of ſuch ill preſidents to draw on the like, whereby the Churches ſhould be left deſtitute of Miniſters, maintenance, and Divine ſervice; their Revenues being aſſigned to forreign uſes, to Gods high diſpleaſure, who would not have one Church and Altar robbed, to enrich or increaſe the ſervices of another. The King and his Nobles in this Parliament, beſides the * premiſed Prohibitions and Proclamations againſt this Innovation and Uſurpation, writ and ſent theſe memorable Letters to the Pope and all his Cardinals in general, and to this Cardinal in particular, to recall and reform this unheard-of Proviſion and abuſe, which by their reſpective Oathes they were obliged to oppoſe, and could not permit or connive at: worthy ſpecial obſervation, being recorded for perpetual memory.

It ſeems theſe Prohibitions and reſolute Letters prevented theſe and all ſuch like Proviſions and appropriations for the future, which the Pope and Cardinals could no wayes juſtifie nor excuſe.

In a Bundle of Writs, Anno 17 & 18 E. 1. in the White Tower Chapel, I found this Letter of Vezano the Popes Nuntio, to Pope Nicholas the 4. who by his Bulls authorized and commanded him to proceed in an Appeal to him and the Court of Rome, at the proſecution of the Nephew of Pope Innocent the 4th. Rector of the Church of Hugnate within the Dioceſſe of Yorke, grounded upon a contract for Debt belonging to the Kings Courts, contrary to the Kings Prohibitions to him; which the Kings Judges, together with the King, his Counſil, and Nobles, upon ſerious conſultation, refuſed notwithſtanding his importunitie to permit him to proceed in, as being againſt the Kings Crown and Dignity; whereupon he ſent back his Bull to the Pope, as his Letter to him more at large relates.

A moſt pregnant Teſtimony of the Popes own Nuncio to the Pope himſelf, both of the Kings, his Juſtices, Counſils, Barons, Nobles care, vigilancie, ſtrenuous oppoſition, and deliberate, peremptory reſolution againſt this new Papal encroachment by Appeals, upon the antient rights and prerogatives of his Crown and Courts.

An. 18 E. 1. In a Bundle of Writs of Attorney Anno 18 E. 1. I found this dedimus poteſtatem iſſued to the Abbot of Thame, to take this memorable Oath and ſecurity from Peter de Divion Abbot of Rewley, being an Alien born under the King of France.

Brevia Regis Anno 18 E. 1. in Turre London.

The Abbot endorſed this retorn thereon. Ego Frater Johannes Abbas de Thame, virtute iſtius mandati, recepi Sacramentum Domini Petri de Divione, Abbatis de Regali loco juxta Oxon. apud Oxon. Dominica in feſto Apoſtolorum Simonis & Judæ; & etiam recepi Manucaptores ipſius Domini Petri Abbatis de Regali loco, viz. Johannem de Doclynton Majorem Villæ Oxon. It ſeems moſt Abbots and Priors that were Aliens, took the like Oath, and gave ſufficient Pledges for their fidelity and true allegiance to the King in that age, (eſpecially in times of War) and not to ſend the Goods of their Monaſteries out of the Realm, which they frequently did to the Kingdoms prejudice.

The Biſhop of Norwich excommunicating the Vicar of Stokneylond, who appealed to the See of Rome againſt his ſentence as unjuſt, and he being impriſoned by a Capias Excommunicatum upon the Biſhops certificate after his Appeal, and thereupon enlarged by the Kings Writ; after his enlargement, upon a falſe ſuggeſtion, that he had not Appealed, being in danger to be reimpriſoned by a Writ of recaption; the King thereupon iſſued this Writ to the Sheriff of Norfolk, to ſummon both parties to appear before him, to hear and determine this cauſe.

A clear evidence that the King was Supreme Judge in all caſes of Excommunication, Appeals, Exorbitances, legality or illegalitie of Eccleſiaſtical Courts and Prelates proceedings, and to hear, rectifie, and finally determine them upon his Subjects complaints. An. 18 E. 1.

The Biſhop of Worceſter intending to make ſome Parochial Churches, whereof he was Patron, Prebendaries, and to annex them to the Collegiate Church of Weſtbury near Briſtol, which the Prior and Chapter of Worceſter oppoſed, for fear they ſhould thereby loſe their right of electing their Biſhop, the King thereupon ſent this Letter to them, to aſſent thereto, for advancement of Gods ſervice, and his royal honor and benefit, being a thing he cordially deſired, and to return him their anſwer the next Parliament, when all things and differences between them ſhould be finally ſetled without further ſuit or expenſes.

Radulpho

An. 18 E. 1. Radulpho & Willielmo ad respondendum de quinque marcis quas ab eo tunc exigebant: Ad idem Ricardus die Veneris proxima post festum Sancti Nicholai in Ecclesia de Hanstede, anno Regis nunc decimo septimo, prohibitionem Regis ne placitum illud teneret, prædictis Radulpho et Willielmo exhibuisset, prædictus Radulphus spreto mandato Regis, nichilominus prædictum placitum simul cum prædicto Willielmo tenuit, in contemptum Domini Regis et grave dampnum ipsius Ricardi, &c. Unde dicit, quod deterioratus est et dampnum habet ad valentiam centum solidorum; et inde producit sectam, &c.

Et Radulphus per Attornatum suum venit & defendit vim et injuriam quando, &c. Et bene defendit, quod nunquam tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de prædictis quinque marcis contra prohibitionem Regis sicut ei imponit. Et hoc paratus est defendere contra ipsum & sectam suam sicut Curia consideraverit, &c. Ideo vadiet ei legem suam 12. manu, &c. Et veniat cum lege sua in Chrastino Animarum, &c. Plegii de lege Willielmus de Tynchyngsend & Willielmus de Twynstede, &c.

Ibid. Rot. 26. intus. Surr. Ibid. Rot. 69. Ebor. Petrus de Malo lacu per attornatum suum optulit se quarto die versus Magistrum Robertum de Pykering, & Ricardum Priorem de Sancto Oswaldo, de placito quare idem Magister Robertus simul cum Johanne Archiepiscopo Eborum tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de advocatione medietatis Ecclesiæ de Lychfeldia contra prohibitionem, *&c. In the same Plea Roll, in an Assise of Darraign presentment I finde this Plea of plenarty pleaded by a Prioresse by vertue of an Impropriation, and of a person intruded into it, by whose presentation the Plaintiff claimed a Title, who was actually deprived by a Judicial Sentence in the Court of Rome, and the Abbesse thereby restored to the possession thereof.

Ibid. Rot. 105 Wiltes. Assisa venit recognitura quis advocatus tempore pacis præsentavit ultimam personam quæ mortua est ad Ecclesiam de Wamberge quæ vacat, &c. et cujus advocationem Alanus filius Rogeri de la Zuche, & Emelina Lungespeye aliàs clamaverunt versus Priorissam de Ambresbury, *&c. Et Prioriſſa per attornatum ſuum venit & dicit, quod non debet ei inde ad hoc breve reſpondere, quia dicit, quod prædicta Eccleſia plena eſt & conſulta de ipſa Prioriſſa & Conventu ſuo qui illam tenuit in pzopzios uſus de adbocatione ſua pzopzia, & fuit ante impetracionem brevis. Et hoc parata eſt verificare ubi & quando debuerit, &c. An. 18 E. 1

Et prædictus Alanus dicit, quod prædictus Hugo nuper perſona prædictæ Eccleſiæ ad præſentacionem prædicti Stephani anteceſſoris, &c. à tempore inſtitutionis ſuæ ut perſona imperſonata in eadem ſtatum continuavit uſque feſtum Sancti Michaelis proximo præteritum, & tunc Hugo Eccleſiam illam reſignavit. Et dicit, quod quam cito noticia reſignacionis, &c. ad ipſum pervenit ipſe infra quinque menſes proximo ſequentes breve ſuum impetravit. Et hoc petit quod inquiri per aſſiſam. Unde dicit, quod ſtatus plenitudinis quem prædicta Prioriſſa dicit ſe habere, potius debet dici in eum Intruſio, quam plenitudo. Dies datus eſt eis de audiendo Judicio ſuo hic à die Sancti Michaelis in xv. dies. Poſtea . . . . . ad diem illum venerunt partes per attornatum ipſius Prioriſſe. Et Prioriſſa dicit, quod advocacio prædictæ Eccleſiæ fuit cujuſdam Prioris & fratrum de Nogento Rodrode, qui Eccleſiam illam tenuerunt in pzopzios uſus de adbocacione ſua pzopzia per centum annos ante impetrationem pzædicti bzebis. Et dicit, quod prædictus Hugo ſuper poſſeſſione prædictorum Prioris & Fratrum intruſit ſe in prædictam Eccleſiam, & illam tenuit occupatam quouſque idem Hugo ad ſectam ipſius Prioris per ſententiam diffinitibam latam in Curia Romana fuit ab Eccleſia illa pzivatus, et idem Pzioz in eadem Eccleſia reſtitutus. *Et hoc paratus eſt verificare ubi & quando debuerit, &c. * Matthew Parker Archbiſhop of Canterbury ſtories, that John Peckham Archbiſhop of Canterbury this year, after the viſitation and ſubjugation of his whole Province, ſummoned a Council of his Clergie at Redyng, wherein he intended and propounded the drawing of all Cauſes concerning Advowſons meerly belonging to the Kings Temporal, to their Eccleſiaſtical Courts, and to cut off all Prohibitions to them from the Kings Courts in perſonal cauſes; a deſign they had long attempted: which the King hearing of, expreſly commanded them by ſpecial Meſſengers, to deſiſt from it, whereupon their deſign was fruſtrated, and this Council diſſolved. * De Antiqu. Eccleſ. Angl. f. 205. Anno 1290.

Subacta ſibi jam his modis Provincia, Clerum ſuum Redingi congregabit. Pzopoſuitque cognitionem de Patronatu Eccleſiarum, multis annis ad Regium tribunal ſpectantem, inde ad Eccleſiaſticum fozum traducere, tum Pzohibitiones Regias in Litibus de bonis et catallis pzozſus reſcindere, et ne deinceps Eccleſiaſticos Judices a jure reddendo retardarent vetare, (Such was his Papal inſolencie and diſloyaltie) * Sed Rex incepto hoc audito, nuncios ad Concilium deſtinatis multis, tam Archiepiſcopo quam toti Clero minis pzæcepit, ut deſiſterent. Unde factum eſt, ut a ſua pzæſumptione Archiepiſcopus penitus tranſiliret. Ita diſſoluto Concilio omnes Pzælati ſpe inanes receſſerunt. To which he ſubjoyns this notable paſſage concerning the Prelates incontinencie, the briberie, uſurie of the Pope and Court of Rome, and their Merchants, the ſuppreſſing all proceedings againſt an unchaſt Biſhop for mony, and the Archbiſhops endeavours to advance his own abſolute authority. In eo etiam Concilio fama publica id exigente, perquiſibit de Epiſcopo quodam Concubinario; de quo ad Matthæum quendam Romanæ Eccleſiæ Cardinalem ſcripſit, ſed de ejus nomine nullam mentionem fecit, id enim, ut ait, nuncio ſuo proferendum * Petrus de Ickeham.

An. 18 E. 1. ferendum commisit. Petiit in aliis literis à Cardinali Matthæo, ut de eo cogitando Papam secreto sermonem consuleret, neque res enunciaretur. Multos enim ei in Romana Curia amicos et explogatores fuisse, potissimum autem Mercatores Lucanenses, quorum (ut diximus) opera in expilationibus et usuris Papa sæpe usus esset. Hunc autem non nominatum Episcopum cum secreto convenisset, atque quæsivisset, an vera essent quæ de ejus concubinatu fama retulisset? Testes, quos Archiepiscopus expectabat & adesse jussit, metuens tandem turpia narrasse, et ipsius turpitudinis diem fatium fuisse, describit. Deinde eadem septimana cum Mortlaci moraretur, venisse ad eum fœminam quendam Julianam de illius Episcopi factis quædam narraturam. Ea juramento coacta peperisse se quinque liberos ex eodem Episcopo adhuc superstites, fatta est. Hunc cum coercere vellet, metuens ne se muneribus ad Papam sundendis defenderet, per hunc Cardinalem præoccupavit Papam. Respono, inquit, eum adhuc aggredi iterato. Sed scio, quod conatus meus parum proderit, nisi me litera juvat Apostolica. Nox enim ut eum tetigero, appellationis alis falsidicæ rete meum effugiet, infinitam pecuniam effusurus. Vero autem, ut in omnibus aliis mihi per vos adsit adminiculum Papæ, per quod mea crescat authoritas, et timor incutiatur rebellibus, meaque jurisdictio excitetur, ut constantius nova inchoem, et inchoata authoritate majori valeam confirmare.

I finde in the Parchment Book of Collections of Placita Parliamenti 18 E. 1. in the Tower, that the King to preserve the Jurisdiction of his own Temporal Courts against the Bishops encroachments, and yet to preserve their legal Jurisdiction in causes properly triable by them by the grace and grant of his predecessors, made this Constitution upon the Ecclesiastical Judges grievous complaint, that the Chancellor or Chief Justice for the time being, when a Prohibition was granted to stay any suit in Court Christian, should send for the Libel, and if upon examination they found the Kings Court by Writs out of the Chancerie could not relieve the party, and that the cause belonged to the Ecclesiastical Court to determine, they should order them to proceed notwithstanding the Prohibition.

* Placita Parliamentaria An. 18 E. 1. m. 21. See Ryley p. 39. Quod Judices Ecclesiastici procedant non obstante Prohibitione Regis.

* Cum Judices Ecclesiastici ad procedendum in causis coram ipsis agitatis per Prohibitionem Domini Regis sæpius supersedant in casibus ubi remedium conquerentibus ad Curiam Domini Regis per Breve de Cancellaria sua fieri non possit, propter quod querentes illi in utraque Curia tam Regia quam Ecclesiastica jure suo et remedio sunt elongati, ad grave dampnum ipsorum, prout Dominus Rex ex gravi querela quorundam intellexit: Dominus Rex vult et præcepit, quod cum Judices Ecclesiastici per Prohibitionem Regiam sibi porrectam supersedeant in casibus prædictis, quod Cancellarius vel Capitalis Justiciarius ipsius Domini Regis qui pro tempore fuerit, viso libello illius causæ, ad instantiam querentis, si viderint quod per Breve de Cancell. querenti remedium suo casu fieri non possit, set quod ad Curiam Ecclesiasticam pertineat causam illam determinare, scribant Judicibus coram quibus causa illa prius fuerit agitata, quod in causa illa procedant, non obstante Prohibitione Regia prius sibi inde directa. Therefore the Archbishop and Clergy had no cause at all to attempt the suppression of all Prohibitions to them to restrain their usurpations on the Kings Crown, Courts, or Subjects Liberties.

An. 19 E. 1. King Edward sending his Letters to the Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland to convene their Clergie, and induce them to grant him a Dism of their Spiritualties to defray his expenses and Debts in redeeming his * Nephew Charles, and setling Truces in foreign parts, the Clergie of Ireland unanimously refused to grant his request, by reason of their extreme poverty, and many years wars and depredations, yea sundry of them appealed to the Pope against it, as these Letters of the Archbishops of Tuam and Cassels, and Bishop of Dary to the King, which I found in the White Tower Chappel, will more fully relate.

The Archbiſhop of Yorke excommunicating ſundry perſons in Weſtmerland, who were impriſoned upon a Capias Excommunicatum, and refuſing to accept of their Caution; the Chancellor iſſued this Writ in the Kings name to accept their Caution, and enlarge them, to which the Sheriff made this dilatory return.

EXcellentiſſimo in Chriſto Patri Domino R. permiſſione divina Bathonienſi & Wellenſi Epiſcopo, Domini Regis Cancellario, ſuus (ſi placet) G. de Bronnelneſord Vicecomes Weſtmerl. Salutem, Reverentiam, & Honorem. An. 19 E. 1. Sanctæ Eccleſiæ, tàm de contemptu, quàm de injuria ei illata ab eis, fuerit ſatisfactum: nobis eſt oſtenſum, quod licet iidem Rogerus, Johannes, Simon, Willielmus, Rogerus, Willielmus & Nicholaus eidem Archiepiſcopo frequenter obtulerunt idoneam cautionem de parendo mandatis Eccleſiæ in forma juris, ut abſolutionis beneficium conſequi poſſint: idem tamen Archiepiſcopus cautionem illam ab eis hactenus admittere recuſabit, de quo miramur. Et quia nolumus quod iidem Rogerus, Johannes, Simon, Willielmus, Rogerus, Willielmus & Nicholaus contra juſticiam in priſona diutius detineantur; Tibi præcipimus, ſicut alias præcepimus, quod in propria perſona tua ad prætatum Archiepiſcopum accedas, & ipſum ex parte noſtra moneas, & efficaciter inducas, ut accepta ab eiſdem Rogero, Johanne, Simone, Willielmo, Rogero, Willielmo & Nicholao cautione prædicta, ipſos à Priſona prædicta mandet deliberari. Et ſi idem Archiepiſcopus in præſentia tua id facere noluerit, tunc tu ipſos Rogerum, Johannem, Simonem, Willielmum, Rogerum, Willielmum & Nicholaum à priſona prædicta, ſi ea occaſione & non alia detineantur in eadem, deliberari facias; vel cauſam nobis ſignifices, quare mandatum noſtrum aliàs tibi inde directum exequi noluiſti, vel non potuiſti. Teſte meipſo apud Dunfermelyn in Scotia 14 die Julii. Anno Regni noſtri decimo nono.

Mandatum alias mihi ſuper hoc directum exequi non potui, eo quod tunc fui ad Scaccarium Domini Regis, compotum meum redditurus, per præceptum Domini Regis. Iſtud mandatum exequi non potui, eo quod Robertus de Herteford & ſocii ſui Juſticiarii aſſignati ad Aſſiſas capiendas nunc ſedent in Comitatu noſtro. Et poſt eorum receſſum ad Chacea Domini Regis de Engelwode & de Landa de Plumpton per mandatum Domini Regis una cum auxilio totius Comitatus noſtri prædicti me oportet intereſſe; Unde (ſi placet) me excuſatum habere velitis, eo quod negotia Dominum Regem tangentia præ omnibus aliis credo fore prærogatura. Valeat Sanctitas veſtra per tempora diuturna.

The Kings Conſort Queen Alianor deceaſing in December, the King thereupon out of his Prerogative and devotion (according to the practiſe of that blind age) the 4th of January iſſued this Writ to all the Religious Houſes and Monks of Cluny in England to ſing Maſſes and make Prayers for her ſoul, to purge it from all the remaining ſpots of ſinne, and to certifie him the number of the Maſſes they would ſay for her, that proportionably he might thank them.

fore notwithſtanding the Biſhops Ordinance, commanded him to admit his Clerk thereto, without any more delayes or excuſes; which if he refuſed, he commanded the Sheriff of Cumberland to take poſſeſſion of the Church, and ſequeſter the profits thereof till he gave further order therein, by theſe memorable Writs, evidencing his Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical authority and Judicature in ſuch caſes. An. 20 E. 1.

John Roman Archbishop of Yorke issued this memorable Precept to the Prior of Boulton to excommunicate Anthony Bek Bishop of Durham, for that John de Maydenstan Constable of Durham and his Complices, had by the Bishops command, or subsequent assent, imprisoned John de Amelya, a publike Notary by the Popes authoritie, and William de Wilton of Pickering, his Clerks, in the Castle of Durham, sent thither to the Bishop with his and his Officials Letters of Citation and Canonical mandates; there detaining them prisoners, and refusing to release them, after several admonitions sent to him in writing by the Archbishop to enlarge them, and a sentence of Interdict denounced against him for not releasing them, against his Canonical obedience, to the peril of his soul, and the great injury, high contempt, attenuation of his Archiepiscopal authority, Church, Religion, & for refusing to give any competent satisfaction for these contempts, after they were released by processe out of the Kings secular Court, but not by his Archiepiscopal Mandate to him.

Cum dudum venerabilem fratrem Dominum *A. Propter quod tercio * eidem Episcopo nostris dedimus literis in mandatis, quod sub pœna sententiæ excommunicationis quam in scriptis in personam ipsius protulimus justitia exigente, si mandatis nostris ultra contemptibiliter duxerit resistendum, quod sæpefatos Clericos de Captivitate hujusmodi liberaret, eosque liberè abire permitteret, eisdem, nobis & Ecclesiæ nostræ, quos notoriè contra Deum & justitiam, ac debitam obedientiam, & ipsius animæ salutem constiterat offendisse, juxta juris exigentiam satisfaceret competenter. Verum dictus Episcopus, ut videtur, quodammodo a fide recedens quæ debita obedientia roberatur, cum non nisi per inobedientiam schisma in Dei Ecclesia generetur, ac testante beato Gregorio, sola obedientia est quæ fidei meritum possidet, sine qua quisque infidelis convincitur; * etiamsi fidelis esse videatur, mandatis nostris Canonicis obedire contemptibiliter vilipendens, memoratos Clericos infra terminum ad liberandum sibi per nos juxta qualitatem negotii legitime deputatum, nullatenus liberabit, set in Cleri opprobrium totius Ecclesiæ disciplinæ contemptum, dictorum Clericorum, nostri et Ecclesiæ nostræ præjudicium et gravamen, eosdem post mandata nostra totiens ut prædicitur multiplicata, captivos, sicut prius, Carceri detinuit diutius mancipatos, licet per remedium Curiæ secularis secundum legem Regni, non alicujus nostri authoritate mandati eos denuo liberasset; propter quæ non est dubium Episcopum antedictum in dictas

If all Prelates uſurping on the Kings prerogative and Courts, had been conſtantly fined, and their fines duly levyed for the like uſurpations, the King and his people had not afterwards been ſo frequently troubled and vexed by them in England or Ireland.

King Edward out of his Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical Authority, blinde devotion, and love to his late deceaſed Conſort Queen Alianor, inſtituted a Solemn Anniverſary to be kept for her every year, iſſuing ſums of money, and granting ſeveral Mannors, Lands to the Abbot and Covent of Weſtminſter for that end, wherein he preſcribed how many Tapers and of what weight they ſhould find, how many and what Maſſes, Dirges, Pater-Noſters, Ave-Maries they ſhould ſing, and what Almes they ſhould diſtribute to the Poor for her Soul; obliging the Abbot, Prior, and Monks by a ſolemn Oath duly to perform the ſame, under pain of forfeiting all their goods, chattels, and the lands thus given to them for this end; as theſe Records will inform us.

From which 3. Charters I shall observe, 1. That the King, this Bishop and other founders of Chantries in that age, took special care to oblige Deans, Prebends, Priests, Masters and Chaplains not only by their Charters, covenants, but also by solemn promissory Oathes to constant personal residence on their Cures, and the diligent discharge of their pastoral duties, which yet notwithstanding they were apt to neglect. 2ly. That they particularly prescribed, both what and how many Masses, prayers, Tapers, Alms, divine or superstitious Services they should perform for the benefit of their own and others souls departed, whereof our Kings had then the Soveraign Charge, care, for which they made special provisions by their Charters both for that and succeeding ages; as these, with all other their Charters for erecting, endowing, or confirming of Bishopricks, Monasteries, Chappels, Churches or Chauntries abundantly evidence.

King Edward the 1. for the peace, quiet, good Government and encouragement of Scholars and learning in the University of Cambridge, this year ratified all former Charters Charters granted to them by his Father King Henry the 3. and former Orders and agreements made between them and the Mayor and Townſmen of Cambridge for that end, by this his Royal Charter; evidencing the great care our Kings had to protect, advance, encourage Scholars and learning in our Univerſities, and keep the Townſmen from exacting on them in any kinde. An. 20 E. 1.

I finde another ſuit brought by the Abbot of Battle, for 40 s. lent by his predeceſſor to Wlnardus Manſe in the Court of Rome, to diſpatch his buſineſſe there.

Wlnardus Manſe ſummonitus fuit ad reſpondendum Abbati de Bello de placito, quod reddat ei quadraginta ſolidos quos ei debet & detinet, &c. Et ipſe non venit; unde queritur, quod cum prædictus Wlnardus die proxima poſt feſtum S. Dionyſii, anno regni Domini Regis nunc quinto, in Curia Romana apud Lugdun. mutuavit a quodam Abbate de Bello prædeceſſore nunc Abbatis quadraginta ſolidos, pro negociis prædicti Wlnardi in prædicta Curia promovendis et expediendis, ſolvend. eidem anteceſſori, &c. ad feſtum Purificationis beatæ Mariæ proximo ſequens in Anglia apud Abbatiam de Bataile, prædictus Wlnardus ad terminum prædictum prædicto Abbati eoſdem ſolidos non ſolvit. Et licet ſæpius per Abbatem nunc requiſitus eſſet prædictam pecuniam ſolvend. illam ſolvere contradicit; unde dicit, quod deterioratus eſt & dampnum habet ad valenciam quadraginta ſolidorum: et inde producit ſectam; & profert quoddam ſcriptum ſub nomine ipſius VVlnardi factum apud Lugdun. quod prædictum debitum teſtatur ſolvendum in Anglia, &c. Et VVlnardus per attornatum ſuum venit & defendit vim & injuriam quando, &c. Et dicit, quod non debet de aliquo debito reſponaere. Dicit enim quod ipſe Abbas petit prædictam pecuniam tanquam ſibi ipſi debitam, & per narrationem ſuam dicit mutuatam fuiſſe de quodam Abbate prædeceſſore ſuo, per quod ſibi videtur quod illud verbum in brevi contentum Abbati qui nunc eſt deſervire non poteſt. Immo de injuſtè detinet tantum, & petit judicium de breve. Preterea, prædictus VVlnardus non recedens ab ipſa exceptione, immò ea ſibi ſalva dicit, quod per prædictum ſcriptum etiam patet, quod prædictus contractus factus fuit apud Lugdun. ſuper Romam extra Regnum Angliæ, ſuper quo contractu Curia cognoſcere non poteſt, ſi ipſe VVlnardus contractum dedicere voluerit. Et petit judicium, &c. Placita Anno 20 E. 1. Rot. 96. Suff.

In the ſame Plea Roll I met with this Notable caſe concerning an intruſion of an Abbot into a Church during the Minority of an heir, the Kings Courts rejection of two Certificates of a Plenarty or Vacancy of the Church by the Biſhop againſt the uſual form; an Inhibition procured by the Defendant to the Biſhop not to certifie, with a Verdict and Judgement thereupon in an Aſſiſe of Darrayn preſentments brought by a Guardian, which ſuit depended ſundry years.

Aſſiſa alias coram Thoma de Weyland & ſociis ſuis Juſticiariis hic, ſcilicet in Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis anno regni Domini Regis nunc decimo ſeptimo, venit recognitura, quis advocatus tempore pacis præſentavit ultimam perſonam quæ mortua eſt ad Eccleſiam de Chetelton, quæ vacat, & cujus advocationem Nicholaus de Aldingley cuſtos terræ & hæredis Ricardi filii Henrici de Chetelton clamat verſus Abbatem de Ibid. Rot 165 Staff.

An. 20 E. I. de Deulacres, ratione disseisinæ prædictæ, &c. Et unde idem Custos dixit, quod quidam Robertus de Chetelton antecessor prædicti hæredis tempore pacis tempore R. Regis nunc præsentavit quendam Petrum Clericum suum ad prædictam Ecclesiam, qui ad præsentacionem suam fuit admissus & institutus, & ultimo obiit persona in eadem, per cujus mortem prædicta Ecclesia tunc vacavit, & adhuc vacat, &c. Et de ipso Roberto descendit jus præsentacionis Willielmo ut filio & hæredi. Et de ipso Willielmo quia obiit sine hærede de se, descendit jus præsentacionis, &c. cuidam Hugoni ut fratri & hæredi; & de prædicto Hugone descendit jus præsentacionis, &c. cuidam Roberto ut filio & hæredi, qui fuit infra ætatem & adhuc est.

Abbas tunc venit & dixit, quod non debuit ei inde ad hoc breve respondere, quia dixit, quod prædicta Ecclesia non vacavit, immo est plena et consulta de ipso Abbate et Conventu suo qui eam tenent in proprios usus, et tenuerunt jam quadrag. annis elapsis. Et hoc parati sumus verificare, sicut Curia consideraverit. Et ad verificationem, Justiciariis protulit quandam Cartam sub nomine cujusdam Hugonis antecessoris (Richardi) quæ testatur quod prædictus Hugo dedit & concessit Abbati & Conventui de Deulacres prædictam advocationem prædictæ Ecclesiæ.

Nicholaus dixit, quod prædictus Abbas non debuit ad aliquam verificationem inde admitti, quia dixit, quod post mortem prædicti Petri personæ ultimæ prædictæ Ecclesiæ, Abbas prædecessor prædicti Abbatis de Deulacres in prædictam Ecclesiam se intrusit tempore quo prædictus Willielmus filius prædicti Henrici fuit infra ætatem, & in custodia Henrici de Aldingley, qui per suam negligenciam permisit prædictum Abbatem intrare prædictam Ecclesiam, unde petit Judicium, si per prædictam intrusionem debeat inde à præsentacione sua impediri, &c.

Abbas dixit sicut prius dixit, quod prædicta Ecclesia plena fuit & consulta de ipso & Conventu suo ut prædictum est; Et hoc paratus est verificare sicut Curia consideraverit, scilicet per Ordinarium ejusdem loci, &c. Postea à die Sancti Hillarii in 15 dies anno Regis nunc decimo octavo, venerunt partes, & nichil aliud dixerunt quam quod prius dixerunt. Ideo Abbas & Nicholaus si voluerit, habeat breve ad Episcopum Coventrensem & Lychfeldensem, quod constare faciat Justiciariis hic a die Paschæ in quindecim dies, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Et si non sit vacans, de quo et ad cujus præsentacionem pacis tempore plena fuerit, &c? Ad quem diem Episcopus nichil inde fecit, nec breve misit. Et tunc sicut prius præceptum est Episcopo quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquiret in forma prædicta; & quid inquisierit constare faciat hic in Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis proximo sequentis per literas, &c. Et Episcopus esset, &c. Ad quem diem misit Episcopus literas suas minus sufficienter factas, eo quod mandavit, quod prædicta Ecclesia de Chetelton de Religiosis præfatis non est plena nec consulta justo titulo, set per eosdem per intrusionem triginta annos & amplius occupata, &c. Ad quem diem præceptum fuit Episcopo sicut pluries quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret in forma prædicta. Et quid inde invenerit constare faceret hic à die Sancti Martini in quindecim dies proximo sequentes, &c. Ad quem diem Episcopus mandavit, quod prædicti Religiosi de Deulacres post mortem cujusdam Rogeri quondam personæ prædictæ Ecclesiæ qui obvenciones ejusdem Religiosis concessit tota vita sua pro sustentacione sua habenda in eadem domo, hucusque continuaverunt possessionem ejusdem Ecclesiæ, absque aliquo justo titulo, propter quod idem Episcopus Ecclesiam illam vacantem de jure ac vacuam reputavit. Et quia idem Episcopus tunc non certificavit Justiciariis hic præcise, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Ideo mandatum fuit ei sicut pluries quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret, & constare faceret Justiciariis hic ad hunc diem expresse & præcise, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacua, vel non? Et Episcopus sic fecit, &c. Et modo venit prædictus Nicholaus, & similiter prædictus Abbas per Attornatos suos. Et Episcopus super hoc misit literas suas patentes certificatorias quæ testantur, quod cum idem Episcopus esset in exequendo mandatum Domini Regis, (sicut decuit) reverenter, postea fuit ei Inhibitio Offic. Curiæ Cantuariæ per quendam Monachum prædict. Abbatis, cujus prætextu ulterius non processit hucusque, sed supersedit propter Inhibitionem illam per prædictos Monachos ei deliberatam, &c. Et quia prædictus Abbas allegavit, prædictam Ecclesiam plenam esse & consultam de ipso Abbate & Conventu suo, qui illam tenent in proprios usus; & hoc paratus fuit verificare coram loci Ordinario; Et idem Abbas per prædictam Inhibitionem ipso Episcopo postea, prætextu cujus idem Episcopus ad verificationem p̄z dictam p̄cedere non potuit, liberabit, renuntiando verificationi ſuper vacatione Eccleſiæ p̄dictæ, quam p̄ius dixit. Conſideratum eſt quod procedatur ad aſſiſam, &c. Et dictum eſt prædicto Abbati, quod dicat ad verificationem Aſſiſæ ſi ſibi, &c. Et Abbas dicit, quod prædictus hæres nihil Juris clamare poteſt in prædicta Advocatione, quia dicit, Quod quidam Hugo anteceſſor prædicti hæredis, & per medium cujus, &c. dedit, conceſſit, & Carta ſua confirmavit Deo, & beatæ Mariæ, & Abbati & Conventui de Denlacres, totum Jus & Clameum quod habuit in Advocatione & Patronatu Eccleſiæ de Chetelton; & quod conceſſit, quod prædicti Abbas & Conventus prædictam Eccleſiam cum omnibus pertinentiis & libertatibus ſuis habeant & poſſideant, liberè & quietè, purè & pacificè, ſicut ad Eccleſiam ſuam de Leks pertinentem. Et quod ipſe & hæredes ſui warrantizab. &c. Et profert quandam Cartam ſub nomine prædicti Hugonis, quæ hoc teſtatur. Unde petit judicium, &c. An. 20 E. 1.

Et Nicholaus petit, quod procedatur ad Aſſiſam, ſecundum quod prius conſideratum; quia dicit, non eſt ſuum reſpondere præfatæ Cartæ, &c. Et prædictus Abbas quæſitus, ſi prædictus Robertus de Chetelton anteceſſor prædicti hæredis ultimo præſentavit, &c. vel non? Dicit, quod ad hoc non vult reſpondere, &c. Ideo cap. Aſſiſa; ſed ponitur in reſpectum uſque à die Sancti Johannis Baptiſtæ in 15. dies, pro defectu recognitionis, quia nullus venit. Ideo Vicecomes habeat corpora, &c.

Poſtea ad diem illum venerunt partes, & ſimiliter recogn. præfatæ Aſſiſæ. Et idem Abbati allocatis calumpniis ſuis verſus quamplures Recogn. quæ fuerunt allocandæ, & quæ non per Sacramentum adnihilatæ; proceſſum eſt ad Aſſiſam, &c.

Juratores dicunt ſuper Sacramentum ſuum, quod prædictus Robertus de Chetelton, & anteceſſor prædicti hæredis cujus, &c. tempore pacis, tempore prædicti Domini J. Regis, ultimo præſentavit prædictum Petrum Clericum ſuum, qui ad præſentationem ſuam fuit admiſſus & inſtitutus, & ultimò obiit perſona in eadem à patrono præſentata. Et quæſiti, quantum tempoꝛis lapſum ſit poſt moꝛtem ipſius Petri? Dicunt, quod decem anni, et amplius, &c. Et quia convictum eſt per aſſiſam iſtam; quod prædictus Robertus anteceſſ. hæred. &c. ultimo præſentavit, ut ſuperius patet; Conſideratum eſt, quod p̄dictus Cuſtos nomine p̄dicti hæredis recuperet P̄ræſentationem ſuam ad p̄dictam Eccleſiam. Et habeat Breve Epiſcopo Coventren. & Lychfeld. quod ad p̄ſentacionem p̄dicti Cuſtodis, ad p̄dictam Eccleſiam, idoneam perſonam admittat; Et Abbas in miſericoꝛdia, &c.

By which caſe we may diſcern. Firſt, how many unjuſt, fraudulent tricks and deviſes theſe pretended Religious Abbots and Monks then had, to deprive infants and others of their rights of patronage unto Churches, by intruſions and pretended appropriations; 2ly, what dilatory pleas and fraudulent inhibitions unbecomming Chriſtians, much leſſe religious Votaries, they uſed to prevent, retard their recovery of their rights by Legal ſuits and proceſſe in the Kings Courts, when they could not ingroſſe the conuſance of them into their own Eccleſiaſtical Courts, as they * frequently endeavoured; which would ſoon have deprived all Lay-Patrons of their Advouſons, had their Titles been never ſo clear or legal. * See Here, p. 268, 439.

The Biſhop of Rocheſter preſenting and inſtituting Robert Eſtre the Kings Chaplain to the Church of Woldeham, then found to be void by Walter the Parſons entry into Religion in the Church of Rocheſter, which he exchanged for the Church of Henlee afterwards appropriated to the Biſhop and his ſucceſſors; the ſaid Walter caſting off his Monks habit, and vexing the ſaid Robert ſo as he was in danger to loſe the ſaid Living; the King thereupon writ to the preſent Biſhop of Rocheſter to do him right againſt the ſaid Walter, and to reſtore him to the Church out of which he had forcibly ejected him: whereupon the Biſhop admoniſhed Walter to remove the force out of the Church, and deliver the poſſeſſion thereof to Robert Eſtre, excommunicating him for not doing it; who contemning his Mandate and Excommunication, procured an inhibition to him out of the Court of Canterbury to which he had appealed, not to act any thing to Walters prejudice pending his appeal: whereupon the Biſhop made this Certificate to the King of his proceedings therein, deſiring his Majeſty

* It ſeems by this, that a perſons entrance into Religion, made his Church void, & nulled his preſentation & induction to it.

The Chancellor imploying one of his Clerks and Creatures to carry the Popes Bulls and Kings Writs into Ireland for levying a Diſme and Quindiſm there for the King, he rendred this account to him of his voyage thither and proceedings therein, by theſe Letters which I found in the White Tower, being blamed (as it ſeems) for his negligence in that affair.

In the ſame Bundle of Writs of Privy Seal and Letters this year, I finde this memorable caſe related in a Letter concerning a deviſe of a Meſſuage in London to a Chauntry, and the probat thereof in that age, with the oppoſition made againſt it by the heir who brought an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter, becauſe the Teſtator died before his Seal was put unto it; which ſuit the Author of this Letter endeavoured to engage the Chancellor to ſuperſede, and make the Will inviolable.

I ſhall now crave liberty to inſert into this year and Chapter, the moſt remarkable claims, declarations, demonſtrations of King Edward the 1. his Soveraign Dominion over the Kingdom, Kings, Prelates, Nobles, Clergy and Commonalty of Scotland, as Superior Lord of Scotland; which he then undeniably evidenced by antient Chronicles, Hiſtorians, the Homages, Oathes made to him and his Royal Predeceſſors by the Kings of Scotland in former ages; the unanimous confeſſions, Charters, Homages, Fealty of all the Competitors to the Crown of Scotland, after the death of King Alexander, and Queen Margaret his daughter without iſſue, before her intended marriage to Prince Edward his ſon; the ſurrender of the whole Kingdom, with the Caſtles and appurtenances thereof into his hands, as Superior Lord thereof, by the Guardians of Scotland, with the unanimous conſent of the Nobility, Clergy, Commonalty of that Nation; by the memorable Petitions of all the pretenders to the right and deſcent of the Realm and Crown of Scotland to them, after Queen Margarets deceaſe; who ſet forth their reſpective Titles, and ſubmitted them all to his abſolute Judicature, as their Superior Lord; who thereupon after ſundry deliberate, juſt, legal proceedings therein, and many hearings and interpleadings, by advice and conſent of his Parliament, and of the Prelates, Earls, Nobles, and moſt eminent Lawyers of both Kingdoms, finally adjudged the right of the Crown of Scotland to John Baliol as next heir in Law; who thereupon ſwore Fealty and Homage to him as to the Soveraign Lord of Scotland, after his Coronation and reſtitution of the Kingdom and Caſtles to him by the Kings Writs; who frequently ſummoned him to his Court, Parliaments upon complaints & appeals, for his injuſtice, oppreſſions, treachery, and confederacies with the French King againſt his homage and allegiance: All which particulars being only briefly, yea very imperfectly related by [a] Mat. Weſtminſter, [b] Thomas Walſingham, [c] Henry de Knyghton, and the reſt of our Hiſtorians, I ſhall here preſent you with at large, (for the vindication of the antient right and Soveraign Dominion of our Engliſh Kings over that Realm and Church, againſt all claims of uſurping Popes, or ingrate perfidious, rebellious Kings of Scotland) out of a moſt memorable irrefragable Record then made thereof by King Edwards ſpecial command, written by two ſworn Notaries approved by the Pope in a very excellent fair hand, in ſundry large Rolls of parchment, now remaining in the Tower of London; the truth of each particular therein conteined, with all circumſtances of time, place, and other emergencies, being atteſted by many Biſhops, Earls, Nobles, and other perſons of quality of the Engliſh and Scottiſh Nations, preſent at all the Tranſactions, and theſe two ſworn Notaries: Which being thus recorded by King Edward in perpetuam rei memoriam, to all ſucceeding generations, and the exacteſt Narrative, Record both for Hiſtory, judicial and legal proceedings, rare pleadings, Pedigrees of the Scottiſh Royal Line, the ſeveral Titles made to the Crown of Scotland, and the compleateſt, uncontrolableſt evidence of our Kings Soveraign Juriſdiction and Lordſhip over Scotland, this day extant, moſt worthy publick view, though very long, reciting ſundry Patents, Charters, Oathes both in French and Latine, for the reaſons therein expreſſed.

An. 20 E. 1. Ecclesiam tuam honorificabo & redditibus augebo, si Dei nutu tuoque suffragio hostes debellare quivero. Custodes vero Ecclesiæ qui aderant, suggesserunt sibi, ut signum aliquod inde secum in monumentum assortaret. Et fecit quoddam vexillum sibi ac eadem Ecclesia proferri, consignans se ad suum exercitum reversus est. Cumque Scoti audissent Anglorum exercitum advenire, non sunt ausi eos in finibus eorum expectare, nec campestri bello eis resistere, sed transfretaverunt Flumen quod dicitur Scotorum vadium, ut ibi infra proprios terminos securius se in bello ad resistendum parare possent. Rex vero Adelstanus cum omni exercitu Angliæ, cum ad Flumen pervenisset, didicit Scotos *transisse, & præcepit suis super ripam fluminis sua tentoria figere, ibique aliquantulum pausare. Subsequenti nocte quiescentibus cunctis cum suo Rege, talis visio eidem Regi apparuit cæteris dormientibus, & omnino ignorantibus. Videbatur enim ei, quod quidam Pontificali habitu indutus coram se adstaret, sibique diceret; Adelstane Rex, fac tuos in crastinum præparari, ut transeant flumen istud ad debellandum contra Scotos. Cumque interrogaret Rex, Quisnam esset qui talia sibi diceret? Respondit qui astabat, quod ipse esset Johannes, cujus precibus expetierat se protegi, cum Beverlaci in ejusdem Ecclesia oraret. Subinde statim intulit; Noli timere cum exercitu transire armato; nam debellabis eos; hoc enim tibi nunciare veni. Mane itaque facto curavit Rex suis visionem patefacere, & de victoria certificare. Qui lætantes animati sunt ad certamen; & transfretavêre flumen. Scotos vero invenerunt cum suo Rege paratos ad resistendum. Commissoque gravi prælio, multi ex Scotis perierunt, vivus autem vix ipsorum Rex effugit ad totius regni confusionem & desolationem. Quo viso, Rex Angliæ lætus effectus gratias egit Deo, venerandoque Confessori, videlicet Johanni suo intercessori, totumque regnum continuo suo subjugavit imperio, contens & perlustrans cunctas illius terræ provincias, principes & præpositos urbium, indicens eis, ut tributa sibi suisque successoribus, scilicet Angliæ Regibus, ex debito persolverent. Septem etiam Insulas adjacentes atque vicinas sibi serbire compulit; et tam diu in illis partibus commoratus est, quod jam tres anni finirentur. Jamque rebertens per loca maritima juxta Dunbar vidit Scopulos præminere. Aspicit, taliaque suspirans eloquia protulit, dicens; Si Deus, interveniente beato Johanne mihi aliquod signum evidens facere permittat, quatenus tam succedentes quam præsentes cognoscere possent Scotiam Anglorum regno jure subjugari utpote devictum ab Adelstano Rege, sibique et suis successoribus tributum omni tempore debere persolvere, non immeritò illi devotè gratias agerem. Ut extrahens gladium de vagina percussit in scilicem, quæ adeo penetrabilis (Dei virtute agente) fuit gladio, quam si eadem horâ lapis butyrum esset, vel mollis glarea, qui lapis ad ictum gladii ita concavatur, ut mensura ulnæ longitudine possit coaptari, et usque ad præsentem diem evidens signum patet, quod Scoti ab Anglis debicti et subjugati, monimento tali evidenter cunctis adeuntibus demonstrante. Item, de homagio Domino Regi Angliæ debito de terra Galwydiæ subscripta inveniuntur; anno Domini 1185. mense Augusto apud Carleolum, Rolandus Galwydiæ Dominus, illuc, ut jussus fuerat, Domino Regi occurrens, in deditionem sponte venit, veritus tamen (ut creditur) exercitus multitudinem quam ad debellandum eum Rex ipse adduxerat, nisi maturius captam contumaciam reliquisset. Recepto itaque homagio ipsius Rolandi de Gawydia, simul et Comitis David fratris Willielmi tunc Regis Scotiæ de omnibus terris, quæ tenebat, demisitque Rex exercitum suum & in Angliam festinavit. Anno regni Regis Henrici vicesimo secundo Gilbertus filius Fergus princeps Galwennorum venit in Angliam in conductu Regis Scotiæ, et devenit homo ligius Henrici Regis patris, et fidelitatem sibi jurabit contra omnes homines. Et pro amore ipsius habendo, dedit Regi mille marcas argenti, et Duncanum filium suum in obsidem, de pace sibi servanda.

Rex Willielmus genuit Regem Alexandrum, qui regnavit poſt ipſum; Et idem Alexander genuit Alexandrum ſecundum, qui poſtea regnavit, & habuit unam filiam Margaretam nomine, quæ fuit nupta Regi Norwegiæ; de quibus exivit quædam alia Margareta, quæ poſtea fuit hæres Scotiæ, & obiit ſine hærede de corpore ſuo. Et per defectum exitus de ſanguine ejuſdem Margaretæ, & per reverſionem debet reverti ad Iſabellam primogenitam, & Adam & Margaretam filias dicti Regis Willielmi, patris dicti Alexandri, fratris prædictarum Iſabellæ, Adæ & Margaretæ, & patris Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, ſicut ad propinquiores de ſanguine prædictæ Margaretæ; quæ quidem Iſabella deſponſata fuit Roberto de Ros: Et de ipſis Roberto & Iſabella exivit quidam Willielmus, & de Willielmo quidam Robertus, de quo Willielmus qui nunc petit, ſicut propinquior homo per defectum ſanguinis prædictæ Margaretæ & reverſionem prædictam ad Iſabellam anteceſſorem ſuum, tanquam ad primogenitam; cui Iſabellæ ratione primogenituræ debet dictum regnum integrè remanere: Et quod regnum non debet dividi paratus eſt verificare.

Ex parte vero Domini Roberti de Pinkny ſimiliter fuit pro jure ſuo propoſitum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. David Rex Scotiæ genuit Henricum, Henricus Willielmum, Willielmus Alexandrum primum, Alexander primus Alexandrum ſecundum, & ille Alexandrum tertium, qui obiit ſine prole, & David ſimiliter, qui obiit ſine prole, & Margaretam Reginam Norwegiæ, ex qua genita eſt quædam alia Margareta, quæ jam obiit ſine prole. Ex parte vero Domini Nicolai de Soules fuit ſimiliter pro jure ſuo propoſitum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Sicut Domino placuit Alexandro, qui ultimo obiit Rex ſcitus de regno Scotiæ, & omnibus illis qui de illo per rectam lineam exierunt, viam univerſo carnis ingreſſo, Jus ejuſdem reſortiebatur, & debuit reſortiri Margaretæ quondam uxori Alani le Huſſer, ſicut uxori & hæredi ejuſdem Regis Alexandri; Et de ipſa Margareta deſcendit Jus & deſcendere debuit Ermegardæ filiæ & hæredi prædicti Regis Alexandri, & de ipſa Ermegardia deſcendit Jus & deſcendere debuit Nicholao de Soules, qui nunc petit ſicut filius & hæres.

Domino Regi Angliæ illuſtri, ſuperiori et directo Domino regni Scotiæ, & coram auditoribus aſſignatis monſtrat Johannes Comyn, Quod ipſe habet melius jus ad regnum Scotiæ optinendum, & in eo ut Rex regnare quàm aliquis alius; ex eo quod quidam anteceſſor ſuus Dovenaldus filius Duncani filii Erici fuit ſeiſitus de regno Scotiæ in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo tempore pacis, & in eo ut Rex de jure regnavit, de ipſo Dovenaldo jus dicti regni Scotiæ, & debuit deſcendere cuidam Gothrik, ut filio & hæredi; & de Gothrik deſcendit jus & debuit deſcendere Hextildæ ut filio & hæredi; & de Hextilda deſcendit jus & debuit deſcendere cuidam Willielmo ut filio & hæredi; de Willielmo deſcendit jus & debuit deſcendere cuidam Ricardo ut filio & hæredi; de Richardo deſcendit jus & debuit deſcendere cuidam Johanni ut filio & hæredi; & de Willielmo (quia obiit ſine hærede de corpore ſuo) deſcendit jus & debuit iſti Johanni qui modo petit ut fratri & hæredi. Et quod tale ſit jus ſuum, paratus eſt verificare prout Dominus Rex & Conſilium ſuum, ac Curia ſua conſideraverit ſecundum leges & conſuetudines regni Scotiæ, & per Chronicas, & alio modo. Et ſupplicat, quod ſalvum ſit ſibi jus corrigendi, addendi & minuendi, & omne aliud quod ſibi bonum videbitur dicere, ſecundum leges & conſuetudines regni Scotiæ. Et non vult quod iſtud cedat in præjudicium Johanni de Balliolo ullo modo.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Johannis de Haſtinges fuit pro jure ſuo ſimiliter propoſitum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Cum regnum Scotiæ nuper vacaverit per mortem Regis Alexandri, qui ultimo obiit ſine hærede, qui modo remaneat de ſe, qui poſſit hæreditatem in Scotia clamare; per quod terra Scotiæ & omnes aliæ terræ, quæ fuerint dicti Regis Alexandri, hæreditarie ſpectant ad exitum trium filiarum Comitis David fratris Regis Willielmi avi prædicti Regis Alexandri, ut ad conſanguineas & unum hæredem, propinquiores de ſuo ſanguine, videlicet ad Margaretam, Iſabellam & Adam; & de prædicta Ada, exivit Johannes qui nunc petit regnum Scotiæ ut jus ſuum, tanquam hæres propinquior in gradu de ſanguine Regis Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, & Margaretæ filiæ Regis Norwegiæ in linea collaterali, ut de legitimo regali ſanguine Scotiæ.

Ex parte vero Nobilis viri Domini Roberti de Brus Domini vallis Anandiæ, & pro jure suo fuit similiter propositum, narratum & petitum hoc modo. Coram vobis Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Angliæ illustri, et superiori Domino regni Scotiæ, monstrat Robertus de Brus Dominus vallis Anandiæ, quod ipse est rectior & propinquior hæres regni Scotiæ cum pertinentiis; quia Rex Willielmus Rex Scotiæ antecessor suus frater Comitis David de Huntingdon fuit seisitus de ipso regno in Dominico suo ut de feodo & jure cum pertinentiis tempore pacis, tempore Henrici Regis Angliæ, qui vocabatur filius-Imperatricis, & temporibus Regum Ricardi & Johannis filiorum suorum. Et idem Willielmus regnavit Rex in Scotia tempore suo, & pacifice obiit Rex seisitus: De eodem Willielmo descendit regnum Scotiæ Alexandro filio suo, ut filio & hæredi, qui regnavit & obiit Rex seisitus: De eodem Alexandro descendit regnum Alexandro filio suo, ut filio & hæredi, qui regnavit & obiit Rex seisitus. Ille idem Alexander habuit duos filios, Alexandrum primogenitum, & David secundogenitum, & unam filiam quæ vocabatur Margareta, quæ fuit Regina Norwegiæ; qui filii obierunt vivente patre, & nullum statum expectaverunt regnandi in regnum Scotiæ. Illa Margareta habuit unam filiam de Rege Norwegiæ nomine Margaretam; cui prædictus Rex Alexander Rex Scotiæ avus suus in vita sua post mortem liberorum suorum, fecit probos homines terræ suæ jurare & affirmare per scriptum ad tenendum eam pro Domina regni Scotiæ, si decederet sine hærede de corpore suo. Quæ quidam Margareta obiit sine possessione corporali regni Scotiæ expectanda, & sine hærede de corpore suo. Post quam Margaretam, nihil remansit de exitu prædicti Regis Willielmi in linea descendente; per quod regnum Scotiæ cum pertinentiis debuiſſet per legem & juſtitiam reſortitum fuiſſe Comiti de Huntingdon, poſtnato fratri prædicti Regis Willielmi, ſi ſtatum regnandi in regno Scotiæ expectaſſet. Qui quidem David habuit tres filios, Henricum, David & Johannem, qui fuit Comes Ceſtriæ; qui omnes obierunt ſine hæredibus de corporibus ſuis, & ſine ſtatu regnandi in regno Scotiæ expectando. Ille idem David habuit etiam quatuor filias, Matildem quæ obiit ſine hærede de corpore ſuo, Margaretam, Iſabellam, & Adam; de Iſabella exivit Robertus de Brus, qui modo eſt, qui petit regnum Scotiæ; propter quod idem Robertus dicit, quod regnum Scotiæ debet reſortiri ad eum ſine medio per legem & juſtitiam ut propinquiori in gradu de ſanguine Regis Alexandri, qui ultimo obiit, & Margaretæ filiæ Regis Norwegiæ ſupradictæ in linea collaterali, ut de ſanguine regali Scotiæ legitimo. Quod quidem regnum Scotiæ cum pertinentiis dictus Robertus de Brus clamat tenere libere in libertate regni de vobis Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Angl. et de Corona Angliæ hæreditarie imperpetuum. Et monſtrat vobis, quod Rex Alexander filius Regis Willielmi prædicti deſperans de hærede de corpore ſuo tenuit dictum Robertum rectum hæredem ſuum, ſi ipſe decederet ſine alio hærede de ſuo corpore habendo. Et pro tali diffinivit ex aſſenſu proborum hominum de regno ſuo, & pro tali ipſum pronunciavit coram eis, de quibus plures adhuc ſunt ſuperſtites, qui de hoc teſtimonium poterunt perhibere. Et Rex etiam Alexander, qui ultimo obiit, tenuit ipſum pro tali, & id pluribus ſpecialibus ſuis dedit intelligi, ſi exitus de ipſo deficeret. Et præterea omnes probi homines de Scotia ſunt jurati propinquiori de ſanguine Regis Alexandri, qui ultimo obiit, qui de jure hæreditare debebit, ſi dicta Margareta filia Regis Norwegiæ ſine hærede de corpore ſuo obiret. Unde ſupplicat Dominationi veſtræ, quod ſecundum formam petitionis ſuæ ſibi velitis plenam juſtitiam exhibere, ſicut ad veſtram pertinet dignitatem. Salvo ſibi jure in omnibus addendi, mutandi & diminuendi ſecundum quod attendet ſuo protectui convenire. An. 20 E. 1.

An. 20 E. I. ſto Patribus Dominis Antonio Dunolm. Roberto Bathon. & Wellen. Willielmo Elien. Willielmo Sancti Andreæ, Roberto Glaſcuen. & Henr. Dei gratia Aberdon. Epiſcopis, & Nobilibus viris Dominis Amadeo Subaudiæ, Henrico Lincoln. Johanne de Boughan & Dovenando de Mar Comitibus, ac Magiſtro Johanne Erturi de Cadomo publico apoſtolica authoritate Notario, cum aliis tam Eccleſiarum Prelatis utriuſque regni, quam Comitibus, Baronibus & Militibus, & aliis popularibus in multitudine copioſâ.

Anno à Nativitate 1292. Indictione ſexta, menſis Octobris die quintodecimo, in craſtino videlicet Sancti Edwardi Regis & Confeſſoris, exiſtente ſereniſſimo Principe & Domino, Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Rege Angliæ illuſtri, ſuperiozi et directo Domino regni Scotiæ apud Berewicum ſuper Twedam, et Parliamentum ſuum ibidem indictum incipiente, comparuerunt coram ipſo Nobiles viri omnes et ſinguli regnum Scotiæ vendicantes, & etiam utriuſque regni Nobiles, & Prelati, ac Auditores prælibati: nominati, electi & aſſignati quæſivit idem Dominus Rex in primis palàm & publicè, ſicut aliàs in ultimo ſuo Parliamento ibidem fecerat, ab omnibus utriuſque regni Nobilibus & Prelatis auditoribus memoratis, & aliis de Conſilio ſuo ſapientibus & diſcretis, per quas leges ſive conſuetudines ſit in prædicto negotio ad judicium procedendum? Et, an in caſu in quo certæ leges non reperiuntur vel conſuetudines, aut etiam diverſæ et Scotiæ regnis, qualiter ſit judicandum? Et ſi de dicto regno Scotiæ ſit aliter judicandum, quam de Comitatibus, Baroniis, et aliis Tenuris? Reſponderunt una voce, nullo contradicente vel reclamante, concorditer, Quod per Leges et Conſuetudines regni illius qui præſt, ſi certæ reperiantur, in hoc caſu judicare poteſt et debet; Et ſi in caſu hujuſmodi leges certæ et Conſuetudines non reperiuntur; Idem Dominus Rex de Conſilio Nobilium et Prelatorum, et aliorum Procerum et Magnatum regni ſui poteſt et debet condere novam legem. Dixerunt etiam, quod de prædicto regno quoad jus ſuccedendi, eſt judicandum, et ad judicium procedendum, ſicut de Comitatibus, Baroniis et aliis Tenuris impartibilibus. Quibus Reſponſionibus auditis & intellectis, queſivit Dominus Rex à prædictis Nobilibus viris Domino Roberto de Brus, & Johanne de Balliolo, ſi vellent quicquid aliud pro juris ſui declaratione, quam propoſuerunt, proponere, dicere vel oſtendere? Ipſis vero reſpondentibus, Quod ſicut præcepit & injunxit auditoribus memoratis, quod locum quo prius adirent, & prædictos Robertum & Johannem de die in diem in omnibus & ſingulis, quæ dicere ſeu proponere vellent, benignè audirent, ſibique eorum rationes oſtenſiones & jura præhabita diſcuſſione diligenti fideliter referrent. Coram quibus auditoribus in Eccleſia fratrum prædicatorum de Berewico deſerta, prafati Nobiles, Robertus & Johannes, una cum aliis petentibus ad ipſius Domini Regis præceptum conſtituti. Dictus Dominus Robertus de Brus ad ea quæ in petitione ſua ſupraſcripta proponebantur adjecit dicendo, ratiocinando, & narrando; Quod quæſtio ſuper jure regnandi, habet terminari & judicari per Jus naturale per quod Reges regnant, & non per leges & conſuetudines inter ſubditos uſitatas; per quod quidem Jus naturale proximior in ſanguine linea collaterali, melius Jus habet regnandi. Dicebat etiam, quod Lex & Conſuetudo quæ ſunt inter Tenentes & Subditos, Superiorem ligare non poſſunt, præcipuè Regem ſuum. Unde dixit, quod licet in hæreditatibus partibilibus ſecundum leges & conſuetudines inter ſubditos obſervatas primogenita aliquam habeant Prærogativam, in regno tamen impartibili, ubi proximorum in ſanguine regali legitimus tempore vacationis regni inventus ſecundum Jus naturale eſt præferendus, primogenita nullam habet nec habere debet prærogativam. Dixit etiam, quod Conſuetudo ſuccedendi in regnum Scotiæ plenè facit pro eo; quia uſitatum eſt in Scotia, quod frater Regis præcedentis præferendus eſt ejus filio in ſucceſſione regni Scotiæ, ratione proximitatis in gradu. Et ad hoc quædam antiqua produxit exempla; videlicet, quod quidam Dovenaldus frater Kineth mach Alpin regnavit immediate poſt fratrem ſuum, excluſo Conſtantino primogenito prædicti Kineth; & hoc ratione propinquitatis ſanguinis ipſius Alpini, & poſt prædictum Dovenaldum regnavit Conſtantinus primogenitus ipſius Kineth mac Alpin. Et poſt eum regnavit Eth. frater ejus ſenior; excluſo Dovenaldo filio prædicti Conſtantini: De quibus Conſtantino & Eth. fratribus & filiis prædicti Kineth mac Alpin deſcenderunt omnes Reges, qui poſtea regnaverunt in Scotia uſque modò, & ſemper ſicut erant propinquiores in gradu regnabant quilibet poſt alium uſque ad tempus Regis Malcolmi viri ſanctæ

Margaritæ

Margaritæ Reginæ. Et adhuc poſt prædictum Malcolmum, quidam frater ejus regnavit, excluſo filio ejuſdem Malcolmi: Et adduxit ulterius ſimiliter idem Dominus Robertus quædam alia exempla de conſimilibus ſucceſſionibus in quibuſdam terris aliis et regionibus, utpote de Comitatu Sabaudiæ & regno Yſpaniæ. Dixit etiam, quod mulier regnare non debet, quia officium regiminis exercere non poteſt; et tempore quo prædictum regnum vacabit per mortem Regis Alexandri ultimi Regis Scotiæ fuit Dervorgulda mater prædicti Johannis de Balliolo ſuperſtes, quæ ratione prædicta regnare non potuit nec debuit. Et ſic Jus ipſius regni prædicto Roberto tanquam Maſculo, & in æquali gradu cum prædicta Dervorgulda exiſtenti ſine medio debet reſortire propter inſufficientiam dictæ Dervorgulda quia Mulier. Unde petit idem Robertus, quod habito reſpectu ad leges Regales, per quas Reges regnant et regnare debent, et etiam ad exempla per ipſum producta; Quod dictus Dominus Rex jus ſuum velit declarare, et ſibi Juſtitiam exhibere. An. 20 E. 1.

Ad hæc ſtatim ex parte Nobilis viri Domini Johannis de Balliolo reſpondebatur hoc modo; Quod dictum regnum Scotiæ non poteſt nec debet eidem Roberto de Brus quovis modo de jure adjudicari; proeo, quod ubi prædictus Robertus in petitione ſua petit regnum Scotiæ cum pertinenciis ſuis, ut rectior & proximior hæres ipſius regis, eo quod Willielmus Rex Scotiæ Anteceſſor ejus frater David Comitis Huntingdon. fuit ſeiſitus de prædicto regno Scotiæ in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo, & de jure tempore pacis, & tempore Regis Henrici primi Domini Regis Angliæ, qui nunc eſt, & de ipſo Willielmo deſcendit jus dicti regni cuidam Alexandro ut filio & hæredi qui regnavit & obiit inde ſeiſitus. Et de ipſo Alexandro deſcendit Jus ejuſdem regni cuidam Alexandro *ut filio et hæredi qui ſimiliter regnavit et obiit inde ſeiſitus. Et quod præterea quidam Alexander pater prædicti Regis Alexandri qui ultimo obiit, recognovit coram Baronibus ſuis ipſum Robertum pro proximiori hærede ſuo, ſi ipſum decedere contingeret ſine hærede de corpore ſuo; Et quod illud idem dictus Alexander Rex qui ultimo obiit recognovit, ſi abſque hærede de corpore ſuo decederet, ſciente Dervorgulda matre prædicti Domini Johannis de Balliolo & non contradicente; quod idem Robertus in petitione ſua prædicta omiſſionem fecit in ea parte ſuæ petitionis, ubi dicit, quod Jus regni prædicti debuiſſet reſortiri David fratri Regis Willielmi per mortem prædictæ Margaretæ de Norwegia, nullam faciendo mentionem de Margareta, Marjoria, & Iſabella filiabus prædicti Regis Willielmi fratris prædicti David, deſicut nullum Jus potuit nec debuit reſortiri ad prædictum David fratrem prædicti Regis Willielmi, niſi per medium prædictarum filiarum ipſius Regis Willielmi. Et quoad hoc quod idem Robertus dicit, quod jus prædicti regni debuit ad ipſum reſortiri ſine medio; idem Johannes dicit prius, quod nullum jus poteſt deſcendere vel reſortiri alicui, niſi per medium rectæ lineæ deſcendentis vel aſcendentis, ſecundum leges & conſuetudines utriuſque regni, per quod dicit, quod omiſſis aliquo vel aliquibus de recta linea aſcendente vel deſcendente, aliquid jus ad eum non potuit reſortiri. Et quoad hoc, quod idem Robertus dicit, quod eſt proximior in gradu, in eo, quod dicit, quod prædictus David habuit tres filias Margaretam, Iſabellam, & Adam, de qua Margareta exivit Dervorgulda, & de ipſa Johannes, qui nunc eſt, Et de prædicta Iſabella Robertus qui nunc petit; & ſic proximior in gradu; per quod dicit ſe habere melius Jus ad regnum prædictum ſecundum conſuetudinem quorundam regnorum. Dicit idem Johannes, quod quicquid dicat de aliis regnis & regionibus, vel de ipſorum conſuetudinibus; in regnis tamen Angliæ & Scotiæ, in quibus Reges

From which 4. Records I ſhall obſerve: 1. That in that age all the Debts, Goods and Chattels of Biſhops in Scotland dying inteſtate, by the Cuſtome of that Realm, were ſeiſed into the Kings hands, as belonging to him; and that this Biſhops Debts, Goods and Chattels, dying inteſtate, were by vertue of that cuſtome then ſeiſed into the hands of King Edward, as Superior Lord of Scotland, during the Interr.

Interregnum. 2ly. That the King alone, not the Archbiſhop of St. Andrews, Pope, or other Ordinary whatſoever, had the ſole right, power, Juriſdiction to diſpoſe of them, to whom and to what uſes he pleaſed. 3ly. That the Soveraign care, welfare of the Subjects ſouls, as well Biſhops and Clergymens as Laicks, belonged to the Kings of England and Scotland in that age, after their deaths, as well as during their lives, not to Biſhops; Therefore by conſequence the adminiſtration and diſtribution of their Goods and Chattels for that end, if they dyed Inteſtate. 4ly. That the King, not of right or cuſtome, but out of his eſpecial grace, and for the good ſervice done to him by this Biſhop (as his Chancellor in Scotland) in his life time, granted all the Debts, Monies, Goods, Chattels of this Biſhop, belonging to him by the Cuſtome of Scotland, to the Prior of Gaſtingham, and Adam of St. Edmunds the deceaſed Biſhops brother, to be diſtributed for his ſoul, by the view and teſtimony of any perſon whom the Biſhop of Durham ſhould depute in his place for that purpoſe, to joyn with them in the diſtribution of them; not as a Biſhop or Ordinary, (he having no Epiſcopal Juriſdiction then in Scotland, nor yet in England out of his Dioceſſe, where the Biſhop had monies in foreign Merchants hands) but as the Kings Lieutenant in Scotland, which then he was. 5ly. That the Biſhop appointed William of Dunfres, then Chancellor of Scotland, as his Deputy for this end; whom the King enjoyned to iſſue out Writs under the Seal of Scotland to thoſe who had the Biſhops Goods and Chattels in their hands, immediately to deliver them to the ſaid Prior and Adam, and to compell them thereunto, to be diſtributed as aforeſaid for the good of his ſoul. A clear evidence that the King, or ſuch as he appointed, not Biſhops or Ordinaries, had the ſole power of diſtributing Inteſtates Goods to pious uſes, for the (pretended) good of their ſouls. That Biſhops and other Ordinaries in that age, had no legal Juriſdiction to diſpoſe or diſtribute the Goods and Chattels of Inteſtate perſons, but meerly by torcious Uſurpation, in Scotland, England, or France, ſeems moſt apparent to me, by comparing the premiſes with the memorable Articles againſt the Biſhops, Clergy of France, and their Officials Innovations, Encroachments, Uſurpations upon the Crown, Dignity, Juriſdiction of the King of France, and his Subjects Liberties, to their intollerable grievance, exhibited by the Lord Peter de Cugneriis, the Barons and Laity of France, in the Parliament held at Paris under King Philip the 4th. Anno Domini 1309. printed in Engliſh by * Mr. John Fox (in the life of King Edward the 1.) out of Petrus Bertrandus, Adverſus Dominum Petrum de Cugneriis, ſuper facto Prælatorum Eccleſiæ Gallicanæ, Pariſiis 1495. Articles 63, 64. Item, they will make Inventories of their goods which die Inteſtate, or without making of Will, and will have the poſſeſſion of their goods as well moveable as immoveable in their own hands, to diſtribute to the heirs, or to whom they liſt. Item, the execution alſo of Teſtaments they take into their own hands, taking Inventories of dead mens goods, and keeping and diſpoſing them to the heirs after their pleaſure; and they have Officials properly deputed for the execution thereof. And Artic. 23. In like manner they will determine the matters of Pupills, applying their goods when they die, as they do the goods of them that die Inteſtate, to their own uſe, the cognition whereof belongeth to the King himſelf; becauſe theſe kinde of perſons with their goods are Wards to the King, and under his protection. Which as it will help to explain the true end of making the Statute of 13 E. 1. c. 19. againſt * Sir Edward Cookes erronious gloſſe thereon; ſo it evidently demonſtrates, that if Biſhops and other Ordinaries ſeiſing, diſtributing, or adminiſtring the goods of Inteſtate perſons, and Pupills under age, (who could make no Wills) were thus publickly Articled againſt in this French Parliament, as an unſufferable Innovation, Uſurpation, Grievance in the Realm of France, it was likewiſe then reputed no other in our Biſhops, Ordinaries in England, and no legal right antiently conferred on them by the King and Lords in Parliament, as they erroniouſly * pretended. This will further appear by theſe two Records relating to Scotland, the one concerning the Executors of the laſt Will and Teſtament of Alexander King of Scots, to iſſue out Writs for the ſpeedy recovery of the Debts due unto him; the other authorizing and enabling the Biſhop of Glaſcow to deviſe and diſpoſe of his moveable Goods by his Teſtament, ſo as it turned not to the prejudice or loſſe of the King himſelf, or the next ſucceeding King in Scotland.

Sciendum eſt, quod Dominus Rex prius mandavit Domino Regi* Scotiæ per literas ſuas, quod eſſet coram eo in Craſtino Sanctæ Trinitatis proximo præterito, ubicunque, &c. prædicto Magdulpho *ſuper præmiſſis reſponſurus tunc. Et ſciendum, quod quando aliquis querens vel appellans ſuper falſo Judicio de re aliqua in Curia Regis Scotiæ ſibi facto conqueratur ſuperiori Domino, vel appellet, mandabitur in hoc caſu Regi Scotiæ, quod Recordum et proceſſum loquelæ in Curia ſua inde habitæ coram Domino ſuperiori venire faciat certo die ubicunque, &c. Et ſi contingat quod ad Dominum Regem Angliæ, tanquam ad ſuperiorem Dominum regni Scotiæ per aliquem perveniat appellatio, ſive querimonia de re aliqua per Regem Scotiæ, ſive per Curiam ſuam eidem conquerenti injuſte (ut aſſeruerit) illata; propter quod Dominus Rex ſuperior mandaverit Regi Scotiæ, quod ad Curiam ipſius Domini ſuperioris, ad diem certum, inde veniat reſponſurus. Ad quem diem ſi Rex Scotiæ a caſu contigerit abſentare, et in proximo die ſequenti ſibi per ſuperiorem Dominum præfixo comparuerit, et contumaciam diei præcedentis purgare non poſſit: Concordatum eſt, quod idem Rex Scotiæ amittat cognitionem querelæ principalis, et inſuper ſit in miſericordia Domini ſuperioris, ad voluntatem ipſius Domini. Et hoc idem fiat, ſi non venerit ſecundo die contumaciam primæ diei purgaturus. Cumque etiam idem Dominus Rex Scotiæ in Curia ſuperioris Domini juri pariturus venerit, contumaciam ſuam in caſu prædicto purgare non potens, propter quod cognitio querelæ principalis Domino Regi debeat remanere; ac Rex Scotiæ ſibi impoſita ſuper principali negaverit, vel tanquam indefenſus teneatur, unde oportuerit habere verificationem; Concordatum eſt, quod verificatio admittatur, et fiat per inquiſitionem Patriæ, per ſacramentum proborum et legalium hominum de viſneto, ubi facta fuerit tranſgreſſio, vel alio modo, ſecundum conſuetudinem Curiæ Anglicanæ, aut per legitima documenta. Ita quod idem Rex Scotiæ nullum dominium ſive juriſdictionem aliqualem in perſonis, et tenementis eorundem appellantium aut querentium tota vita utriuſque ipſorum Regum, et appellantium et conquerentium obtineat. Hoc idem obſervandum eſt, viz. Quod omnes et ſinguli conquerentes ſive appellantes, qui verſus Regem Scotiæ de qualicunque aut quacunque injuria, per ipſum Regem aut Curiam ſuam eis illata, juſtitiam in Curia Anglicana ſuerunt aſſecuti, debent ſe de homagio conſ. et ſervitiis ſuis Domino Regi Angliæ, tanquam ſuperiori Domino attornare; Et eodem modo, quo prius inde Regi Scotiæ fuerunt reſpondentes, eidem Domino ſuperiori remaneant omnibus intendentes, ſicut ſuperius eſt notatum. Et ſi Rex Scotiæ ſuper impriſonamento alicui per ipſum Regem injuſte facto, de quo facere noluerit vel non fecerit Juſtitiam conquerenti, et querimonia ſive appellatio ad ſuperiorem Dominum perbenerit, ſuper quo idem Rex Scotiæ in Curia Angliæ convictus fuerit, querens aut appellans in hoc caſu recuperet dampna ſua; et miſericordia ſeu pœna quoad Regem Scotiæ verſus Dominum ſuperiorem ſit arbitraria, ſicut ſupra.

Et ſciendum eſt, quod in omnibus præmiſſis habeant conquerentes ſive appellantes Protectionem Domini Regis Angliæ, viz. quendam Cuſtodem, qui eos in perſonis propriis, et familia ſua, terris et tenementis, redditibus et rebus aliis quibuſcunque infra Scotiam ad ipſos ſpectantibus, pendente appellatione ſive querimonia in Curia Anglicana conſervet, defendat et protegat, ſi hoc petant: Quibus, ſi infra hujuſmodi cuſtodiam aliquid duritiæ vel injuriæ in læſionem protectionis prædictæ fuerit illatum, idem Rex Scotiæ et hæredes ſui homagia, et dominium hujuſmodi conquerentium ſive appellantium amittant, ac Regi Angliæ, tanquam Domino Superiori et hæredibus ſuis remaneant imperpetuum. Et nichilominus Rex Scotiæ in pœna vel miſericordia, ſicut ſupra. The Writ of Summons to the King of Scots.

In the Parchment Book and Collection of the Pleas and Petitions in the Parliament of 21 E. 1. in the Tower, I finde ſundry memorable Judgements and Anſwers given in maintenance of the Kings Soveraign Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, againſt divers encroachments on it. The firſt is upon the petition of John de Waren, who by vertue of the Kings Charter to him of Lands in Wales, claimed the cuſtody of the Temporalties of the Biſhoprick of St. Aſaph, within his Seigneury of Bromesfeld, during the vacancy.

* Placita Parl. An. 21 E. 1. nu. 5. Ryley p. 119. De Com. Waren. petente cuſtodiam terrarum de Epiſcopatu de S. Aſaph ſpectantium, infra dominium de Bromesfeld exiſtentium.

* Johannes de Waren. Comes Surrey & Suſſex. ſupplicavit Domino Regi, quod cum idem Dominus Rex terras de Bromesfeld cum omnibus ſuis pertinentiis eidem Comiti conceſſiſſet & dediſſet, tenend. ſibi & hæredibus ſuis, cum omnibus juribus et libertatibus ad eaſdem terras pertinentibus, adeo libere et quiete ſicut Domini terrarum illarum terras illas, antequam conqueſtebantur per ipſum Regem, tenuerunt. Et cum Domini illi ante conqueſtum terrarum illarum omni tempore vacationis Epiſcopatus de Sancto Aſaph. cuſtodiam omnium terrarum et tenementorum infra Dominium de Bromesfeld exiſtentium, et ad prædictum Epiſcopatum pertinentium habuerunt et habere conſueverunt. Et cum ſedes dicti Epiſcopatus jam ſit vacans, propter quod cuſtodia terrarum et tenement. infra Dominium de Bromesfeld exiſtentium, et ad Epiſcopatum prædictum ſpectantium, durante vacatione prædicta ad ipſum Comitem pertinet, prout ad alios Dominos de Bromesfeld hactenus pertinuit: quod Dominus Rex cuſtodiam earundem terrarum et tenement. infra Dominium ſuum prædictum exiſtentium, et ad Epiſcopatum prædictum ſpectantium, et quæ terræ et tenementa per mortem ultimi Epiſcopi loci prædicti ſeiſita fuerunt in manum Domini Regis, ſibi velit reddere, &c. Ad quam ſupplicationem per ipſum Dominum Regem et Conſilium ſuum unanimiter eſt concordatum et reſponſum; Quod cuſtodiæ omnium terrarum et tenement. ubicunque exiſtentium, ad Epiſcopatus antiquos infra regnum ſuum exiſtentium, tempore vacationis eorundem Epiſcopatuum ad ipſum Dominum Regem ratione Coronæ et Dignitatis ſuæ pertinent, ut de jure Coronæ ſuæ, et non ad alium, licet licet terræ aut tenementa aliqua eiſdem Epiſcopatibus pertinentia infra libertatem ſeu dominium aliorum fuerunt ſeu extra; et licet Domini terrarum de Bromesfeld aliquo tempore vacationis Epiſcopatus prædict. cuſtodiam terrarum et tenement. ad prædictum Epiſcopatum pertinentium, et infra dominium ſuum exiſtentium uſurpaverunt, et attraxerunt temporibus aliquorum Principum Wall. ſuper ipſos Principes; Dominus Rex nunc per Conqueſtum ſuum terras de Bromesfeld, ſimul cum aliis terris et tenement. quæ Dei auxilio conqueſtus eſt in partibus prædict. et quæ Principes Wall. tenuerunt, reperquiſivit, et Coronæ ſuæ annexit adeo integre et plenarie, cum omnibus ſuis juribus et libertatibus, ſicut terræ et tenementa illa Coronæ Angliæ annexa fuerunt, antequam in manus Principum Wall. devenerunt, et ſicut cætera tenementa in regno ubicunque ad quoſcunque Epiſcopatus pertinentia de eadem Corona tenentur; et de jure Coronæ et etiam de communi conſuetudine regni, cuſtodia omnium terrarum et tenement. quorumcunque Epiſcopatuum in regno exiſtentium tempore vacationis eorundem Epiſcopatuum, ad ipſum Dominum Regem, et non ad alium in regno pertineat. Et licet Dominus Rex concederet & daret prædicto Comiti terras de Bromesfeld cum omnibus ſuis pertinentiis; non tamen per hoc intelligendum eſt, quod Dominus Rex dedit et libertates et jura ad Coronam et Dignitatem ſuam pertinentia, et quæ de Corona non poterunt ſeperari; veluti cuſtodiam Epiſcopatuum ſeu terr. et tenement. ad Epiſcopatum pertinentium. Et ſimiliter quia Comiti Glouc. & aliis clamantibus nuper cuſtodiam quarundam terrarum ad Epiſcopatum Landaff. exiſtentium, & infra Dominium ſuum exiſtentium tempore vacationis eiuſdem Epiſcopatus ad ſe pertinere, de communi conſilio reſponſum fuit; Quod in cuſtodia Epiſcopatuum tempore vacationis eorundem, ſeu terrarum et tenement. aliorum ad eoſdem Epiſcopatus pertinentium, licet infra Dominium ſuum exiſtentium, nichil clamare potuerunt propter privilegium Regium et Coronæ Dignitatem ad quam ſpecialiter pertinet Epiſcopatuum vacantium cuſtodia, dictum eſt prædicto Comiti Waren. quod ad iſtam ſuam Petitionem nichil ſibi fiet plus quam aliis fiebat, quia de ſimilibus ſimile eſt judicium. An obſervable Judgement in ratification of the Kings Prerogative over all Biſhopricks both in Wales and England during their vacancies, incommunicable to any Subjects. An. 21 E. 1.

The ſecond Judgement is that upon the Petition of the Earl of Glouceſter. * Humfridus de Bohun Comes Heref. & Eſſex. ſupplicavit Domino Regi, quod cum bonæ memoriæ Thomas Epiſcopus Menevenſis ultimo defunctus, quadam Maneria de eodem Comite & infra libertatem ſuam de Breghenough tempore ſuo teneret, quorum cuſtodia ad ipſum Comitem durante vacatione ſedis Epiſcopatus prædicti, ratione tenuræ prædict. infra Dominium ſuum pertineat, & quorum cuſtodiam Ballivi ipſius Domini Regis in partibus illis in manum ſuam ſeiſiverunt & tenent, in exhæredationem ipſius Comitis, quod Dominus Rex cuſtodiam eorundem Maneriorum ſibi reddere velit. Propter quod Dominus Rex habito ſuper hoc tractatu diligenti cum Conſilio ſuo, per teſtimonium fidedignorum tàm de Conſilio ſuo, quàm aliorum, intellexit, quod prædict. Epiſcopus dum vixit omnino deadvocavit tam Maneria quæ ſunt de Epiſcopatu prædict. infra prædict. libertatem, quàm alibi ſub quocunque de alio quocunque tenere, præterquam de Domino Rege et hæredibus ſuis ut de Corona. Et ſi Dominus Rex cuſtodiam Maneriorum illorum quæ ſunt infra libertatem prædict. Comitis prædict. et modo liberaret, ſic Eccleſiam prædictam quam idem Dominus Rex ſede vacante in omnibus tenetur conſervare illæſam, et jura et libertates ſuas contra quoſcunque defendere, in ſervitutem redigeret; maxime cum prælatus Epiſcopus dum vixit Maneria illa de eodem Comite tenere deadvocavit. Et ſimiliter, cum cuſtodia Epiſcopatuum, Maneriorum et terrarum, et aliorum quorumcunque ad Epiſcopatus ſpectantium, ut de jure Coronæ, et ratione Prærogativæ et Dignitatis ſuæ ad ipſum Dominum Regem et non ad alium pertineat; Concordatum eſt, quod prædict. Comes quoad iſtam ſuam ſupplicationem nichil capiat, &c.

The third, is the ſentence given againſt the Biſhop of London, who preſuming in the preſence of the Juſtices of the Kings Foreſt, and other Nobles at Chelmesford in Eſſex, to excommunicate John de Peuleſdon, and thoſe who kept company with him, and to take away a Writing under the Seal of the Official of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, then produced by him in open Court to juſtifie himſelf, and declare the Biſhops ſentence void; who refuſed to reſtore it to him, though frequently required

Curiæ et fidelibus Domini Regis ibidem exiſtentibus, quod ſententia prædicti Epiſcopi ipſum in nullo ligavit; quam quidem literam præfatus Epiſcopus ſtatim de manu prædicti capitalis Clerici cepit et aſportavit contra voluntatem ipſius Johannis, licet ſæpius per ipſum Johannem ex parte Domini Regis inhibitum fuiſſet, ne prædicto Epiſcopo litera prædicta liberaretur, et etiam contra voluntatem prædict capitalis Clerici, cum idem Clericus ipſum Epiſcopum ſæpius rogavit, quod prædictam literam ei tradere et rehabere faceret: in contemptum Domini Regis et Curiæ ſuæ prædict. manifeſtum, et etiam ad dampnum ipſius Johannis non modicum et gravamen, &c.

Et prædictus Epiſcopus venit & defendit, quicquid eſt in contemptum Domini Regis et Curiæ ſuæ prædict. Et bene cognoſcit, quod prædictus Johannes *prædict. die in præſentia Juſtic. prædict. quandam literam porrexit & tradidit capitali Clerico Juſtic. legendam: ſed dicit, quod litera illa lecta non fuit. Et Dominus Rex penes ſe ipſum poenam illam retinet infligendam. Et ſimiliter, Dominus Rex vult et præcipit, quod prædicta litera prædicto Magiſtro Johanni liberetur. Et quod quicquid per prædictum Epiſcopum aut ſuos in dampnum et præjudicium prædicti Magiſtri Johannis factum fuerit aut attemptatum contra tenorem literæ prædict. in aliquo, a tempore quo eadem litera in manu prædicti Epiſcopi (ut prædictum eſt) devenit, in quo prædicta litera eidem Johanni prodeſſe potuit aut valuiſſe, ſi litera illa penes ipſum Johannem remanſiſſet, omnino adnulletur. Et hoc per Dominum Regem eidem Epiſcopo dictum eſt, &c. Poſtea Dominus Rex ad Parliamentum ſuum poſt feſtum Sancti Michaelis eodem anno, ipſi Epiſcopo prædict. tranſgreſſ. de gratia ſua ſpeciali totaliter remiſit. Ideo ipſe inde quietus & habeat literam acquietanciæ. By this it is apparent, how contemptuous this Biſhop in that age was to the King, his Temporal Courts and Judges, and how inſolent, oppreſſive, vexatious to the Kings people. An. 20 E. 1.

The fourth is this memorable caſe, upon the Petition of Richard de Glouceſter, for violating the priviledge of the Kings Palace, Court, by ſerving a Biſhops citation on him therein, againſt the priviledge and dignity of his Crown, &c.

* Richardus de Glouceſtr. Perſona Eccleſiæ de Chepingnorton, qui ſequitur pro Rege, queritur Domino Regi de hoc, quod cum nulli liceat præterquam Seneſcallo et Mareſcall. dicti Domini Regis aliquem in Palatio ſeu in Hoſpitio Domini Regis ſummonire vel attachiare ad reſpondend. alicui de Placito aliquo, & idem Richardus ad Curiam Domini Regis nuper acceſſiſſet, ad remedium ſibi impetrandum ſuper quadam enormi tranſgreſſione ſibi facta per Magiſtrum Willielmum de Chiringtон Clericum de Canc. ipſius Domini Regis, & alios Miniſtros Domini Regis, præfatus Magiſter Willielmus die Jovis prox. poſt feſtum Tranſlationis beati Thomæ Martyris prox. præteritum apud Cantuar. infra Hoſpitium Domini Regis ibidem, viz. in Capitulo Prioratus Sanctæ Trinitatis, eidem Richardo quandam literam citatoriam in præſentia plurimorum fidedignorum de Conſilio Domini Regis ibidem tunc exiſtentium porrexit, et ipſum citabit, quod compareret certis die et loco coram Offic. de Arcubus London. ad reſpondend. ſuper quibuſdam in eadem litera contentis, in contemptum Domini Regis mille Marcarum, et contra privilegium et dignitatem Coronæ ſuæ, &c. Et Magiſter Willielmus venit & defendit quicquid eſt in Contemptum Domini Regis, et contra privilegium et dignitatem Coronæ ſuæ: Et benè cognoſcit, quod ipſe prædicto die et Anno, et loco quandam literam per Offic. prædict. prædicto Richardo directam detulit et ei liberavit, ſed quod hoc in contemptum Domini Regis non fecit, nec aliquid facere intellexit, quod in aliquo cedere poſſet contra privilegium et dignitatem Coronæ, paratus eſt ſe acquietare qualitercunque Domino Regi placuerit, Supplicat etiam Domino Regi, quod ad hoc ſi placet habere velit reſpectum: Quod prædictus Richardus non eſt de Conſilio, de Familia, aut Hoſpitio Domini Regis, per quod tali privilegio gaudere poſſet, licet in Hoſpitio Domini Regis fuiſſet ut extraneus, nec per ipſum Regem aut aliquem de ſuis vocatus. Et etiam ad hoc, quod prædict. Offic. eſt Miniſter prædict. Eccleſiæ Sanctæ Trin. et de Eccleſia illa omnem ſuam habet authoritatem, nec prædict. Magiſter Willielmus intendit, quod fuit intentionis Domini Regis, quod libertas Eccleſiæ prædictæ in aliquo minueretur per ejus præſentiam. Per quod videtur ipſi Magiſtro Willielmo, quod licet aliqua citatio prædict. Richardo aut alii facta fuiſſet in prædicta Eccleſia, bene et licite poſſet fieri, cum Eccleſia illa potius libertate ſua in ſe ipſam gaudere debeat quam in locis remotioribus. Poſtea per tranſcriptum prædictæ literæ quam prædictus Magiſter Willielmus detulit prædicto Richardo manifeſtè patet, quod quam citò idem Richardus literam illam admiſiſſet, quod incontinenti citaretur. Et quia prædictus Magiſter Willielmus cognovit, quod prædictam literam tradidit prædicto Richardo prædict. die et loco et infra hoſpitium Domini Regis, dictum eſt eidem Magiſtro Willielmo, quod non recedat a Curia, priuſquam Dominus Rex ſuper hoc ſuæ dixerit voluntatem ſuam.

By which Caſe, compared with that of the Prior of Trinity and Bogo de Clare [a] forfeited, it is apparent: Firſt, that the ſerving of any Biſhops or Officials citation [a] Here, p. 405, 406.

tion on any person, though not of the Kings Houshold, who resorts to the Kings Court to complain of injuries, and desire justice, not only in his own Royal palace, but whereever he resides in person with his Court, is an high contempt and offence against the Kings Crown and Dignity; even when and where there is no Parliament sitting, (as there was none at this time and place) as well as when and where a Parliament sits. Secondly, That Sir [b] Edward Cooke, and Mr. [c] Elsing were much mistaken, in the Case of the Prior of Trinity and Bogo de Clare, in asserting, that they were fined and sent to the Tower for breach of the Priviledge of Parliament, by serving a Citation on the Earl of Cornwall: when as their fine and imprisonment (as appears by that Record, and is more fully evidenced by this) was only for their contempt against the King, in serving a Citation within his Royal Palace, where no man ought to be cited, nor arrested for any cause by any Officer, but only by the Kings Steward or Marshall, as I have [d] elsewhere largely evidenced.

The Fifth and most memorable case in this Parliament, is that of John de Roman Archbishop of Yorke, for his high misdemeanor and usurpation upon the Kings Crown and Dignity, in presuming the * year before, to excommunicate Anthony Bek Bishop of Durham, whiles attending on the Kings person and service in the Northern parts, for his and his Servants imprisoning two of his Clerks for bringing a Citation to summon the Bishop to appear before him, and refusing to release them upon his Monitions and Interdicts, for which he was after long debate and consideration adjudged to be imprisoned, and forced to pay a Fine of 3000 Marks to the King, as this Record informs us.

In which memorable Caſe and Judgement, we may obſerve; Firſt, the Biſhop of Durhams and his Officers high contempts of the Archbiſhops Citations, Admonitions, Suſpenſions, Excommunications, and of the priviledge of his Clerks, whom they apprehended and detained in priſon notwithſtanding their Orders, for endeavouring to ſerve a Citation on the Biſhop. 2ly. The Archbiſhops high offence againſt the Kings Crown and Dignity, in preſuming to enforce the Biſhop and them to releaſe his impriſoned Clerks by his own Eccleſiaſtical Cenſures of Interdict & Excommunication, not by the Kings proceſſe and authority, according to the Law and Cuſtom of the Realm. 3ly. The Archbiſhops juſtification of this his uſurpation to the uttermoſt, and his demurrer to the Kings and Parliaments Juriſdiction to queſtion or judge him for it. 4ly. That for any Archbiſhop or Prelate to excommunicate any perſon in the Kings ſervice, or attending on his royal perſon by his command, and under his protection, or any other for Temporal affairs, is a very high contempt, offence againſt, and uſurpation upon the King, his Crown and Dignity, tending to the Kings and his heirs diſinheritting, by the unanimous reſolution of the King, and of all his Nobles, Barons, Judges, Counſil in this Parliament: which they adjudged to be puniſhed not only then, but in all ſucceeding ages, by impriſonment of the perſons of ſuch Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and others who ſhould be found guilty thereof; and alſo by great fines and ranſoms to the King. 5ly. That this Archbiſhop was then adjudged to be committed Priſoner to the Tower, notwithſtanding his Pall; and enforced to enter into a Recognisance with Sureties, to pay a fine of 4000 marks to the King, notwithſtanding his inſiſting on his Archiepiſcopal Priviledges, and the Nobles mediation on his behalf; a great ſum in that age; the Kings Solicitor declaring his Majeſty was damnified there by no leſs then 20000 pounds, which he muſt have paid, had not his ſubmiſſion and the Lords mediation prevented the penalties of the Judgement againſt him. An. 21 E. 1.

The ſixth and ſeventh are theſe two Judgements given againſt the Prior of Bridlington, and this Archbiſhop of York, in the ſame Parliament, who was ordered to appear before the King and his Counſil, to anſwer his fraud and offence againſt his Oath and Allegiance to the King, for buying a debt of 300 l. (owing by the Prior and Covent of Bridlington by bond to an exiled Jew of York, confiſcated to the King by the common baniſhment of the Jews out of England) after his exile at Paris, in his return from Rome; and enforcing this Prior by his Order in his Viſitation of the Monaſtery, to pay the 300 l. to one of his own Vallets as the Jews Attorney; for which miſdemeanors both the Prior and Archbiſhop had Judgement given againſt them by the King and his Counſil, as theſe Records inform us.

By which Record it is apparent: 1. That all the Jews were directly and profeſſedly baniſhed out of England by King Edward the 1. and his Parliament. 2ly. That all their Houſes, Debts, Goods and Chattels left in England after their exile, belonged of right to the King. 3ly. That this their baniſhment, and forfeiture of their Debts, Goods thereby, was publiſhed by the Kings Proclamation throughout the Realm, of which all men did or ought to take notice, being thereby required to diſcover all Debts, Goods and Chattels due unto them, without any concealment; cealment; yet * Sir Edward Cooke (who cites these two Records in his Commentary upon the Statute de Judaismo) confidently averres; The truth is, the Jews were not banished out of the Realm by Authority of Parliament, as some are of opinion, and as it is said in some of our Historians; but that their Usury was banished by that Act, and that was the cause that they banished themselves into Foreign Countries, that they might live by their Usury: Whereas these two Records no less then 8. times expresly record their banishment out of England, and above one hundred other Records, as well as all our Historians. An. 21 E. 1. * 2 Instit. p. 507, 508. 509.

These two Judgements against this Archbishop in Parliament, did so perplex and humble him, that he * dyed soon after on the 5. of March 1295. * See Thomas Stubbs Actus Pontif. Eborac. col. 1728.

8ly. In this Parliament it was resolved by the Kings Justices and Counsil, upon the Petition of the Prior of Bermondesey; 1. That the King by his Prerogative Royal shall present to all Vicaridges, Parsonages, and Benefices belonging to Religious Houses or Bishopricks, during their vacancies. 2ly. That an Abbots, Priors, or Bishops presentation of a Clerk to a Benefice in his life time, if he dye before the Clerks institution and induction, makes no plenarty against the King, but that he may and shall by his Prerogative present another Clerk thereto, as this Record resolves.

What a fray and murder happened this year, between the Arebbishop of Dublins and Bishop of Elies men, comming from the consecration of William Bishop of Bath and Wells; what numerous trains of Servants they then had, and how peremptorily the Bishop of Ely refused to deliver to the Kings Justices or Counsil the names of his Servants, Steward, or Marshal then with him, when they murdered one of the Archbishops Servants, in high contempt of the King and publick Justice, this Record in the Parliament of 21 E. 1. will inform us. * Placita Parl. After the decease of John Peckham Archbishop of Canterbury, Anno 1293. (promoted by the Popes Provision)  cum eligendi potestas Monachis Cantuarienshibus a Rege data esset, ex omnium votis & applausu Robertus Winchelse Archidiaconus Essexiæ Archiepiscopus electus est, summa doctrina, prudentia & agnitatis fama ubique notus atque conspicuus. Cumque Romam ad Cœlestinum Papam confirmandus atque sacrandus veniret, (by the Kings special license) Papam totamque Romanam Curiam in tantam prudentiæ doctrinæque suæ admirationem & stuporem traduxit, ut non cognovisse se in quocunque dicerent, tantam morum, animique magnitudinem, cum literis & prudentia conjunctam. Itaque eum in Cardinalium gregem cooptare Romæque secum retinere decreverint. Sed expositis multis causis necessariis, qui à Cantuariensi Ecclesiâ abesse non poterat, ægrè tandem obtinuit, ut sacratus in Angliam rediret. What a professed devoted servant he afterwards evidenced himself to the Pope and Church of Rome, but a vexatious opposite Rebel to his Soveraign Lord King Edward, (by whose special favour he was elected and confirmed Archbishop) will appear in its due Chronological series. I shall here only insert Matthew Parkers memorable passage in relation thereunto in the beginning of his Life, principally occasioned by the frequent fierce contests in that age between Popes, Popish Prelates and Kings, for Soveraign authority and Jurisdiction. † Sed omnis tum inter Pontifices atque Reges de Imperio magis atque dominatu, quam de Ecclesia et divini verbi præscripto gerendo fuit contentio. In qua cum acres dimicationes non armorum, sed dictarum et precationum essent concitatæ, Præsules insciitia verbi ipsi erat, ac cæcorum duces Papis adhærebant, et abjecta obedientia Regibus non parebant, quibus divino humanoque jure essent subjecti. Hanc illi contumaciam, constantiam, et Ecclesiæ libertatem tunc appellabant. Multique in ea pertinacia vitas aut fortunas amittebant, Martyres ac Confessores appellabant. Nec nisi multis tunc anteactis annis in hominum animis inveterabilset fallacia, ac multos, præsertim Præsules, a fide atque cultu, quem Regibus tribuere debebant, ad Papam abduxisset, satis bene et cum laude ab Archiepiscopis et

As this King was troubled in his time with both the Archbiſhops John Peckham and Robert Winchelſey, ſo it hapned to all other Kings for the moſt part, from the time of Lanfrancus, (that is from Pope Hildebrand) that every King in his time had ſome buſineſſe with that See; Kings of England being commonly troubled with the Archbiſhops of Canterbury; As William Rufus and Henry the 1. were troubled with Anſelmus; Henry the 2. with Thomas Becket; King Richard and all England with William Biſhop of Ely, the Popes Legate; King John with Stephen Langton; King Henry the 3. with Edmund Archbiſhop, called St. Edmund; this King Edward the 1. with John Peckham and Robert Winchelſey aforeſaid; and ſo other Kings after him with ſome Prelate or other. Whereby we give to underſtand, how and about what time the Church of Rome, which before time was ſubject to Kings and Princes, began firſt to take head above, and againſt Kings and Rulers, and ſo hath (by theſe his Inſtruments) kept it ever ſince. An. 21 E. 1.

I cannot finde that the King was forwards to reſtore the Temporalties of the Archbiſhoprick of Canterbury to this Archbiſhop, or of Landaf to John de Monemuth, thus intruded into it by the Popes and Archbiſhops authority againſt his prerogative, but detained them near 2. years after in his hands as vacant, receiving the profits, and preſenting to the benefices belonging to them, as appears by the Patent Rolls Annis 21 & 22 E. 1. they having no Writs of Reſtitution of the Temporalties till the 23. year of his Regn, Anno 1296.

Upon the death of Robert Burnell Biſhop of Bath and Wells the Kings Chancellor, William de Marchia (then Treaſurer of England, as * Godwin informs us) was elected to ſucceed him in that Biſhoprick; the manner of whoſe election I finde thus related in a Letter ſent to John Langeton then Chancellor of England, which I met with in the White Tower Chappel.

After which, ſuch Writs for Corodies for the Kings and Queens Servants, Soldiers, and Penſions to the Kings Clerks till promoted to Benefices, very frequently occurr both in the Bundles of Privy Seals and Clauſe Rolls in the Tower, during this Kings reign and his ſucceſſors; Abbots, Biſhops Lands and Revenues being originally granted them by our Kings their Founders, not to ſpend them on their own luxury, pomp, kinred, allies, but to be beſtowed in almes, hoſpitality, and charity to poor diſtreſſed people; therefore more eſpecially on ſuch decayed meritorious Servants or Soldiers as the King by his Writs ſhould recommend to them, to be relieved and harbored during life; being a priviledge due unto him of meer common right, of which no preſcription or cuſtome could deprive him; no wayes extinguiſhed or reſtrained by Magna Charta c. 1. 3 E. 1. c. 1. or Articuli Cleri c. 11. as our Judges and [d] Law-books have ſince frequently reſolved.

The ſame year, (Anno 1293. as *Matth. The King notwithſtanding this Subſidie wanting monies, ſearched all the Monaſteries and Churches throughout England, where any monies were depoſited by Religious perſons or others, and forcibly carried it away to ſupply his occaſions, by the advice of his Treaſurer William de Marchia Biſhop of Bath and Wells, thus related by [a] Mat. Illo quoque tempore, videlicet Dominica ſecunda menſis Julii, factum eſt ſcrutinium execrabile, et ſacrilegium horrendum in Eccleſia Dei, per univerſum regnum Angliæ, quale non fuit, nec fuiſſe creditur multis temporibus retroactis. Fecit Rex omnia regni Monaſteria perſcrutari, & pecuniam inventam Londoniis apportari. Quod quidem ſcrutinium, ut credimus, non emanabit a conſcientia Domini Regis; ſed author potius hujus facti fuit Magiſter Gulielmus de Marchia, tunc temporis Domini Regis Theſaurarius, qui in hoc facto non Bathonienſis Epiſcopus

[a] Henry de Knyghton ſtories; Edwardus quorundam fretus conſilio, omnem pecuniam & omne depoſitum in Eccleſiis Cathedralibus, Domibus Religioſis, & aliis per totam Angliam gazofilaciis Clericorum & Laicorum Fratrum Prædicatorum & Minorum, cæterorumque ordinum omnium, quinto ſcilicet die Julii hora tercia, per miniſtros ſuos præordinatos quaſi ex improviſo cepit, & in ærarium ſuum Londoniæ reponere fecit, multamq; pecuniam conſecutus eſt, quam nunquam poſtea reſtituit. Illis tamen qui ei tenebantur in debito vel' ommuniter cum Clero vel populo auxilium promittebant ei, hujuſmodi pecuniam acceptam in ſolutionem alterius juſſit allocari, ſeu reſtitui. [b] Polydor Virgil thus more particularly relates the ſtory; Erat per hæc bella continua jam vacuatum ærarium regium, quod malum Gulielmus Marchianus quæſtor unus, omnium alieno detrimento ſanandum ſtatuit. Is enim noverat cum in Cœnobiis, tum in Templis pecunias eſſe depoſitas, quas ſi haberet tolli, non utique ſcelus, ſed operæ pretium facturus ducebat, ſi pecunia promeretur ſuas ad uſum populi, perinde quaſi omnia eſſent communia, quo ſic pecuniam militi ſuppeditaret, præſentemque curaret (inopiam.) Itaque præfecti militum, quibus ille ſacrilegii patrandi negotium dederat, diſpoſitis paſſim per regnum militibus, uno tempore quicquid pecuniarum in locis ſacris recondítum fuerat, omnibus veſtigiis indagatum ad Edwardum afferunt, gemente paſſim populo (or rather Clero) quod Princeps non putaret manum abſtinendam a pecuniis, quibus ſacræ ædes reficiendæ eſſent. Rex autem pecunia egens rem diſſimulavit. [c] Francis Godwin in his Catalogue of Biſhops ſtories, That he had ſeen amongſt the Records of our Church of Wells, the Copies of divers Letters unto the Pope and Cardinals, from the King, from the Nobility, and divers of the Clergy of this Realm, commending William de Marchia ſo farre forth for his holineſſe, teſtified (as they write) by many miracles, as they intreated very earneſtly for his canonization. I marvel much at it, for Matthew of Weſtminſter and Polydor Virgil complain much of him, as the author of an hainous Sacrilege, in cauſing the King to ſpoyle all the Churches and Monaſteries of England, of ſuch plate and monies as lay hoarded up in them, for the payment of his Souldiers. It was Edward the 1. a Prince that wanted neither wit to deviſe, nor courage to execute ſuch an exploit, and to lay the fault upon another at laſt. Yet likely enough it is, that ſuch a fault ſtamped on him (how undeſervedly ſoever) might barre him out of the Popes Kalendar, who otherwiſe was not wont to be overdainty in affording that kinde of honour, where Fees might be readily paid in for it.

The King not ſufficiently ſupplyed with monies by this prey, or forced Loan, [d] In vigilia S. Matthæi Apoſtoli, coadunatis Clero & populo apud Weſtm. poſtulat Rex a tota Eccleſia, per totum regnum Angliæ locata, medietatem omnium bonorum, tam temporalium quam ſpiritualium. Quo audito, et in ſæculis inaudito, Pontifices et Prælati conturbati ſunt et conterriti, et præ anguſtia ſpiritus gementes, Regemque offendere, et ei contradicere non audentes, ſed votis regiis annuentes, et prædictam medietatem omnium bonorum ſuorum, uno anno provenientium, conceſſerunt. Quam quidem medietatem, ſi prius prudentius et melius cogitaſſent. ſede Apoſtolica inconſulta, Regi concedere non præſumerent ullo modo; (writes *Mat. As the King granted theſe Protections to the premiſed Abbots and Clergymen who aided him with their contributions againſt the French: ſo out of his Eccleſiaſtical Supremacy he deſired the aſſiſtance of their devout prayers unto God for a bleſſing upon him and his military forces, in defence of his inheritance againſt their armed power, as appears by theſe Writs under his Privy Seal iſſued to his Biſhops, and other religious perſons, which I found in a Bundle of Writs of Privy Seal and Letters, lately reſcued from the rubbiſh in the White Tower Chappel.

But that which is moſt obſervable, during theſe very Treaties of Peace, the French King by his private ſollicitations, letters and promiſes, procured John Bayliol King of Scots, with all the Prelates, Nobles and Commonalty of Scotland, (againſt their late * premiſed ſolemn Oaths and Homages under their reſpective hands and ſeals made to King Edward) to enter into a moſt perfidious clandeſtine league, and an offenſive and defenſive warre with him againſt their Soveraign Lord, yea to invade and waſte England with fire and ſword, ſo ſoon as King Edward ſhould ſend forces into Gaſcoign to recover his antient right therein, and to make no Peace nor Truce with him, without his concurrent aſſent; thus related at large in French in two Parchment Rolls, I found in the White Tower, only briefly mentioned in ſundry other Records and Inſtruments, conteining that and other ſucceeding Treaties of Peace with the French Kings, with the exceptions taken by King Edward the 1. and his Succeſſors againſt the legality of the premiſed citation and arreſt.

This

An. 22. E 1. This League and Alliance then made and concluded between the perfidious, treacherous Scots and French against the English contrary to their premised Oaths and Obligations, was vigorously put in execution the two next ensuing years, and very punctually observed by them in succeeding ages, the true reason whereof is thus rendered by Matthew Parker Archbishop of Canterbury, discoursing of the Treacheries and perfidiousnesse of the French, and their inhumane cruelties, under pretext of Treaties of peace. * Ac ne Scotia quidem in perjuriis, crudelitate et perfidia dissimilis censetur Galliæ. Ad quæ dicta, si stellæ atque sidera ex† Astrologorum sententia regionibus dominantur, fato quodam dedita videri possit. Subest enim ut Astrologi censent versutissimo atque inconstantissimo sideri Scorpioni. Cujus mores in singulis pœne Scotis (& Gallis) exprimuntur. Sunt enim crudeles, elati, intemperantiæ et libidini dediti, falsi atque vafri, pacis, inducriarum fœderumque fractores; natura autem tam fera & indomita, ut etsi in bellis sæpe victi succubuerunt, et subjectionem (Anglis) jurejurando promiserunt; redintegrare tamen contra fidem datam prælia, et mortis atque martis discrimina subire, quam exteri cujuscunque dominationem perferre maluit. Itaque cum Astrologi Martem Scorpionis esse dominum, eoque præesse autumnent, Scotiam crebris vastationibus, incendiis, stragibusque cruentis ex illa Martis & Scorpionis conjunctione perpetuo subesse statuunt. Hæc itaque sceleratissimorum similitudo morum Gallos atque Scotos semper inbicem conciliavit. Tanta enim utriusque gentis perfidia, * feritas et immanitas in vindictis prodita est, quanta non modo inter Christianos, sed ne inter barbaros a Scriptoribus ullis traditur. Of which our Histories, and the ensuing years will render you a further account.

The Priory of Preſtol in Angleſey becoming voyd, the King upon the Subpriors and Convents petition for a licenſe to elect a new Prior, out of his eſpecial grace to ſave their labor and expences granted a Commiſſion to his Juſtice of Northwales, to give his royal aſſent to the Prior elect, to receive his Fealty, and reſtore his temporalties in the Kings name and right, upon ſecurity firſt given under their common Seal, that this his ſpecial favour (frequently indulged to thoſe in Ireland) ſhould not be drawn into example to his prejudice in future times.

The Biſhop of Lyſmore in Ireland ſequeſtring the fruits of Michael de Boyton his Prebendary in that Church, conferred on him by the King during its vacancy, and depriving him thereof; the King, as ſupreme Ordinary and Patron, upon his complaint thereof commanded the Biſhop to certifie him the cauſe of this his ſequeſtration and deprivation, by this Writ, that ſo he might judge of their legality.

EDwardus &c. Venerabili in Chriſto Patri R. eadem gratia Lyſmoren. Epiſcopo, ſalutem. Quia accepimus, quod vos & Officiales veſtri fructus Prædendæ dilecti Clerici noſtri Michaelis de Boyton, quam habet in Eccleſia veſtra prædicta de dono noſtro, ratione ultimæ vacationis ejuſdem Epiſcopatus in manu noſtra exiſtentis, ex cauſis minus rationabilibus ſequeſtrari feciſtis, et ad privationem ipſius Clerici noſtri nitimini (ut dicitur) minus juſte; in ipſius Clerici diſpendium non modicum & gravamen. Whereupon the Biſhop made and ſent this humble certificate to the King of the cauſe of his deprivation.

DOmino ſuo Excellentiſſimo E. Dei gratia illuſtri Regi Angliæ R. eadem miſeratione Eccleſiæ Lyſmor. Miniſter humilis, Salutem cum reverentia & honore. Veſtræ Regiæ dignitati devotè & reverenter ſignificamus, nos Magiſtrum Michaelem de Boyton, quondam Canonicum Eccleſiæ noſtræ, ſæpius monitum et legitime citatum ad præſentiam noſtram, quod diſpenſationem ſuper pluralitate Beneficiorum obtentorum, ſi quam haberet, nobis exhiberet; quod facere minime curavit; Nec non quia dignitatem quam in Eccleſia noſtra ex collatione noſtra habuit, per literas ſuas nobis directas reſignavit, cui annexa extitit Prædenda; quare, mediante juſtitia, dictam Præbendam ex prædictis cauſis pronunciavimus vacantem, et eam alii duximus conferendam: A quibus pronunciatione & collatione per ſuos procuratores ad Sedem Caſſalen. Metropoliticam exſtitit appellatum; quæ noſtram pronunciatio-

By which Certificate it is apparent, that a * plurality of Benefices and Prebendaries in that age, without a ſpecial diſpenſation, was a good cauſe of deprivation.

Anno 1294. the Roman See (through the Cardinals ſchiſms and diviſions) continuing voyd about three years and three moneths after the deceaſe of Pope Nicholas the 4th. the Cardinals at laſt, in die decollationis Sancti Johannis Baptiſtæ, elected Petrum de Murrone an Hermit, and Monk of the Order of Saint Benedict, whom they named Cœleſtine the fifth. [a] Poſt mortem Nicholai 4. Cardinales Peruſium profecti ſunt, ut eò liberius ſucceſſorem eligere & denunciare poſſint: verum inteſtinis diſſidiis res eo deducta eſt, ut toto triennio, atque tribus inde menſibus nihil determinarent; Et quamvis Carolus 2. Neapolitanus Rex ex Narbonenſe Gallia adveniret, atque ad curandam, & electionem maturandam eos diligenter ſæpeque adhortaretur, nihil tamen retulit niſi ſuperbiam & ſupercilioſum reſponſum; imprimis à Benedicto Cajetano, qui id interpretabatur, quaſi vim ipſis allaturus videretur, quorum ſuffragia debebant eſſe libera: Tandem Caroli Neapolitani Regi & Latini Cardinalis favore, Cœleſtinus Pontifex declarabatur, (quaſi per indignationem et riſum, as Stella and others write) poſt vocationem diutinam: Vir ſimplex eremo paratior quam throno: hic vir ſimplex, rectus et timens Deum, virtutibus coruſcabat (as Mat. Weſtminſter ſtories,) De vitæ auſteritate jam Pontifex effectus, nihil remiſit. Equum vel mulum, vel currum aſcendere non præſumpſit, ſed aſinum, Chriſti exemplo, & bono exemplo illius qui aſello inequitans Chriſti paupertatem æmulari conaretur. Vicelius gives this character of him, Nihil niſi religioſus erat, & adeo probus, ut potuerat dici ipſa probitas. Ob eam probitatem videbatur non eſſe idoneus ad obeundum magiſtratum: (Honeſty making men altogether unfit for the Papal Chair of Rome) ſed ultro perfert abdicationem, ut locus eſſet veſtræ maleficæ. In primo conſiſtorio ſtatim Romanam Eccleſiam ſtricte ſtatuit reformare; verum tamen uſque adeo nihil effecit, ut etiam omnium indignationem et odium incurreret, qui jam pridem di ciplinæ jugum et vincula ruperint; ipſumque fatuum et veſtrum ſenem vocitabant: [b] Matthew Weſtminſter ſtories; Cum de aſino deſcendiſſet, & Eccleſiam ingreſſus eſſet, clamavit quidam contractus, ut ipſum deſuper aſinum, ſuper quem Papa ſederet, imponerent intuitu charitatis. Et qui præſentes erant increpabant eum, ut taceret, ipſe verò multò magis, amore filii David, qui ſuper pullum aſinæ Hieruſalem valvas ſanctificando intraverat, quatenus ipſum ſuper dorſum aſini levarent. Res mira, impoſitus contractus illico recepit ſanitatem, & conſolidans baſibus & plantis, exiluit qui claudus fuerat, laudans Deum in ſervi ſui meritis Cœleſtini, a quo Magiſter [c] Robertus de Winchelſey Cantuarienſis electus confirmatus eſt, et in Archiepiſcopũ conſecratus. Yet this miracle could not induce this humble Popes proud ſucceſſours, or his Cardinals, nor yet this Archbiſhop of Canterbury or his ſucceſſours to ride upon an Aſs like this Pope or our meek Saviour; but on Kings or Princes ſhoulders, or the richeſt Chariots, the beſt and choiceſt Steeds they could procure. Pope Cœleſtine during his ſhort continuance in the Papacy, out of zeal to the Holy Lands releif, granted our King Edward the 1. a Diſme for ſeven years from all the Clergy of England, as [d] Henry de Knyghton informs us, with the impediments that hindred the King from that undertaking he much deſired. Cum Rex tot & tantas controverſias in diverſis plagis regni & dominii ſui pacificaſſet, deduxit in memoriam de paſſagio in terram ſanctam contra inimicos Jheſu Chriſti, quod ante a Papa et multis aliis Catholicis propoſitum fuerat, & multum de illo in corde tractavit. Set guerra in Gaſconia & Wallia multum exhauſerant & devaſtaverant theſauros ſuos; unde Papa Cœleſtinus videns cruciosam voluntatem in tantum poſitum in ſancto propoſito ſalubris itineris, ad votum cruciatæ implendæ, dedit ei Decimam de tota Eccleſia Angliæ per 7 annos: et Papa Bonefacius, qui recenter venit poſt Cœleſtinum, dedit il'i Decimam trium annorum; & interim Rex Edwardus de dicto itinere impeditus eſt, by his Wars with the French, Welſhmen, and Scots; which waſted all theſe Diſmes. [e] Cœleſtinus unam ordinationem in menſe Septembris faciens, creavit 12 Cardinales, inter quos duæ eremitæ erant, in order to reform the Roman Court and Church. But the Cardinals weary of this preciſe, humble, reforming, conſcientious Pope, perſwaded him to reſign his Papacy, as unfit and unable to manage it without the

Pope

An. 23 E. 1. * Page 623.

Pope Boniface the 8. was no sooner setled in his Pontifical throne (as before related) but in the very first year of his Papacy, he sent his Italian Merchants and Usurers into England, to return all monies from thence to the Roman Court, which he, his Legates, or other Agents should extort from thence or Ireland, by whom he sent this Bull to the King to grant them his safe conduct, favour and assistance upon all occasions, the original whereof I found in the White Tower Chappel.

BONIFACIUS Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, Charissimo in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Angliæ illustri salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. Cum dilectos filios Johannem Aldobrandinum, Nicholaum Cæcaleonem, Giacum. & Villanum Lurcheti de Societate Clarennum de Pistorio, Cameræ nostræ Mercatores, pro quibusdam Romanæ Ecclesiæ negotiis ad partes Angliæ transmittamus; Magnificentiam Regiam rogandam duximus attentius & hortandam, quatenus ipsos pro nostra et Apostolicæ sedis reverentia benigne recipiens, et honeste pertractans, eis & eorum cuilibet in terris quibus exerces dominium, de Securo conductu facias provideri. Et nichilominus in agendis ipsorum cum ab eis vel eorum aliquo fueris requisitus, assistas eisdem favoribus Regiis et præsidiis oppportunis. Ita quod ex hoc Excellentiæ Regiæ devotionis promptitudinem dignius commendationum titulis attollamus. Datum Anagniæ 8 Idus Julii, Pontificatus vestri anno primo.

Immediately after, he sent two Cardinal Legats à latere, first to the King of France, and from him to the King of England, then engaged in Wars against each other, under a specious pretext of mediating a Truce, and making a firm peace between them; but in verity to usurp a Papal Jurisdiction over them and their Realms, and prey upon them both, as the sequel evidenced. These Legates being not specially sent for by King Edward, according to the * antient privilege of the Realm; thereupon, before they presumed to set foot in England, they sent a special Messenger and Letters to the King, to acquaint him with the effect of their mission, and crave his Royal license, safe conduct and protection for themselves, their followers and goods, the form whereof they sent inclosed in a Cedule to the King: who although he seemed very well pleased with the end of their Legation and coming to him to settle peace, yet he refused to grant them any safe conduct to come into England, till they first informed him, what safe conduct the King of France had granted them under his Seal; as these Records assure us.

* The relation of the cauſe of the warr, with the propoſals & demands of the Cardinals, with the Kings & Councils anſwers to them in ſeveral Articles, are at large recorded in French in a Parchment Roll I found in the Tower, which being much torn and decayed, I thought fit to omit.

Hereupon the Dean of Pauls, and Biſhop of London's Official exacting Procurations from the Dean and Prebends of St. Martins le Grand in London, for theſe two Legates ſent into England to the King by the Pope about the Peace with France, endeavouring to compell them to pay the ſame by Eccleſiaſtical cenſures, againſt their priviledges, and the Kings prerogative, (being his Free Chappel, exempt from all Epiſcopal Juriſdiction and Procurations) the King thereupon iſſued this Prohibition to them to inhibit their proceedings, as derogatory to his Crown and Royal Dignity.

How importunate the Cardinals (to colour their rapines) were with the King to procure a Truce and Ceſſation of arms, appears by 3. Writs I found in a Bundle in the White Tower Chappel, An. 23 E. 1. then ingroſſed & filed; one of them directed to the Kings Lieutenant, and other Officers in Gaſcoigne and foraign parts; the other general to all men; the third, to the Wardens of the Ports, and all other his Officers and Miniſters to whom they ſhould come; wherein he declared, that by theſe two Cardinals importunate zeal, to ſettle a firm Peace between him and the King of France and their Subjects, (toward which a preſent truce, and ceſſation of all acts of hoſtility between them both by Sea and Land would much conduce) he had condeſcended out of honour to the Cardinals, and reverence and obedience to his Mother the Church of Rome, to ſuch a Truce and Ceſſation of all acts of hoſtility between them, till the Feaſt of All Saints next, and obliged himſelf, his goods and chattels to the Cardinals to perform it; ſo as the French King would oblige himſelf in like manner for himſelf and his Subjects; which he (it ſeems) refuſing, theſe Writs were thereupon cut and cancelled with a penknife, but not taken off the file: which I ſhall here preſent you withall, to declare King Edwards readineſſe to peace, and avoid wars with the French King.

That this Pope and his two Cardinals had ſome other deſignes upon the King, Kingdom and Church of England, then to ſettle Peace, and gain Procurations, even to deprive the King of the Rights of his Crown, by inducing him to condeſcend to the Popes and Cardinals appropriating of Prebendaries and Churches in England to their Churches in Rome, and diſpoſe of Benefices and Promotions belonging to his Preſentation, Crown, dignity, (which although he, his Counſil, Judges, Parliament had * formerly oppoſed, yet was he now earneſtly preſſed by this Pope and his Cardinals to aſſent unto) will moſt clearly appear by the Kings Letters and Anſwers to them, implying his willingneſs to grant their requeſts, ſo as any expedient could be deviſed to ſave the diſinheriſon and hurt of the Rights of his Crown, Royal dignity and Prerogative, which might enſue thereupon by his condeſcention.

An 23 E. 1. Yet such was the insolency of this New Pope and his Legates, after several precedent Prohibitions, resolutions of the King, Counsil, Parliament, and Letters from the King to Pope Nicholas and his Cardinals against it, as now to revive and importunately prosecute this dangerous project afresh, in hope to accomplish it, under a pretext of friendship and setling Peace; which the King modestly declined by his Epistles to them.

These Cardinals likewise solicited the King to exempt some of the Cardinals Nephews who had Benefices in England, from paying the moity of their Goods towards the maintenance of his Wars, to which all the rest of the Clergy were liable, as this Letter of the King imports.

Pope Cœleſtine 5. the year before conferring, by his Papal Proviſion, the Church of Monketon on James, Nephew of Francis Cardinal of S. Lucy in Rome, afterwards confirmed by Pope Boniface 8. belonging to the Kings preſentation in right of his Crown, by the vacancy of the Archbiſhoprick of Canterbury, the Pope and Cardinals importuned runed the King to admit of this Papal provision to him; who thereupon advising with his Prelates, Counsellors, Nobles and great men assembled together at Berwick about it, after due examination of the business, upon consideration of many precidents and reasons agreed and resolved, that this Papal provision and usurpation would evidently tend to the apparent prejudice, and enormous exheredation of him, his heirs and Crown, which he being obliged by his Oath to maintain inviolable in all things, could no wayes condescend to this their request, desiring them to excuse him for not granting it, as appears by this memorable Letter of the Kings then sent to several Cardinals underwritten, I found in the White Tower. An. 23 E. 1.

TAli Cardinali, &c. Litteras vestras pro Magistro Jacobo Nepote venerabilis in Christo Patris, Domini Francisci Neapoleonis, sanctæ Luciæ in silice Diaconi Cardinalis specialis amici nostri, super negotio collationis Ecclesiæ de Monketon Cantuariensis Diocæsis, per felicis recordationis Cœlestinum Papam quintum in Romana Curia sibi factæ, ac confirmationis per sanctissimum patrem Dominum Bonifacium summum Pontificem super hoc subsequentis, nobis per latorem præsentium præsentatas affectione plena recepimus, & earum tenorem intelleximus diligenter. Sanè quia in ipsarum literarum receptione circa expeditionem guerræ nostræ Scotiæ eramus plurimùm occupati, nec tunc etiam nobis aderat præsencia peritorum, responsum, (prout casus illius qualitas exigebat) super hoc dandum, usque ad prædictæ guerræ sedacionem & regressum nostrum apud Berewycum super Twedam oportuit nos differre; ubi cum Prælatis et quibusdam aliis Consiliariis nostris, necnon Magnatibus et Proceribus Regni nostri ibidem specialiter congregatis, habito super hoc consilio et tractatu, examinatoque prædicto negocio plenius et discusso; fuit nobis per ipsos consultum, et pluribus rationibus ac exemplis evidenter ostensum, quod in grave præjudicium et manifestum nostri et hæredum nostrorum exhæredationem ac enervem Coronæ nostræ regiæ (cujus Jura illæsa in omnibus observare vinculo Juramenti astringimur) læsionem manifestius redundaret, si effectum hujusmodi collacio sortiretur. Porro scire vos volumus, quod si viam aliquam potuissemus accommodam invenisse, per quam absque præjudicio Juris nostri Regii, quo nos et antecessores nostri Reges Angliæ semper hactenus usi sumus, et Coronæ nostræ prædictæ læsione, et juramenti per nos præstiti violacione, et quæ nos incurrere vestræ fidelitatis integritas nobis, ut credimus, nullatenus suaderet, collacionem hujusmodi possemus æquanimiter tolerare, vestri consideracione ac aliorum Cardinalium pro præfato Jacobo specialiter intercedentium interventu, annuissemus in hoc favorabiliter votis vestris; unde, cum ex racionibus et causis præmissis ad præsens fieri nequeat quod rogatis, Paternitatem vestram attente requirimus et rogamus quatinus tam super hoc quam super dilacione responsionis hujusmodi providentia vestra nos habeat excusatos. By all which Certificates and Petitions to the King (whereof there are ſeveral Bundles in the Tower under Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Ordinaries, Abbots, and others ſeals, as likewiſe of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Abbeſſes deaths, deſiring his licenſes to elect new ones, and his Royal aſſent to thoſe they certified they had elected by his licenſe and authority, during the reigns of K. H. the 3. & Edw. the 1.) it is apparent, That the King was Supreme Governor within his Dominions over all Eccleſiaſtical perſons, cauſes, to whom Biſhops, Ordinaries, Abbots, Deans, Chapters, Officials, Covents, and Clergymen of all ſorts had recourſe upon all occaſions, to redreſſe, correct thoſe grievances, abuſes, exorbitances in the Church by his Soveraign Royal authority, which they by their Eccleſiaſtical ſwords, cenſures, juriſdictions could not reform, which were altogether invalid and ineffectual when contemned by any refractory perſons, as frequently they were.

Thus did the Ecclesiastical Courts continually encroach upon the Kings Courts, Crown, Dignity, and Subjects Liberties, notwithstanding the manifold Complaints, Writs, Attachments issued out against them by the Kings Justices and Chancellors, to the Subjects insufferable vexation. Besides these VVrits, in a fragment of Plea Rolls in the White Tower Chappel, Anno 24 E. 1. I finde these Suits and Attachments upon Prohibitions both at the suit of the parties, and of the King, for holding Pleas and prosecuting Suits in Court Christian for Chattels and Debts, not of Testament or Matrimony. The first of them concerned the Vicechancellor and University of Oxford, who pleaded the Kings Charter of Priviledges granted to them, by way of Justification, as Chancellor only, not as Ordinary.

* Chron. W. Thorn. col. 1964, &c.

Licet in veſtra Diœceſi appropriatas nobis Eccleſias a ſede Apoſtolica teneamus, obedientiam tamen vel alia jura Epiſcopalia vobis inde ſolvere non tenemur, nec nos illis juribus convenit defraudari. Super quibus ſummus Pontifex qui bene potuit ſcienter ſic voluit, et in literis appropriationis expreſſit, quod Vicarii noſtri in illis Eccleſiis per Ordinarium inſtituti, omnia jura Epiſcopalia vobis inde ſolvere teneantur. Unde ſecundum prædicti Domini ſummi Pontificis intentionem expreſſam, & tenorem Commiſſionis ejuſdem juxta modum prædictum uſi continuò ſuper his pacificè ſic fuerit retrò tantis temporibus à veſtris temporibus obſervatum, humiliter petimus, quatinus vos velitis, ſi placet, modò fore de obſervantia prædicta contenti, & ſic in futurum teneri, à noſtris moleſtiis benevolè deſiſtentes.

Anno quo ſupra fuit penſio decem librarum Domino Beraldo Albanenſi Epiſcopo Cardinali conceſſa ad terminum ſuæ vitæ pro ſuis beneficiis nobis multipliciter impenſis, (in this Controverſie with this Archbiſhop and his predeceſſor.)

Anno Dom. 1297. citra feſtum Purificationis beatæ Mariæ idem Archiepiſcopus ſuam Diœceſim viſitare inchoavit. Et Dominus Thomas Abbas ad manerium de Wingham ad illum perſonaliter accеſſit; ſupplicavitque eidem, quod ſi quæ in viſitatione inveniret quæ ad ſtatum dicti Monaſterii in aliquo eidem offenderet, illa eidem Abbati ob reverentiam Romanæ ſedis notificare dignaretur. Quod idem Archiepiſcopus libenti animo concedebat. Unde licet ex habundanti aliquando per Priorem, aliquando per alios, & aliquando per ipſum Abbatem idem Archiepiſcopus ſæpius requiſitus fuiſſet, ut munimenta & alia privilegia hujus Monaſterii vellet inſpicere, ille tamen hæc videre vel audire omnimodo recuſavit; & eundem Abbatem et conventum notorie exemptos evocavit. Et quàm cito hujuſmodi citatio ad notitiam Abbatis perveniſſet, miſit ad eum rogans, quod placeret eidem hujuſmodi citationem revocare, et ſine figura judicii videre privilegia et munimenta ſua. Qui reſpondit, quod noluit aliquo modo revocare citationem ſuam; ſed dixit, quod cito poſt veniret ad Cantuariam, & tunc poſſet Abbas habere colloquium cum ipſo de eodem. Et licet dictus Archiepiſcopus conceſſiſſet Abbati & firmiter promiſiſſet, ſe eadem privilegia & munimenta inſpicere voluiſſe, diſtulit tamen per multum tempus ſub diſſimulatione ea videre; & tandem aſſeruit, ſe nolle ea videre niſi judicialiter. Et cum Dominus Abbas allegaſſet, ſe et Monaſterium ſuum in tantum eſſe privilegiatum, quod non tenebantur nec debebant coram dicto Archiepiſcopo judicialiter comparere vel reſpondere, idem Archiepiſcopus fecit eos citari peremptorie, ut certo die ubicunque tunc in Diœceſi vel provincia Cantuariæ coram ipſo ſufficienter comparerent, titulum ſeu jus ſpeciale, ſi quæ haberent, per quæ poſſent ipſas Eccleſias et Hoſpitalem ſancti Laurentii ſic tenere; non obſtante Compoſitione dudum inter Archiepiſcopum Cantuarienſem prædeceſſorem ſuum ex parte una, & dictos religioſos ex altera, & per Capitulum Cantuarienſe approbata, & per ſedem Apoſtolicam confirmata ſuper quibuſdam de prædictis Eccleſiis cum Capellis ſuis, prout in compoſitione ſuper hac confecta, & Sigillis partium conſignata, plenius continetur. Aſſerens etiam minus veraciter, ſe in ſua Viſitatione inveniſſe dictos religioſos Decimas et penſiones annuas in diverſis Eccleſiis ſuæ Diœceſis contra jus commune percipere, ipſos citavit reſponſuros, quo jure ita ſic percipiebant; licet in veritate nullas unquam penſiones præterquam in Eccleſiis ſui patronatus vel Decimas percepiſſent. Inſuper citavit eundem Abbatem, ut oſtenderet quare ſibi obedientiam facere non deberet? Propter quæ omnia idem Abbas & Conventus ſentiens ſe per prædictum Archiepiſcopum indebitè prægravari, ad Sedem Apoſtolicam appellarunt; ſed idem Archiepiſcopus hujuſmodi Appellationi non deferens, ipſos fecit iterum citari coram ſe, ubicunque eſſet in Civitate, Diœceſi, vel provincia Cantuar. ſuper Eccleſias de Tanderdene, Lenham, de Sellyng, de Præſtou, de Littleborne, de Sheldwich, & Sancti Pauli Cant. nec non & ſuper Hoſpitale Laurentii, & ſuper Decimis et Penſionibus prædictis, jus ſpeciale, ſi quod haberent præciſe et peremptorie propoſituri et oſtenſuri. Subticuit tamen proceſſum inſertum ſuper prænominatis Eccleſiis in compoſitione contentis, faciendo tamen mentionem de Eccleſia de Sheldwich, quæ eſt Capella Eccleſiæ de Faverſham, non obſtante ibidem col. 1966, 1967.

An. 24 E. 1. ſtante quod in dicta Compoſitione continetur. Pro quibus iterum ad prædictam Sedem eſt appellatum. Quibus appellationibus non obſtantibus, dictus Archiepiſcopus fecit eos citari peremptorie ad alium brevem diem, quod comparerent coram co ubicunque, &c. ſuper Eccleſiis prænominatis præcisè & peremptoriè oſtenſuri, ut ſupra; & propter contumacias ut dicebat legitime fulminaturus; non tamen ultra proceſſit contra nos, ſuper Eccleſia de Scheldwich, nec de Decimis & penſionibus ſupra dictis. Et quia idem Abbas judicialiter non comparuit, Archiepiſcopus reputavit dictos Religioſos contumaces; & pronuntiavit dictas Eccleſias præter Scheldwich eſſe vacantes, mandendo et faciendo eos moneri per Magiſtrum Martinum Commiſſarium ſuum Cant. ut infra quinque ſeptimanas proximò ſequentes, perſonas idoneas ſibi tanquam Diocæſano præſentarent ad Eccleſias prænominatas; à qua quidem pronuntiatione & mandato fuit iterum per procuratorem Abbatis in præſentia dicti Archiepiſcopi ad Sedem Apoſtolicam legitime appellatum.

Thus did the Pope and Court of Rome by theſe Suits and Appeals between the Abbot and Archbiſhop not onely exhauſt their wealth, but enlarge and exerciſe their Juriſdiction over both of them from year to year; as appears by this Bull of Pope Boniface to the Archbiſhop upon the Petition of Thomas Cuſe, to provide an Eccleſiaſtical Beneſice for him with or without Cure, belonging to the Abbot and Covent of Saint Auguſtines Canterbury; notwithſtanding all former Bulls of exemption or priviledges indulged to them: by pretext wherof the Archbiſhop this year iſſued his Mandate to denounce a ſentence of Excommunication againſt them in caſe of diſobedience, worthy conſideration, thus regiſtred to poſterity by William Thorn.

But theſe Protections, being expired or forfeited ſoon after by their double denyal of a Subſidy to the King, in obedience to Pope Boniface his Bull, for which they were put out of the Kings protection, ſtood them in no ſtead at all.

Upon complaint of the Biſhop of Ely that his Tenants of divers Manors belonging to his Biſhoprick were diſtrained both in Thetford and Norwich for toll of their goods, from which they were exempted by his and his progenitors Charters; the King iſſued forth ſundry Writs to diſcharge them from the payment thereof, or to certifie the cauſes why they did it not: whereupon they made theſe returns and Certificates into the Chancery, which I found in the White Tower Chappel.

Et quia nolumus quod idem Epiſcopus aut homines ſui prædicti indebitè graventur in hac parte, vobis præcipimus ſicut pluries præcepimus, quod ab hujuſmodi diſtrictionibus et inquietacionibus prædictis hominibus occaſione prædicta de cætero faciendis penitus deſiſtentes, ipſos de Theolonio præſtando ſicut inde quieti eſſe debent, & idem Epiſcopus & prædeceſſores ſui & eorum homines ſemper hactenus quieti eſſe conſueverunt, quietos eſſe permittatis, vel vos ipſi ſitis coram nobis à die Paſchæ in 15 dies, ubicumque tunc fuerimus in Angli-, oſtenſuri quare mandatis noſtris tociens vobis inde directis parere concempſiſtis. Et habeatis ibi hoc Breve. Teſte meipſo apud Walſingham, 30. die Januarii, anno regni noſtri 24.

To which they made this memorable return and Certificate;

Non contempſimus, prout nec debemus, mandatis veſtris nobis directis in omnibus parere. Et vobis ſignificamus, quod eo tempore quo iſtud breve nobis liberatum fuit, liberatum fuit nobis aliud breve per quod cauſam alias vobis ſignificavimus, quare ab exactione Theolonii hominibus Domini Epiſcopi Elyenſis de manerio ſuo de Pulham de mercandiſis ipſorum hominum deſiſtere non potuimus; videlicet, Quia omnes homines præfati Domini Epiſcopi de manerio ſuo prædicto ſunt mercatores bladi, illud in Comitatibus Norff. & Suff. & alibi de Militibus, perſonis Eccleſiaſticis & aliis à præſtatione Theolonii non quietis per diverſa loca ementes, & blada ſic empta ter vel quater in ſeptimana in Civitate Norwici ducentes, & ea diverſis hominibus pro voluntate ſua ut mercatores vendentes; & cum Civitas veſtra prædicta nomine veſtro à tempore quo non extat memoria ſeiſita ſit de Theolonio ab hujuſmodi mercatoribus capiendo, tanquam pertinente ad firmam ejuſdem Civitatis, quæ quidem firma extenditur ad Cxv. l. & quæ de hujuſmodi Theolonio bladi maximè provenit, & Dominus H. Rex pater veſter toto tempore ſuo, & vos toto tempore veſtro, tam per Cuſtodes tempore quo dicta Civitas fuit in manu dicti Domini H. Regis patris veſtri & in manu veſtra, quàm tempore quo nos & anteceſſores noſtri inde per vos cuſtodiam habuimus nuper ſeiſiti fuiſtis, & adhuc exiſtitis, Et quia Jura veſtra alicui in præjudicium veſtrum concedere non valemus, nos ſtatum veſtrum et progenitorum veſtrorum Regum Angliæ continuantes, prædictum Theolonium a præfatis mercatoribus de Pulham in forma prædicta capimus et exigimus, Vobis ulterius ſignificantes, quod ſi dicti mercatores de Pulham de Theolonio bladi ſic empti quieti fuiſſent, fere quarta pars totius firmæ prædictæ decideret, nec eſſet aliquis qui de firma prædicta vobis reſpondere poſſet. So much did theſe exemptions procured by the Biſhops, prejudice the King and his Farmers.

This year there aroſe a great ſedition and combate between the Scholars and Townſmen in the Univerſity of Oxford, wherein many were ſlain on both ſides, and the goods of the Scholars plundered and carried away; upon complaint whereof to the King by the Scholars, he ſent his Juſtices thither to puniſh the Malefactors, and repair the Scholars damages: which * Thomas Walſingham thus relates.

Hoc anno ſuborta eſt diſcordia grandis Oxoniæ inter Clericos et Laicos propter quos garciones diverſarum patriarum, qui pro levi cauſa ad pugnandum ſunt accenſi. Nam dum quidam ratione patriæ unum juvare laborarent, quidam aliam nitantur manutenere & fovere, tranſlata eſt pugna ad fautores partium diverſarum. In tantumque

An. 24 E. 1. crevit seditio, ut tam Clerici quam Laici evacuatis domibus ad pugnam accurrerent glomeratim. Dum autem Clerici de suis hospitiis egressi fuissent, cognoscentes vespiliones Laici nullos vel saltem paucos remansisse domi apud hospitia Clericorum, intrant habitacula, et bona diversimoda asportant, damnum Clericis irreparabile ingerentes. In hac pugna peremptus est Dominus Fulco de Neyrmuth Rector Ecclesiæ de Pycheleſtorn, et plures alii de utraque secta. Audita hujus facti querela, Dominus Rex jussit Justiciariis suos villam adire, pacem reformare, homicidas judicialiter condemnare. Qui venientes Oxonias, Burgenses compulerunt solvere pro damnis factis Clericis ducentas libras.

The Lands and livings of the Prior and Covent of Farley, and some other persons being seised on by the Kings precept as aliens, under the power or obedience of the King of France, and found by Inquisition or good testimony not to be so, the King issued these Writs to restore them; the first being a special Case, worthy observation.

This year there happened one of the higheſt and moſt memorable conteſts between the King, Prelates and Clergie of England, mentioned in our Hiſtories, being backed by Pope Boniface the 8. the whole ſeries whereof, continuing near two years ſpace, or more, I ſhall faithfully relate at large out of our Records and Chronicles. King Edward being reduced to great want of moneys to carry on his wars againſt the French, Scots, and other Enemies, iſſued out Writs to the Archbiſhops of Canterbury, Yorke, and their reſpective Suffragan Biſhops, Priors, Abbots and Clergy, ſummoning them to a Parliament and Convocation, to grant him a conſiderable Ayde to recover Gaſcoigne, fraudulently ſeiſed by the French King, who then intended likewiſe to invade England, and extirpate the Engliſh Nation, by Writs running in this form.

REX venerabili in Chriſto Patri R. eadem gratia Cantuarien. Archiepiſcopo, totius Angliæ Primati ſalutem. Sicut lex juſtiſſima provida circumſpectione ſacrorum Principum ſtabilita hortatur, Ut quod omnes tangit ab omnibus approbetur; ſic & inquit evidenter, Ut communibus periculis per remedia præviſa communiter obvietur; Sane ſatis noſtis & jam eſt, ut credimus, per univerſa mundi climata divulgatum, qualiter Rex Franciæ, de terra noſtra Vaſconia nos fraudulenter & cauteloſè decepit, eam nobis nequiter detinendo. Nunc vero prædictis fraude & nequitia non contentus, ad expugnationem regni noſtri, Claſſe maxima & Bellatorum copioſa multitudine congregatis, cum quibus Regnum noſtrum & Regni ejuſdem incolas hoſtiliter jam invaſit, linguam Anglicam, ſi conceptæ iniquitatis propoſito deteſtabili poteſtas correſpondeat, (quod Deus avertat) omnino de terra delere proponit. Quia igitur præviſa jacula minus lædunt, et res veſtræ, ſicut cæterorum ejuſdem Regni communiter agitur in hac parte; Vobis mandamus, in fide & dilectione quibus nobis tenemini firmiter injungentes, quod die Dominica proxima poſt feſtum Sancti Martini in hieme prox. futurum, apud Weſtm. perſonaliter interſitis. Præmunientes Priorem et Capitulum Eccleſiæ veſtræ, Archidiaconos, totumque Clerum veſtræ Diocæſis, facientes quod idem Prior et Archidiaconi in propriis perſonis ſuis, et dictum Capitulum per unum, idemque Clerus per duos Procuratores idoneos, plenam et ſufficientem poteſtatem ab ipſis Capitulo et Clero habentes, una vobiſcum interſint modis omnibus tunc ibidem; ad tractandum, ordinandum, et faciendum nobiſcum, et cum cæteris Prælatis et Proceribus, et aliis incolis regni noſtri, qualiter ſit hujuſmodi periculis et excogitatis malitiis obviandum. Teſte Rege apud Wengeham, 30 die Septembris. que Clerum vestræ Diocæsis, (as before) quod tunc sint ibidem, ad ordinandum de quantitate et modo Subsidii memorati. Teste Rege apud Berewyk super Twede 26 die Augusti.

In the mean time this Archbishop of Canterbury most perfidiously and trayterously procured an Antichristian Bull from Pope Boniface the 8. prohibiting all Archbishops, Bishops and Clergymen, to grant any Tenths, or other Aydes to any King, Prince, or Potentate, or for them to demand or levy any from them, without his previous consent, under pain of the greater Excommunication, &c. thus related by H. de Knyghton out of Ranulphus Cestrensis his Polychron. l. 7. c. 40. Rex fecit seisire omnia temporalia Clericorum, eximens eos protectione sua, pro eo, quod anno elapso nollent eum respicere de bonis suis contra Scotos. Nam Robertus Archiepiscopus de consensu Cleri procuraverat a Papa inhibitionem, ne quis Clericorum Regem respiceret de bonis Ecclesiæ. Unde et plures Prælatorum timore tacti quæsierant protectionem Regiam. After which he addes, * Interea Papa misit Bullas Papales inhibitorias, Quod nulla persona Ecclesiastica cujuscunque conditionis foret, daret seculari personæ, sive Regi, sive alteri personæ Decimam, Quintam-decimam, Vicesimam, nec quamcunque aliam contributionem, absque speciali licentia a Curia Romana in hac parte concessa: similiter nulla persona secularis majoris aut minoris conditionis caperet sub colore cujuscunque causæ de personis Ecclesiasticis majus vel minus, absque speciali licentia a Curia petita et optenta, et hoc sub pœna Excommunicationis majoris inde latæ et ipso facto incurrendæ, et capiens et tribuens, et hoc absque absolutione præter in mortis articulo, citra Curiam Romanam consequenda. Similiter, ne quis per vim aut extorsionem caperet quicquid depositum in Ecclesia ubilibet sub eadem pœna. Eodem tempore cum audisset Papa non solum Anglicanæ, set etium universalis quasi Ecclesiæ afflictiones varias & oppressiones multas quasi per omnia mundi regna, eo quod Reges et Principes affligebant eam; Cogitavit sollicitè per quam posset viam aliquod remedium adhibere. Unde consilio fratrum Constitutionem subscriptam ad universas mundi provincias bullatam misit, perpetuis temporibus observandam.

Adveniente tandem die, & ibidem Clero congregato,* Cantuarien. Archiepiscopus Magister Robertus de Winchelse communicato Consilio, his qui à facie ejus mittebantur, respondit in hac verba; Satis vobis constat Domini mei, nec latere potest, quod sub omnipotenti Deo duos etiam Dominos habemus, spiritualem et temporalem; spiritualem vero Dominum Papam, et temporalem Dominum nostrum Regem; & quamvis utrique obedientiam debeamus, majorem tamen Spirituali quam Temporali. Verum ut placere possimus utrique, concedimus, & mittere volumus sumptibus nostris nuncios nostros speciales ad ipsum patrem spiritualem Dominum Papam, ut licentiam aliquid concedendi habere possimus, vel saltem responsum habeamus ab ipso quid facere debeamus. Credimus etiam Dominum nostrum Regem sicut et nos, ipsam Excommunicationis sententiam imbullatam, et timere, et effugere velle. Ad hoc ordinate et vobis Domini nostri charissimi personas certas qui talia Domino Regi ex parte nostra renuncient. Nos enim scientes indignationem ejus accensam, veremur talia nunciare omnino. An. 24 & 25 Edw. I. tem Eboracensis Henricus de Newerk, & Dunelmensis, Eliensis & Sarisburiensis Episcopi, & quidam alii timentes iram Regis maximam, & conjecturantes grave periculum imminere, ordinaverunt se deponere velle in æde sacra quintam partem bonorum Ecclesiasticorum illius anni ad tuitionem Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ et defensionem urgentissimæ necessitatis, ut sic iram Regis evaderent, et sententiam in Bulla non incurrerent. Quicquid tamen poncbat Clerus, tollebat fiscus. Et sic ordinantes et sub colore quintam partem concedentes, protectionem Regis consecuti sunt. Cantuariensis vero Archiepiscopus animum non mutans, nec concedere nec deponere quicquam voluit: elegitque potius iram Regis quam sententiam Excommunicationis incurrere, unde seisita sunt omnia bona sua, et vasa ejus aurea et argentea occupata sunt, et equi omnes; recesserunt que ab eo familiares ejus, nec remansit quicquam unde pauper Christi aleretur. Præceptumque est sub gravi forisfactura Regis, ne quis eum hospitio susciperet in Monasterio vel extra; evacuatumque est illud Apostoli, Suscipite invicem, sicut & Christus suscepit vos; mansitque sic in domo cujusdam simplicis Rectoris cum solo sacerdote & uno clerico, non habens ex toto Archiepiscopatu ubi caput reponeret. Constanter tamen egit in verbo Domini, publice mendicans; ubique protestans, omnes qui vel Regi vel personæ seculari præter voluntatem Domini Papæ quicquam concederent in canonem latæ sententiæ ex facto proculdubio incidisse, semper existens paratus ad moriendum pro Ecclesia Christi. Such was his obstinacy, and obedience to the Popes Antichristian Bull, against Christs and the Apostles commands, presidents to the contrary, and his own Oath and allegiance to the King. Amici vero Lincolniensis Episcopi Oliveri, etiam ipso voluntatem vel petitionem Regis non ratificante, procuraverunt tamen, quod Vicecomes Lincolniensis levata quinta parte de bonis ipsius Episcopi, extunc ei possessiones et terras restituerct. Omnia etiam Monasteria Episcopatus ipsius, et totius Provinciæ Cantuariensis seisita fuerunt in manu, et ex præcepto ipsius Custodes appositi, qui ipsis religiosis solummodo necessaria ministrarent, et reliqua converterent in fiscum. Unde Abbates et Priores necessitate compulsi, Curiam Regis adierunt, non peccata sed vena propria redimentes data quarta. Nulla tunc temporis fiebat Justitia Clero, et passi sunt Clerici injurias multas. Religiosi etiam in via regia equis suis spoliabantur, et nullam consecuti sunt justitiam, quousque redemptione facta eis daretur regia protectio. In festo autem Sancti Matthæi Apostoli, quibusdam convocatis optimatibus regni, absque Clero Rex tenuit Parliamentum suum apud Sarisberiam.

An. 25 E. 1. In the ſame Bundle of Writs I found theſe Certificates made by Sheriffs and others, of the Names of ſeveral Parſons, Vicars, Abbots, Priors and Clergymen, who had entred into Recogniſances and Obligations to the King with Lay-pledges or ſureties, if they had no Lay-fee of their own, to pay him ſeveral fines and ſums of money towards his Wars, to procure his Writs of Protection for their Perſons, Goods and Lands, and to have their Lands and Goods (ſeiſed by the King) reſtored to them.

The Archbiſhop of Canterbury (who procured Pope Boniface his premiſed Bull, and was moſt peremptory, ſtout in the proſecution of it, for which all his Temporalties, Goods, Chattels were ſeiſed) being forced to hide his head, and reduced to great extremities, was likewiſe reſtored to the Kings favour and protection at laſt, through the earneſt prayer and mediation of his Suffragan Biſhops on his behalf, upon hopes of his future loyaltie; whereupon the King out of his ſpecial grace iſſued theſe Writs to reſtore his Temporalties, with all his Oxen, Goods and Chattels formerly ſeiſed, in the ſtate they now were.

Conſimiles littræ dirigunter Vic. Surr. Suſſex. Midd. & Eſſex.

From this premiſed Bull of Pope Boniface, prohibiting Clergymen to give or pay any Taxes to Kings for their Kingdoms neceſſary defence againſt publick enemies, without his ſpecial licenſe, under the penalties therein expreſſed, and the premiſed conteſts ariſing thereupon between K. Edward, his Prelates and Clergy, our Kings, Nobles, and all others may now obſerve. 1. That this Popes Conſtitution made in Cathedra, by the advice and aſſiſtance of his Brethren, was not only erronious and antimonarchical, but antichriſtian and diabolical, diametrically contrary to Chriſts, St. Peters and St. Pauls expreſſe precepts and preſidents, recorded in the Goſpel for all Prelates, Chriſtians conſcientiouſly to obey, practiſe, imitate upon all emergent occaſions, Mat. 17. 25, 26, 27. c. 22. 16, to 22. Mar. 12. 13, to 18. Luk. 20. 22, to 27. Rom. 13. 5, 6, 7. 1 Pet. 2. 11, 13, 15, 16. Tit. 3. 1. 2ly. That our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Clergies procuring of, and ſubmiſſion thereunto, was not only an high contempt againſt Chriſts and his Apoſtles precepts, preſidents, as Chriſtians, but a moſt ſeditious, trayterous, rebellious practice, againſt their duties, Oathes, Allegiance as Subjects, of very dangerous preſident to all Lay-Subjects in like caſes. 3ly. That King Edwards heroical oppoſition againſt this Papal Decree, and his ſtrenuous ſevere proceedings againſt his Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Clergy, in putting them out of his Protection, and ſeiſing all their Lands, Goods, Chattels for this offence, whereby he cruſhed this Cockatrice in the ſhell, was not only an act of great courage, juſtice, but alſo of policy and prudence, without which he could

An. 25 E. 1. never have preserved his Royal dignity, Jurisdiction, Crown, against the Popes and Prelates Usurpations on them, nor his Person, Kingdoms, Dominions against his Foreign Enemies invasions. 4ly. That this his turning his Bishops, Clergy out of the Parliament-house, holding a Parliament, and making Laws with his Temporal Lords and Commons without them, is not only justified to be lawfull by our [a] Law-books, but likewise by two of our learnedest late Bishops, [b] Jewell of Salisbury, and [c] Bilson of Wincheſter, in their authorized Books in defence of the Doctrine of the Church of England against Papists and Jesuits; where they assert, That the King and Temporal Lords and Commons in Parliament, may lawfully make Laws, Statutes, even in matters of Religion, not only by the more part of voyces, although the Archbishops and Bishops were never so earnestly bent against it; and that Statutes so passing in Parliament only by the voyces of the Lords Temporal, without the agreement and consent of the Lords Spiritual, have nevertheless been always confirmed, ratified by the Royal assent of the Prince; but likewise when they were excluded the Parliament, as in the Statutes of King Edward the 1. In a Parliament held at St. Edmondsbury, (and after that at Sarum) the Archbishops and Bishops were quite shut forth, yet the Parliament held on, and good and wholsome Laws were there enacted, the departing, or absence, or malice of the Spiritual Lords notwithstanding. May not the Kings Highness (addes Bilson) serve Christ in making Laws for Christ, without your (Popes and Bishops) liking? Claim you that interest or prerogative, that without you nothing shall be done, by the Laws of God, or by the Charters of the Realm? By the Laws of the Land you have no such privilege. Parliaments have been kept by the King and his Barons, the Clergy wholly excluded, and yet their Acts and Statutes good. And when the Bishops were present, their voyces from the Conquest till this day were never Negative, but Acts passed without and against their votes and protestations; witnesse 20 H. 3. c. 9. 3 R. 2. c. 2. 7 R. 2. c. 11. 11 R. 2. c. 3. Rot. Parl. nu. 9, 10, 11. 21 R. 2. Rot. Parl. nu. 9, 10. 6 H. 6. Rot. Parl. nu. 27. and other Acts. 5ly. That there is no other means for Kings to support their Crowns against Popes, Prelates, Clergymens Usurpations, but by resolute, rigorous proceedings against them, till they reduce them to due subjection, obedience, and force them to renounce their Antimonarchical Decrees and Innovations against their Prerogatives, as King Edward here did, and then received them into his special protection.

And here it is very observable, That as our King Edward thus strenuously opposed Pope Boniface his Antimonarchical Constitution, against demanding or imposing Subsidies on the Clergy without his previous consent, in England, so King * Philip the 4th. (though his mortal enemy) encouraged by his heroick previous example, did the like in France, publishing this special memorable Remonstrance against it; and thereupon extorted a Dispensation from this Pope, for the Prelates and Clergy of his Realm to assist him with Subsidies and their Armes in his Wars against King Edward and the Flemins, which I shall here insert out of the Charters of France, published by Pierre de Pithou, and others.

ANtequam essent Clerici, Rex Francix habebat custodiam regni sui, & poterat statuta facere, quibus ab inimicorum insidiis & nocumentis sibi & regno praecaveret, & per quæ inimicis subtraheret omnino subsidia, quibus ipsum & regnum possent gravius impugnare. Hac de causa Dominus Rex qui nunc est, equos, arma, pecunias et similia generali edicto prohibuit extrahi de regno suo, ne forsitan talia per malignorum fraudulentiam ad manus inimicorum in Domini Regis & regni prajudicium devenirent; nec hoc simpliciter prohibuit, sed adjecit, hæc non debere fieri absque ejus licentia speciali: super hoc habens rectam intentionem, quod quando sibi constaret pro certo, quod talia sic ab ipso prohibita essent bona Clericorum, & quod extrahi de regno, sibi & regno non obessent, nec inimicis prodessent, nulli sic petenti, & promissa probanti, licentiam denegaret. Et videtur satis mirabile, quod carissimus filius Papæ (our King Edward the 1. then in hostility with King Philip) non solum Clericorum bona, bona, ſed etiam perſonas detinet violenter, (for ſubmitting to this Conſtitution of his) nec propter hoc Dominus Papa ipſum denuntiat ſententiam Excommunicationis incurriſſe. Sancta mater Eccleſia, ſponſa Chriſti, non ſolum eſt ex Clericis, ſed etiam ex Laicis; imò ſacra teſtante Scriptura, [a] ſicut eſt unus Dominus, una fides, unum baptiſma, ſic à primo uſque ad ultimum ex omnibus Chriſti fidelibus, [b] una eſt Eccleſia ipſi Chriſto cœleſti ſponſo, annulo fidei deſponſata, quam ipſe à ſervitute peccati, à jugo veteris legis, ac dominio hoſtis antiqui per mortem ſuam miſericorditer liberavit, qua libertate gaudere voluit omnes illos, tam Laicos quam Clericos, [c] quibus dedit poteſtatem filios Dei fieri, iis videlicet qui credunt in nomen ejus, & ſuſceperunt Chriſtiana fidei ſacramenta. [d] Numquid ſolum pro Clericis Chriſtus mortuus eſt, et reſurrexit? abſit. [d] Numquid eſt perſonarum acceptio apud Dominum, ut ſolum Clerici in hoc mundo gratiam, et in futuro gloriam conſequantur? abſit. Sed per indifferentiam [e] omni credenti operanti bonum, per fidem et dilectionem æternæ retributionis præmium repromiſit. Et quia Clerici in Eccleſia, ut patet per prædicta, ſunt & merito & munere potiores, non debent, nec poſſunt, niſi forſitan per abuſum, ſibi appropriare, quaſi alios excludendo, Eccleſiaſticam libertatem, loquendo de libertate [f] qua Chriſtus nos ſua gratia liberavit. Multa verò ſunt libertates ſingulares, non univerſalis Eccleſiæ, ſponſæ Chriſti, ſed ſolum ejus miniſtrorum, quæ cultui divino ad ædificationem populi ſunt, & eſſe debent * ſpiritualium deputati. Quæ quidem libertates per ſtatuta Romanorum Pontificum, de benignitate vel ſaltem permiſſione Principum ſecularium, ſunt conceſſæ; quæ quidem libertates ſic conceſſæ vel permiſſæ, ipſis Regibus ſuorum regnorum gubernationem ac defenſionem auferre non poſſunt; nec ea quæ dictæ gubernationi et defenſioni neceſſaria, ſeu expedientia, * et deliberato bonorum ac prudentium conſilio judicantur, dicente Domino Pontificibus Templi; [g] Reddite ergo quæ ſunt Cæſaris Cæſari, & quæ ſunt Dei Deo. Et quia turpis eſt pars quæ non ſuo congruit univerſo, & membrum inutile & paralyticum, quod corpori ſuo ſubſidium ferre recuſat, quicunque ſive Clerici, ſive Laici, ſive Nobiles, ſive ignobiles, qui capiti ſuo vel corpori, hoc eſt Domino Regi et regno, imo etiam ſibimet, auxilium ferre reculant, ſemetipſos partes incongruas et membra inutilia, et quaſi paralytica eſſe demonſtrant: Unde ſi a talibus pro rata ſua ſubventionum auxilia requiruntur, non exactiones, vel extortiones, vel gravamina dici debent; ſed potius capiti, et corpori, et membris, debita ſubſidia; ſed et pro defenſoribus et pugilibus ipſorum, quibus non licet, vel qui non poſſunt pugnare per ſeipſos, ſtipendia præparata: [h] Nemo ſiquidem tenetur pro aliis propriis ſtipendiis militare. Et quòd ſi inimicorum rabies invaleſceret contra regnum, conſtat quod bona Clericorum penitus diſſiparentur; quare, multo plus aliis, indigent ab hoſtili impugnatione defendi. Ideoque in naturalis juris injuriam eſſe videtur, prohibere cuicunque ſervo, vel libero, vel Clerico, vel Laico, nobili vel ignobili, clypeum defenſionis objicere contra hoſtilem gladium, aut ſtipendia ſolvere defenſori. [i] Nonne merito Deus tales tradidit in reprobum ſenſum qui jus naturale et antiquum nituntur ſubvertere, pro ſuæ libito voluntatis? Et quis ſapiens et intelligens hæc, non incidit in vehementem ſtuporem, audiens Vicarium Jeſu Chriſti prohibentem tributum dari Cæſari, et ſub anathemate fulminantem, ne Clerici contra injuſtæ perſecutionis incurſus, Domino Regi et regno, imo ſibimetipſis, pro rata ſua manum porrigant adjutricem? Dare vero hiſtrionibus, et amicis carnalibus, et neglectis pauperibus, expenſas facere ſuperfluas in robis, equitaturis, comitatibus, commeſſationibus, et aliis pompis ſæcularibus, permittitur eiſdem, imo conceditur, ad pernicioſæ imitationis exemplum. Hoc enim natura et ratio, jus divinum et humanum pariter deteſtantur, ad illicita frœna laxare, et licita, imo neceſſaria, cohibere. Quis enim ſanæ mentis judicaret licitum et honeſtum ſub anathemate cohibere, ne Clerici, ex devotione Principum incraſſati, impinguati et dilatati, pro modulo ſuo eiſdem Principibus aſſiſtant, contra ingruentes injuſtorum perſecutionum adverſitates, quocunq; coloræ excogitato, doni vel mutui, vel ſubventionis pro ſeipſis, pro Rege et regno pugnantibus, et reſiſtentibus inimicis vi armorum, alimenta præbendo vel ſtipendia perſolvendo? Non enim prudenter attendunt qui talia perhibent, vel renuunt, quod hoc nihil aliud eſt quam inimicos juvare, et crimen læſæ Majeſtatis incurrere, et quaſi velle prodere ipſum Reipublicæ defenſorem; ad quod crimen puniendum

Et ſi prædicti quatuor diſcordarent, ipſi poſſent eligere quintum, qui eorum diſcordiam revocaret: Et ſi dictus Rex* Theutoniæ de Comitatu Burgundiæ conqueratur, ſua querimonia nulla ratione fulcitur. Nam notorium eſt omnibus, quod poſt guerram apertam & diffidationem ſuperbam, à dicto Rege nobis factam, dictum Comitatum nobis duximus acquirendum. Nam in diffidatione ſua contra nos graviora facere minabatur, & jam forſitan feciſſet, ſi adhuc ſibi ſe optuliſſet facultas. Nonne ſanctæ matri Eccleſiæ nos et anteceſſores noſtri, multa grata ſervitia ab antiquo, et immenſa beneficia contulimus, quibus Miniſtri ejuſdem multo pinguius et glorioſius, quam in aliis regnis temporalibus exaltantur? What further oppoſitions this French King, his Nobles and ſubjects made againſt this proud Popes Bull and uſurpations, I ſhall relate in its due ſeries of time.

Whiles our King Edward was buſied in proceeding againſt his undutifull Prelates and Clergy, to reduce them to obedience, by putting them out of his Protection, ſeiſing their Temporalties, goods, chattels, and impriſoning the perſons of thoſe who publiſhed the Popes Bull, or excommunicated his Officers for executing his Writs iſſued againſt them, the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, with ſome other Prelates and Clergymen, by their clandeſtine inſtigations and diſobedient refractory examples, ſtirred up ſundry of the Nobility and Commons of the Realm againſt the King, by reaſon of divers extorſions, which the Clergies denyal of a timely ayd to ſupply his want of Monies to carry on his Wars, enforced him to exerciſe, againſt the Laws of the Realm, and the liberties and properties of his Subjects, thus related by * our Hiſtorians; Hoc anno aurit Rex tributum de lanis, accipiens de quolibet Sacco quadraginta ſolidos, cum prius ultra marcam dimidiam non daretur. Illo quoque tempore voce præconaria proclamatum fuit per Angliam, ut poſſeſſores lanarum exponerent eas venditioni infra menſem in civitatibus aſſignatis, alioqui, tanquam forisfactura cederent ipſi Regi. Quæ quidem in die S. Georgii quaſi modo prælocuto callidè congregata, pro forisfactura Regis in Flandriam ſunt tranſvectæ, (or as Henry de Knyghton expreſſeth it) Miniſtri Regis omnes ſaccos lanæ quinarium numerum excedentes, datis tal-lis, ad opus Regis acceperunt. Et ab unoquoque ſacco quinarium numerum non excedente, ab eis nomine malæ toltis 40 ſ. extorſerunt. Et multæ oppreſſiones fiebant in hunc modum in populo. Rex quoque habuit de quolibet Comitatu duo
